

PERSONAL AND OTHERWISE

De Voe's Forecast: - August 18th a belt of showers will form over the Ohio Valley...

Miss May Weaver left on Saturday for Mansfield and her sister Pearl on Sunday for Boyce...

Mr. Frank Cook of Mansfield is enjoying a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Cook at their comfortable plantation home below town.

Miss Lillian and Miriam Nelson entertained in honor of the Cinderellas whose hospitality they have enjoyed during their vacation, on Tuesday afternoon...

The members of the K. T. O. gave a very happy surprise to Miss Lucille Deblieux on Saturday night by entertaining at a picture show party in honor of her birthday.

The Blue Birds had a delightful outing on Wednesday, when Mrs. Leston Deblieux chaperoned this band of little girls at a picnic at Iron Springs.

Judge C. A. Porter has been enjoying the past week at his fishing lodge on Black Lake that he is having enlarged and the wide galleries screened.

Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Roy and family motored to Boyce on Thursday where they have taken a cottage while enjoying a course of the hot well waters.

Mr. and Mrs. George Williamson left on Saturday for Gadston, Alabama, where they will spend a couple of weeks with Mr. and Mrs. James Cumming and son.

Mrs. John Raggio accompanied her young guest Miss Claire Duzger on her return to Alexandria last week and will spend some time with Dr. and Mrs. Dugger.

Misses Jeanette and Esther Wemp and Loreen Hargrove accompanied Miss Myra Ake to her home in Winfield on Thursday, where they will remain a week or two.

Mr. Abe Semmelman of Magnolia, Arkansas, arrived to take charge of the firm's store during the absence of his brother Marshal, who is local manager, in New York.

Mrs. Lawton and daughter, Miss Dorothy, Mrs. Alex Cloutier, Mr. and Mrs. U. Lambre and children, Misses Julia and Noelle Prudhomme were among the Bermuda visitors during the week.

Miss Maggie Voiers was the lucky winner of the first pretty dinner set given by the Hughes Dry Goods Co., for the leader in the two-weeks' contest now going on in that progressive establishment.

Some of the tables were placed on the screened porch and the rest in the parlor that was tastefully decorated with roses and ferns when Mrs. D. J. Hyams entertained the Round Table Club very delightfully Tuesday afternoon.

Misses Edna and Leola Levy and Messrs. Sam Caspari and George Sutton enjoyed Sunday at Boyce where the Caspari and Liso families are spending a month all returning that night, but Miss Edna, who remained over for a couple of weeks.

Mr. J. B. Tucker was host of a most enjoyable picture show party Tuesday night followed by a supper at the Peoples Cafe, in honor of Misses Joyce and Pearl Weaver's house party, when Mrs. Rosa assisted Leveque in chaperoning the jolly crowd of young people.

No formal invitations are being sent out for the marriage of Miss Cecile Prudhomme and Mr. Philip Cloutier that will be solemnized at St. Rose's Chapel, Bermuda on next Wednesday evening August 23rd at 4 p. m., but through this medium the family and friends are cordially invited to be present.

Sister Lucy, the capable and popular Superior of St. Mary's Academy and corps of assistants, after spending their well earned vacation at the mother house in San Antonio, arrived during the week and are busy getting in readiness for the opening of the convent next month.

Hours were spent in social intercourse and recalling war time stories and it was a tired but happy crowd that was motored back to town and separated at sundown.

After an absence of about a year and a half, Mr. Allen Collet is again at the helm in this office and our patrons are assured that their orders for commercial or fancy job work will be filled in the best and latest style, and with his old time promptness, satisfaction guaranteed in quality, neatness, promptness and prices.

The two greatest trans-national highways in the world are the Lincoln and Jefferson highways, the latter because of traversing a richer country and comparatively simpler construction problems, having somewhat the advantage over the former; and on next Tuesday the people of Natchitoches are going to have the opportunity by voting for the issuing of $250,000 of bonds to put themselves on this great highway.

Orders for job work of any and all kinds will be filled with neatness and dispatch and at prices to suit the times. Satisfaction guaranteed.

FOR SALE - 3 second hand cars 2 Fords and 1 Overland. Prices run from $100.00 to $300.00. THE SERVICE GARAGE.

Notice to Banks. The Board of School Directors of Natchitoches Parish invites bids from the bank of Natchitoches Parish desiring to become the Fiscal Agents of the said board.

Big reductions on Palm Beach Suits SEMMELMAN'S.

Mrs. Porter won the handsome 1st prize. Mrs. J. C. Keyser the 2nd and Mrs. Lily Ducournau the 3rd, in the game in which Mmes. L. and J. C. Deblieux, M. R. Hill, J. D. Rusca, Montgomery, Robert Hunter of Shreveport and Miss Leola Levy played as substitutes and Mrs. Leyeque came in to join them at tea when a delicious chicken salad course followed by ice cream and cakes were served by her mother, Mrs. Watson, Sister Mrs. M. Cornick of Shreveport and Mrs. Lou Fleming

Everybody is invited to attend the Farmers' Picnic tomorrow at Blanchard Springs. Barbecued meat, prepared as only the local barbequeers know how to barbecue, will be served in abundance, with the salads and sweets that will be furnished by the ladies.

An excellent program has been arranged for the edification of the guests, the addresses to be made by Commissioner of Agriculture, Harry D. Wilson, L. N. Barrow, editor of the Progressive Farmer, and Senator Cunningham, editor of The Times.

The Natchitoches Chapter U. D. C. commemorated the Battle of Oak Hills with an old fashioned picnic on Thursday in honor of the veterans and their families, to which was bidden many friends and between 125 and 150 ladies, gentlemen and children were in attendance and enjoyed a delightful outing.

The crowd gathered at the Comus where the Campiti band regaled them with some of its best numbers and then practically every private machine in town that was generously placed at the convenience of the committee for the purpose, conveyed them to Grand Ecore, which historic spot within sight of where Gen. Banks threw up his embankment during the civil war, before the siege of Vicksburg, and where Grant was stationed before the battle of Vera Cruz, during the Mexican War, was the scene of the festivities.

After all had assembled, the band played most inspiringly and then Hon. Phanor Breazeale made one of his most brilliant and touching addresses that drew forth rounds of applause and Gen. J. A. Prudhomme in a most informal manner, gave war time reminiscences that pleased his hearers immensely.

Then there was a most beautiful feast prepared especially for the noble old veterans, who adorned with their crosses of honor, came from every section of the parish and enjoyed the turkeys, chickens, ham, mutton, salads, jellies, lollies, stuffed eggs, ice cream, cakes, watermelons and all the guests were regaled to the utmost.

Hours were spent in social intercourse and recalling war time stories and it was a tired but happy crowd that was motored back to town and separated at sundown.

Mrs. Edna Kaffie left for Kansas City on Thursday evening where she will spend the next few months with her sister, Mrs. Dave Hart.

Miss May Weaver left on Saturday for Mansfield and her sister Pearl on Sunday for Boyce, where they will enjoy their vacation with friends.

Mr. Frank Cook of Mansfield is enjoying a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Cook at their comfortable plantation home below town.

Miss Lillian and Miriam Nelson entertained in honor of the Cinderellas whose hospitality they have enjoyed during their vacation, on Tuesday afternoon...

The members of the K. T. O. gave a very happy surprise to Miss Lucille Deblieux on Saturday night by entertaining at a picture show party in honor of her birthday.

The Blue Birds had a delightful outing on Wednesday, when Mrs. Leston Deblieux chaperoned this band of little girls at a picnic at Iron Springs.

Judge C. A. Porter has been enjoying the past week at his fishing lodge on Black Lake that he is having enlarged and the wide galleries screened.

Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Roy and family motored to Boyce on Thursday where they have taken a cottage while enjoying a course of the hot well waters.

Mr. and Mrs. George Williamson left on Saturday for Gadston, Alabama, where they will spend a couple of weeks with Mr. and Mrs. James Cumming and son.

Mrs. John Raggio accompanied her young guest Miss Claire Duzger on her return to Alexandria last week and will spend some time with Dr. and Mrs. Dugger.

Misses Jeanette and Esther Wemp and Loreen Hargrove accompanied Miss Myra Ake to her home in Winfield on Thursday, where they will remain a week or two.

Mr. Abe Semmelman of Magnolia, Arkansas, arrived to take charge of the firm's store during the absence of his brother Marshal, who is local manager, in New York.

Mrs. Lawton and daughter, Miss Dorothy, Mrs. Alex Cloutier, Mr. and Mrs. U. Lambre and children, Misses Julia and Noelle Prudhomme were among the Bermuda visitors during the week.

Miss Maggie Voiers was the lucky winner of the first pretty dinner set given by the Hughes Dry Goods Co., for the leader in the two-weeks' contest now going on in that progressive establishment.

Some of the tables were placed on the screened porch and the rest in the parlor that was tastefully decorated with roses and ferns when Mrs. D. J. Hyams entertained the Round Table Club very delightfully Tuesday afternoon.

Misses Edna and Leola Levy and Messrs. Sam Caspari and George Sutton enjoyed Sunday at Boyce where the Caspari and Liso families are spending a month all returning that night, but Miss Edna, who remained over for a couple of weeks.

Mr. J. B. Tucker was host of a most enjoyable picture show party Tuesday night followed by a supper at the Peoples Cafe, in honor of Misses Joyce and Pearl Weaver's house party, when Mrs. Rosa assisted Leveque in chaperoning the jolly crowd of young people.

No formal invitations are being sent out for the marriage of Miss Cecile Prudhomme and Mr. Philip Cloutier that will be solemnized at St. Rose's Chapel, Bermuda on next Wednesday evening August 23rd at 4 p. m., but through this medium the family and friends are cordially invited to be present.

Sister Lucy, the capable and popular Superior of St. Mary's Academy and corps of assistants, after spending their well earned vacation at the mother house in San Antonio, arrived during the week and are busy getting in readiness for the opening of the convent next month.

Hours were spent in social intercourse and recalling war time stories and it was a tired but happy crowd that was motored back to town and separated at sundown.

After an absence of about a year and a half, Mr. Allen Collet is again at the helm in this office and our patrons are assured that their orders for commercial or fancy job work will be filled in the best and latest style, and with his old time promptness, satisfaction guaranteed in quality, neatness, promptness and prices.

The two greatest trans-national highways in the world are the Lincoln and Jefferson highways, the latter because of traversing a richer country and comparatively simpler construction problems, having somewhat the advantage over the former; and on next Tuesday the people of Natchitoches are going to have the opportunity by voting for the issuing of $250,000 of bonds to put themselves on this great highway.

Orders for job work of any and all kinds will be filled with neatness and dispatch and at prices to suit the times. Satisfaction guaranteed.

FOR SALE - 3 second hand cars 2 Fords and 1 Overland. Prices run from $100.00 to $300.00. THE SERVICE GARAGE.

Notice to Banks. The Board of School Directors of Natchitoches Parish invites bids from the bank of Natchitoches Parish desiring to become the Fiscal Agents of the said board.

Big reductions on Palm Beach Suits SEMMELMAN'S.

Mrs. Porter won the handsome 1st prize. Mrs. J. C. Keyser the 2nd and Mrs. Lily Ducournau the 3rd, in the game in which Mmes. L. and J. C. Deblieux, M. R. Hill, J. D. Rusca, Montgomery, Robert Hunter of Shreveport and Miss Leola Levy played as substitutes and Mrs. Leyeque came in to join them at tea when a delicious chicken salad course followed by ice cream and cakes were served by her mother, Mrs. Watson, Sister Mrs. M. Cornick of Shreveport and Mrs. Lou Fleming

Everybody is invited to attend the Farmers' Picnic tomorrow at Blanchard Springs. Barbecued meat, prepared as only the local barbequeers know how to barbecue, will be served in abundance, with the salads and sweets that will be furnished by the ladies.

An excellent program has been arranged for the edification of the guests, the addresses to be made by Commissioner of Agriculture, Harry D. Wilson, L. N. Barrow, editor of the Progressive Farmer, and Senator Cunningham, editor of The Times.

The Natchitoches Chapter U. D. C. commemorated the Battle of Oak Hills with an old fashioned picnic on Thursday in honor of the veterans and their families, to which was bidden many friends and between 125 and 150 ladies, gentlemen and children were in attendance and enjoyed a delightful outing.

The crowd gathered at the Comus where the Campiti band regaled them with some of its best numbers and then practically every private machine in town that was generously placed at the convenience of the committee for the purpose, conveyed them to Grand Ecore, which historic spot within sight of where Gen. Banks threw up his embankment during the civil war, before the siege of Vicksburg, and where Grant was stationed before the battle of Vera Cruz, during the Mexican War, was the scene of the festivities.

After all had assembled, the band played most inspiringly and then Hon. Phanor Breazeale made one of his most brilliant and touching addresses that drew forth rounds of applause and Gen. J. A. Prudhomme in a most informal manner, gave war time reminiscences that pleased his hearers immensely.

Then there was a most beautiful feast prepared especially for the noble old veterans, who adorned with their crosses of honor, came from every section of the parish and enjoyed the turkeys, chickens, ham, mutton, salads, jellies, lollies, stuffed eggs, ice cream, cakes, watermelons and all the guests were regaled to the utmost.

Hours were spent in social intercourse and recalling war time stories and it was a tired but happy crowd that was motored back to town and separated at sundown.

After an absence of about a year and a half, Mr. Allen Collet is again at the helm in this office and our patrons are assured that their orders for commercial or fancy job work will be filled in the best and latest style, and with his old time promptness, satisfaction guaranteed in quality, neatness, promptness and prices.

The two greatest trans-national highways in the world are the Lincoln and Jefferson highways, the latter because of traversing a richer country and comparatively simpler construction problems, having somewhat the advantage over the former; and on next Tuesday the people of Natchitoches are going to have the opportunity by voting for the issuing of $250,000 of bonds to put themselves on this great highway.

Orders for job work of any and all kinds will be filled with neatness and dispatch and at prices to suit the times. Satisfaction guaranteed.

FOR SALE - 3 second hand cars 2 Fords and 1 Overland. Prices run from $100.00 to $300.00. THE SERVICE GARAGE.

Mrs. Edna Kaffie left for Kansas City on Thursday evening where she will spend the next few months with her sister, Mrs. Dave Hart.

Miss May Weaver left on Saturday for Mansfield and her sister Pearl on Sunday for Boyce, where they will enjoy their vacation with friends.

Mr. Frank Cook of Mansfield is enjoying a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Cook at their comfortable plantation home below town.

Miss Lillian and Miriam Nelson entertained in honor of the Cinderellas whose hospitality they have enjoyed during their vacation, on Tuesday afternoon...

The members of the K. T. O. gave a very happy surprise to Miss Lucille Deblieux on Saturday night by entertaining at a picture show party in honor of her birthday.

The Blue Birds had a delightful outing on Wednesday, when Mrs. Leston Deblieux chaperoned this band of little girls at a picnic at Iron Springs.

Judge C. A. Porter has been enjoying the past week at his fishing lodge on Black Lake that he is having enlarged and the wide galleries screened.

Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Roy and family motored to Boyce on Thursday where they have taken a cottage while enjoying a course of the hot well waters.

Mr. and Mrs. George Williamson left on Saturday for Gadston, Alabama, where they will spend a couple of weeks with Mr. and Mrs. James Cumming and son.

Mrs. John Raggio accompanied her young guest Miss Claire Duzger on her return to Alexandria last week and will spend some time with Dr. and Mrs. Dugger.

Misses Jeanette and Esther Wemp and Loreen Hargrove accompanied Miss Myra Ake to her home in Winfield on Thursday, where they will remain a week or two.

Mr. Abe Semmelman of Magnolia, Arkansas, arrived to take charge of the firm's store during the absence of his brother Marshal, who is local manager, in New York.

Mrs. Lawton and daughter, Miss Dorothy, Mrs. Alex Cloutier, Mr. and Mrs. U. Lambre and children, Misses Julia and Noelle Prudhomme were among the Bermuda visitors during the week.

Miss Maggie Voiers was the lucky winner of the first pretty dinner set given by the Hughes Dry Goods Co., for the leader in the two-weeks' contest now going on in that progressive establishment.

Some of the tables were placed on the screened porch and the rest in the parlor that was tastefully decorated with roses and ferns when Mrs. D. J. Hyams entertained the Round Table Club very delightfully Tuesday afternoon.

Misses Edna and Leola Levy and Messrs. Sam Caspari and George Sutton enjoyed Sunday at Boyce where the Caspari and Liso families are spending a month all returning that night, but Miss Edna, who remained over for a couple of weeks.

Mr. J. B. Tucker was host of a most enjoyable picture show party Tuesday night followed by a supper at the Peoples Cafe, in honor of Misses Joyce and Pearl Weaver's house party, when Mrs. Rosa assisted Leveque in chaperoning the jolly crowd of young people.

No formal invitations are being sent out for the marriage of Miss Cecile Prudhomme and Mr. Philip Cloutier that will be solemnized at St. Rose's Chapel, Bermuda on next Wednesday evening August 23rd at 4 p. m., but through this medium the family and friends are cordially invited to be present.

Sister Lucy, the capable and popular Superior of St. Mary's Academy and corps of assistants, after spending their well earned vacation at the mother house in San Antonio, arrived during the week and are busy getting in readiness for the opening of the convent next month.

Hours were spent in social intercourse and recalling war time stories and it was a tired but happy crowd that was motored back to town and separated at sundown.

After an absence of about a year and a half, Mr. Allen Collet is again at the helm in this office and our patrons are assured that their orders for commercial or fancy job work will be filled in the best and latest style, and with his old time promptness, satisfaction guaranteed in quality, neatness, promptness and prices.

The two greatest trans-national highways in the world are the Lincoln and Jefferson highways, the latter because of traversing a richer country and comparatively simpler construction problems, having somewhat the advantage over the former; and on next Tuesday the people of Natchitoches are going to have the opportunity by voting for the issuing of $250,000 of bonds to put themselves on this great highway.

Orders for job work of any and all kinds will be filled with neatness and dispatch and at prices to suit the times. Satisfaction guaranteed.

FOR SALE - 3 second hand cars 2 Fords and 1 Overland. Prices run from $100.00 to $300.00. THE SERVICE GARAGE.

Notice to Banks. The Board of School Directors of Natchitoches Parish invites bids from the bank of Natchitoches Parish desiring to become the Fiscal Agents of the said board.

Big reductions on Palm Beach Suits SEMMELMAN'S.

Mrs. Porter won the handsome 1st prize. Mrs. J. C. Keyser the 2nd and Mrs. Lily Ducournau the 3rd, in the game in which Mmes. L. and J. C. Deblieux, M. R. Hill, J. D. Rusca, Montgomery, Robert Hunter of Shreveport and Miss Leola Levy played as substitutes and Mrs. Leyeque came in to join them at tea when a delicious chicken salad course followed by ice cream and cakes were served by her mother, Mrs. Watson, Sister Mrs. M. Cornick of Shreveport and Mrs. Lou Fleming

Everybody is invited to attend the Farmers' Picnic tomorrow at Blanchard Springs. Barbecued meat, prepared as only the local barbequeers know how to barbecue, will be served in abundance, with the salads and sweets that will be furnished by the ladies.

An excellent program has been arranged for the edification of the guests, the addresses to be made by Commissioner of Agriculture, Harry D. Wilson, L. N. Barrow, editor of the Progressive Farmer, and Senator Cunningham, editor of The Times.

The Natchitoches Chapter U. D. C. commemorated the Battle of Oak Hills with an old fashioned picnic on Thursday in honor of the veterans and their families, to which was bidden many friends and between 125 and 150 ladies, gentlemen and children were in attendance and enjoyed a delightful outing.

The crowd gathered at the Comus where the Campiti band regaled them with some of its best numbers and then practically every private machine in town that was generously placed at the convenience of the committee for the purpose, conveyed them to Grand Ecore, which historic spot within sight of where Gen. Banks threw up his embankment during the civil war, before the siege of Vicksburg, and where Grant was stationed before the battle of Vera Cruz, during the Mexican War, was the scene of the festivities.

After all had assembled, the band played most inspiringly and then Hon. Phanor Breazeale made one of his most brilliant and touching addresses that drew forth rounds of applause and Gen. J. A. Prudhomme in a most informal manner, gave war time reminiscences that pleased his hearers immensely.

Then there was a most beautiful feast prepared especially for the noble old veterans, who adorned with their crosses of honor, came from every section of the parish and enjoyed the turkeys, chickens, ham, mutton, salads, jellies, lollies, stuffed eggs, ice cream, cakes, watermelons and all the guests were regaled to the utmost.

Hours were spent in social intercourse and recalling war time stories and it was a tired but happy crowd that was motored back to town and separated at sundown.

After an absence of about a year and a half, Mr. Allen Collet is again at the helm in this office and our patrons are assured that their orders for commercial or fancy job work will be filled in the best and latest style, and with his old time promptness, satisfaction guaranteed in quality, neatness, promptness and prices.

The two greatest trans-national highways in the world are the Lincoln and Jefferson highways, the latter because of traversing a richer country and comparatively simpler construction problems, having somewhat the advantage over the former; and on next Tuesday the people of Natchitoches are going to have the opportunity by voting for the issuing of $250,000 of bonds to put themselves on this great highway.

Orders for job work of any and all kinds will be filled with neatness and dispatch and at prices to suit the times. Satisfaction guaranteed.

FOR SALE - 3 second hand cars 2 Fords and 1 Overland. Prices run from $100.00 to $300.00. THE SERVICE GARAGE.

Mrs. Edna Kaffie left for Kansas City on Thursday evening where she will spend the next few months with her sister, Mrs. Dave Hart.

Miss May Weaver left on Saturday for Mansfield and her sister Pearl on Sunday for Boyce, where they will enjoy their vacation with friends.

Mr. Frank Cook of Mansfield is enjoying a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Cook at their comfortable plantation home below town.

Miss Lillian and Miriam Nelson entertained in honor of the Cinderellas whose hospitality they have enjoyed during their vacation, on Tuesday afternoon...

The members of the K. T. O. gave a very happy surprise to Miss Lucille Deblieux on Saturday night by entertaining at a picture show party in honor of her birthday.

The Blue Birds had a delightful outing on Wednesday, when Mrs. Leston Deblieux chaperoned this band of little girls at a picnic at Iron Springs.

Judge C. A. Porter has been enjoying the past week at his fishing lodge on Black Lake that he is having enlarged and the wide galleries screened.

Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Roy and family motored to Boyce on Thursday where they have taken a cottage while enjoying a course of the hot well waters.

Mr. and Mrs. George Williamson left on Saturday for Gadston, Alabama, where they will spend a couple of weeks with Mr. and Mrs. James Cumming and son.

Mrs. John Raggio accompanied her young guest Miss Claire Duzger on her return to Alexandria last week and will spend some time with Dr. and Mrs. Dugger.

Misses Jeanette and Esther Wemp and Loreen Hargrove accompanied Miss Myra Ake to her home in Winfield on Thursday, where they will remain a week or two.

Mr. Abe Semmelman of Magnolia, Arkansas, arrived to take charge of the firm's store during the absence of his brother Marshal, who is local manager, in New York.

Mrs. Lawton and daughter, Miss Dorothy, Mrs. Alex Cloutier, Mr. and Mrs. U. Lambre and children, Misses Julia and Noelle Prudhomme were among the Bermuda visitors during the week.

Miss Maggie Voiers was the lucky winner of the first pretty dinner set given by the Hughes Dry Goods Co., for the leader in the two-weeks' contest now going on in that progressive establishment.

Some of the tables were placed on the screened porch and the rest in the parlor that was tastefully decorated with roses and ferns when Mrs. D. J. Hyams entertained the Round Table Club very delightfully Tuesday afternoon.

Misses Edna and Leola Levy and Messrs. Sam Caspari and George Sutton enjoyed Sunday at Boyce where the Caspari and Liso families are spending a month all returning that night, but Miss Edna, who remained over for a couple of weeks.

Mr. J. B. Tucker was host of a most enjoyable picture show party Tuesday night followed by a supper at the Peoples Cafe, in honor of Misses Joyce and Pearl Weaver's house party, when Mrs. Rosa assisted Leveque in chaperoning the jolly crowd of young people.

No formal invitations are being sent out for the marriage of Miss Cecile Prudhomme and Mr. Philip Cloutier that will be solemnized at St. Rose's Chapel, Bermuda on next Wednesday evening August 23rd at 4 p. m., but through this medium the family and friends are cordially invited to be present.

Sister Lucy, the capable and popular Superior of St. Mary's Academy and corps of assistants, after spending their well earned vacation at the mother house in San Antonio, arrived during the week and are busy getting in readiness for the opening of the convent next month.

Hours were spent in social intercourse and recalling war time stories and it was a tired but happy crowd that was motored back to town and separated at sundown.

After an absence of about a year and a half, Mr. Allen Collet is again at the helm in this office and our patrons are assured that their orders for commercial or fancy job work will be filled in the best and latest style, and with his old time promptness, satisfaction guaranteed in quality, neatness, promptness and prices.

The two greatest trans-national highways in the world are the Lincoln and Jefferson highways, the latter because of traversing a richer country and comparatively simpler construction problems, having somewhat the advantage over the former; and on next Tuesday the people of Natchitoches are going to have the opportunity by voting for the issuing of $250,000 of bonds to put themselves on this great highway.

Orders for job work of any and all kinds will be filled with neatness and dispatch and at prices to suit the times. Satisfaction guaranteed.

FOR SALE - 3 second hand cars 2 Fords and 1 Overland. Prices run from $100.00 to $300.00. THE SERVICE GARAGE.

Notice to Banks. The Board of School Directors of Natchitoches Parish invites bids from the bank of Natchitoches Parish desiring to become the Fiscal Agents of the said board.

Big reductions on Palm Beach Suits SEMMELMAN'S.

Mrs. Porter won the handsome 1st prize. Mrs. J. C. Keyser the 2nd and Mrs. Lily Ducournau the 3rd, in the game in which Mmes. L. and J. C. Deblieux, M. R. Hill, J. D. Rusca, Montgomery, Robert Hunter of Shreveport and Miss Leola Levy played as substitutes and Mrs. Leyeque came in to join them at tea when a delicious chicken salad course followed by ice cream and cakes were served by her mother, Mrs. Watson, Sister Mrs. M. Cornick of Shreveport and Mrs. Lou Fleming

Everybody is invited to attend the Farmers' Picnic tomorrow at Blanchard Springs. Barbecued meat, prepared as only the local barbequeers know how to barbecue, will be served in abundance, with the salads and sweets that will be furnished by the ladies.

An excellent program has been arranged for the edification of the guests, the addresses to be made by Commissioner of Agriculture, Harry D. Wilson, L. N. Barrow, editor of the Progressive Farmer, and Senator Cunningham, editor of The Times.

The Natchitoches Chapter U. D. C. commemorated the Battle of Oak Hills with an old fashioned picnic on Thursday in honor of the veterans and their families, to which was bidden many friends and between 125 and 150 ladies, gentlemen and children were in attendance and enjoyed a delightful outing.

The crowd gathered at the Comus where the Campiti band regaled them with some of its best numbers and then practically every private machine in town that was generously placed at the convenience of the committee for the purpose, conveyed them to Grand Ecore, which historic spot within sight of where Gen. Banks threw up his embankment during the civil war, before the siege of Vicksburg, and where Grant was stationed before the battle of Vera Cruz, during the Mexican War, was the scene of the festivities.

After all had assembled, the band played most inspiringly and then Hon. Phanor Breazeale made one of his most brilliant and touching addresses that drew forth rounds of applause and Gen. J. A. Prudhomme in a most informal manner, gave war time reminiscences that pleased his hearers immensely.

Then there was a most beautiful feast prepared especially for the noble old veterans, who adorned with their crosses of honor, came from every section of the parish and enjoyed the turkeys, chickens, ham, mutton, salads, jellies, lollies, stuffed eggs, ice cream, cakes, watermelons and all the guests were regaled to the utmost.

Hours were spent in social intercourse and recalling war time stories and it was a tired but happy crowd that was motored back to town and separated at sundown.

After an absence of about a year and a half, Mr. Allen Collet is again at the helm in this office and our patrons are assured that their orders for commercial or fancy job work will be filled in the best and latest style, and with his old time promptness, satisfaction guaranteed in quality, neatness, promptness and prices.

The two greatest trans-national highways in the world are the Lincoln and Jefferson highways, the latter because of traversing a richer country and comparatively simpler construction problems, having somewhat the advantage over the former; and on next Tuesday the people of Natchitoches are going to have the opportunity by voting for the issuing of $250,000 of bonds to put themselves on this great highway.

Orders for job work of any and all kinds will be filled with neatness and dispatch and at prices to suit the times. Satisfaction guaranteed.

FOR SALE - 3 second hand cars 2 Fords and 1 Overland. Prices run from $100.00 to $300.00. THE SERVICE GARAGE.

Mrs. Edna Kaffie left for Kansas City on Thursday evening where she will spend the next few months with her sister, Mrs. Dave Hart.

Miss May Weaver left on Saturday for Mansfield and her sister Pearl on Sunday for Boyce, where they will enjoy their vacation with friends.