Mrs. J. H. Keyser entertained her club Wednesday most delightfully, just two substitutes playing with the two tables, when Mrs. Horace Hughes scored highest and was awarded first prize, a handsome bedside water set, and Mrs. Chaplin second, her prize being a pretty almond set.

The luncheon boards were most attractive, four little candy jars full of delicious sweets, adorned with corsage bouquets of dahlias and ferns, formed the centerpiece, around which were the plates daintily served with chicken, dressing, jelly, French peas, pineapple salad, olives, celery, bread and butter sandwiches and ice tea.

Mmes. Chaplin and Carnahan of Mississippi were the substitutes and Mrs. C. M. Cunningham joined the guests at tea, which brought to a close this lovely party.

Why Suffer?

Cardui "Did Wonders for Me," Declares This Lady.

"I suffered for a long time with womanly weakness," says Mrs. J. R. Simpson, of 57 Spruce St., Asheville, N. C. "I finally got to the place where it was an effort for me to go. I would have bearing-down pains in my side and back—especially across my back, and down in my side there was a great deal of soreness. I was nervous and easily upset."

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

"I heard of Cardui and decided to use it," continues Mrs. Simpson. "I saw shortly it was benefiting me, so I kept it up and it did wonders for me. And since then I have been glad to praise Cardui. It is the best woman's tonic made." Weak women need a tonic. Thousands and thousands, like Mrs. Simpson, have found Cardui of benefit to them. Try Cardui for your trouble.
