LOCAL NEWS.

—Sad news reached us this morning announcing the death of Irving S. Sudder, son of Mr. H. S. Sudder and L. M. Riggs, at the home of his parents. Deceased was a very promising young man, only 18 years of age. His death will be an irreparable loss to his parents and friends. The funeral services will be held at the Methodist Church to-day at 3:30 p. m.

—The Knights of Temperance entertainment given last Tuesday night, was very poorly attended, owing to the very inclement weather all day, and the fact that it was election day, everybody was out looking for latest news. J. Williams Macey, the entertainer of the evening, acquitted himself in his usual brilliant style, in his personations of character, songs and stories, the audience enjoyed the programme hugely and declared they had enjoyed a most pleasant evening.

—Adelaide Thurston, who will be seen here Saturday night, Nov. 22 in "At Cozy Corners", in an interview that was extensively published throughout the country, expressed the opinion that young women who believed they had a talent for the stage should be encouraged, the same as aspirants for other vocations. Since then Miss Thurston has had cause to regret her sanguine advice. From far and near letters have poured in from stage-struck damsels who have rushed to her for comfort and further encouragement.

—An old veteran of the seas, in speaking of the performance given by the Quinlan & Wall Imperial Minstrels, that are to be at Vendome Opera House, likened it into a modern craft, a stupendous "propella" of progress and safety. Every mast and sail is charged with the sentiment; "A Glimpse into the Future of Minstrelsy." The First Part, "A Reception to the Diplomatic Legion," makes altogether first parts conspicuously insignificant. This, mark you, is the verdict of the great critics, the press and the people. The olio is an irresistible ebullition of all that's matchless, never seen before. The olio acts, each and every one a "top liner," thrill the blood, bring the flash to excitement's cheeks and creates roar of laughter. Think of it! The Great Sanderson, the Humane Miracle of Melody, the Comedy Poet of the Piano; Mullen & Correll, who present their ap-to-the-minute comedy, "Chauncey and His Sweetheart's Little Brother"; Brothers Giscard, French Exponents of Equitose.

—Col. Sharp of Charles street, gave this office an appreciated call yesterday, bringing with him the model of his cane harvester, upon which he has received a caveat and for which a patent has been applied for. The machine is supposed to cut the cane, strip the leaves and trash from it, cutting off the tops below the white joint only, and delivering the cane in bundles easy to load, the arrangement seems complete in every detail and to a superficial observer it seems well calculated for the purpose. Mr. Sharp has exhibited his invention to a number of planters, and to the Sugar Planters Association where he received marked encouragement, both morally and financially. He claims that one of the machines can prepare ready for the cart 300 tons of cane per day at an expense for labor of $10.00 a wonderful saving. If this machine can be made a success it will revolutionize the harvesting of cane and will snatch success from the very jaws of defeat in the sugar business, and Mr. Sharp will be considered the patron saint of the sugar cane growers.

—Last Wednesday morning at Jeanerette, a most ghastly sight was seen at the railroad track near the water tanks, being the body of a white man which had been horribly mutilated and crushed presumably by the train. A coroner's jury failed to develop any facts in the case, it is presumed the man was stealing a tramp ride and possibly fell beneath the trucks, with the result as stated.

—When we see a theatrical company advised to play at "popular prices" as a rule we do not expect to see anything above the ordinary at least, but in the Peruchelli company have given us an agreeable surprise and a decided exception to the rule; for the plays presented, the handsome and complete scenery shown, the excellent specialties introduced between the acts, and above all the exceptional excellence and strength of the entire company as artists, make the performance a success. Miss Ella Boland, the leading lady of the company, is an emotional actress of finesse and power and has already established herself as a favorite. Chelso D. Peruchelli, who heads the company, is the funniest by far of the eccentric comedians ever seen here and his "curtain talks" or announcements of themselves were laughable interesting and amusing than any other style of specialty. Frank Fabry is a funny and pleasant light comedian, and the Carleton Sisters, in their singing and dancing specialty, won the favor and vigorous applause of two very well pleased audiences. "The Slaves of Russia" was presented Thursday night, and last night the bill was "At the Stroke of One," a powerful and absorbing problem play on capital and labor. The matinee for Sunday is "Young Mrs. Winthrop," and "A Midnight Marriage" will be played to-morrow night. This company is an excellent one and in every way deserving of general patronage and support.

—The Police Jury was in regular session last Thursday, President Brittain presiding. Among the matters disposed of was the conclusion to sell the old jail at auction in the near future. This will be a chance for our local junk dealers to buy materials that can be resold again to advantage, as there is quite a lot of building material in the jail that can be utilized for various purposes.

DeBlanc & Landry is the place to sell your pecans, peas and eggs.

—The work on the Government building is now getting on nicely, materials are arriving, and stone cutters at work, nearly every passer-by stops to look at the work feeling they have a personal interest in the building.

—We regret to learn of the critical illness by typhoid fever of Mr. Jas. W. Wyche at his home on the Teche a few miles from town. At present his friends cannot say as to the outcome, as the turn in the disease has not yet arrived, his condition causes serious apprehension, and we await anxiously news from the home.

The highest prices paid for peas, and eggs at DeBlanc & Landry.

—The making of sidewalks is in good progress all over town they are being put down wherever needed. We notice a fine stretch on Prairie Avenue leading from Main.

Your horses will fare better on clipped oats, the only place to get them is at A. S. Conways.

—Miss Adelaide Thurston, the star of that very successful comedy-drama, "At Cozy Corners", to be seen here Saturday night, November 22d, is by virtue of her altitude in the mimic drama deprived of the ordinary pleasures usually enjoyed by young women of spirit and activity. In her contract with her managers, Frank J. and Claxton Wiltchek, she is debarred from riding a bicycle, or automobile, skating on ice or in roller fashion, or riding in toboggan slides of any kind of gravity railway. On top of this Miss Thurston has her life insured for $10,000, her managers named as beneficiaries. The reason of these precautions arises from a desire to obviate the risk resulting from accident or death, for in such an event, the large amount of money involved in scenery, costumes, printing and other incidentals would be almost a total loss.
