The late acknowledgement of the receipt of the first cotton bloom, on Wednesday June 7th, is due to the fact that it was sent in during the editor's absence from the office and the forms were made up ready for press when learned. But it is not too late to state that it is the earliest bloom of any heard of not only in this parish, but those adjoining and it was from the cotton crop of Mr. J. B. Landrum on the Nelken place below town.

The trial of Newton and John Stewart, father and son, for the murder of Albert Brewton at Goldonna some few months ago was about the most important case to hold attention at the session of criminal court last week, two days being consumed, the jury retiring about eleven o'clock Saturday night and bringing in their verdict, just before midnight, of acquittal for the father and manslaughter for the son. Two other murder cases tried were those of T. Falcour, a Mexican, for the murder of a negro man, was acquitted and John Bryant, white tried for the murder of his nephew, T. Beilgood was sent to the penitentiary for manslaughter.

Resolutions of Respect.
Whereas, in his infinite wisdom, God has seen fit to lay the cold hand of death on our brother, Adolphe Kaffie, and remove him from this earthly sphere to "the land from which no traveler ever returns."

And, whereas, by the death of Bro. Kaffie who was a Master Mason, for many years and served his time as Master of Phoenix Lodge No. 38 F. and A. M. of Natchitoches, La., the Masonic fraternity has suffered a great loss, the country and business fraternity, an honorable man and citizen and his family a devoted husband and father;

Be it therefore resolved by Phoenix Lodge No. 38, F. and A. M. and its members here assembled, That while we deeply deplore the loss of so good a man and brother, that we can console ourselves and his family, by the fact, that he had lived life's life as a man, a citizen, as a friend, a father, husband and a Mason, and having thus lived, justly and true we can but commend his eternal spirit to our Father above, as He does all things well;

Be it further resolved: That a copy of these resolutions be spread on the minutes of this Lodge, a copy be sent to his bereaved family and copies be sent to the newspapers in the city of Natchitoches for publication and that the usual badge of mourning be worn by the members of the Lodge for thirty days.

Automobile Rights.

A prominent citizen who runs his own car, has asked us to call the attention of other automobile owners to the sharing of the road and to whom we call attention to the wholesome law upon which democracy is founded, which applies wonderfully to the matter in question "Equal rights to all, special privileges to none." Nine out of ten drivers keep the middle of the road and those are the ones who do the most kicking about others not turning off and giving a part-if not half of the right of way.

So as a right of law as well as road courtesy, the attention of all drivers is called to this, with the request that it be observed in the future.

And another request that comes from not one but numerous quarters, is that attention of the authorities be called to the constant and prolonged blowing of noisy sirens and horns, not as a signal when passing a corner but just for the fun, and the noisy "cut off" which is unnecessary and against the law in all cities. This was disagreeable enough when there were only a few cars but now when there are so very many that dash by not every few minutes, but constantly, these noises have become a nuisance and should be stopped.

Even standing room was at a premium, Sunday night at the beautiful new Methodist Church, when the annual sacred concert was given to an immense crowd that thoroughly enjoyed an unusually good program arranged by Mrs. W. T. Cunningham. After a hymn by all the congregation, solos were sung by Mrs. Guardia, Misses Seessel Breazeale, Abbott of Grand Rapides, Zeigler of Jennings and Messrs. Winstead, Chaplin and Johnson of Jennings; duet by Miss Carver and Mr. Winstead and two trios by Misses Porter, Carver and Breazeale.

Master Joe Henry Baynard of Alexandria who is visiting his aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. Himel, reached his fifth milestone on Sunday, which they celebrated with a lovely party that just the little friends in the neighborhood were invited to enjoy with him. The lawn at the pretty home made a splendid playground for all the games dear to little folks who froliced to their hearts' content but stopped long enough to enjoy the delicious ice cream and cakes and each little one in helping to cut the big birthday cake, made a dandy wish as a candle was blown out. Misses Joyce Weaver, Addie and Ivy Tuzin assisted Mrs. Himel in entertaining at this delightful birthday party.

Card of Thanks.
We wish to express our grateful appreciation to the many friends who paid such devoted attention through the illness of our husband and father.
His family, kindly offers and beautiful flowers sent, will never be forgotten by Mrs. Adolphe Kaffie and family.

Economical State government is always necessary. Constant wastefulness against waste is always most desirable. But economy, says The American Press, as a remedy for a serious financial defect and as an excuse for refusing proper support to needed industrial or eleemosynary institutions, is enough to excite derision. What has the tax dodger done for the State or any community within its boundaries, that we should sacrifice the chances of our children in after years in order to save a few dollars a year for him.
