Mr. Homer Mouton whose pug-nut pen has so often stirred the hearts of the people at Lafayette through the columns of the Gazette, has withdrawn from that sterling journal and accepted a position with the Baton Rouge Advocate, where his fine talent will have wider scope, but not keener appreciation. As a writer of terse and strong editorials, confrere Homer Mouton is hard to surpass, and this fact no doubt induced the B. R. A. to offer him a place in its sanctum. We predict continued and larger success for him.

Bill, invoice, and letter files, pony clips, letter holders, punches, letter cases, records, collectors's cases, letter baskets, bill holders, desk pads. Everything in this line at Enterprise Stationery Store.

If you really want downright, real enjoyment that will make you say, it is the best I ever witnessed, then see "A Wise Member," who will be with you soon, accompanied by his family of merry-makers.

Each of the three acts bristles with qualities that combine to make a great success. The development of the plot is of unusual strength and is so full of surprises, and ludicrous, laughter provoking situations, that it should be seen to be appreciated. You have no doubt witnessed many good plays, but "A Wise Member" is greater.

You have perhaps laughed at funny situations, but "A Wise Member" has funnier ones. Possibly you have been moved to great applause by clever specialties, "A Wise Member" will surpass anything you have ever seen in that, as well as all other respects.

PERSONALS. Miss Mena Bernard of Sogara, visited Miss Pearl Conville of Rayne, last Sunday.

Judge Robert Brown and Mr. T. A. Hutches, two progressive and honored citizens, have purchased homes on Washington street.

Messrs. Ed Degeneres, R. E. Freeman and J. H. White went to the Guydean vicinity last Thursday on a hunting trip. It is a wise provision of the parish authorities over there that no game shall be shipped out of the parish, otherwise these nimrods would stock the market and exterminate the species.

Mr. J. E. Nettles of Abbeville, was over for a day attending to some matters of business.

Mr. W. G. Hall, recently of this place, has located at Brownsville, Texas, where he will engage in the culture of rice, under most favorable auspices. He will remove his family this week.

Hon. L. T. Dulany attended Supreme Court in the Crescent City this week. He was accompanied by Mrs. Dulany.

The first regular meeting of the Wednesday Afternoon Euchre Club for the New Year was held this week at the home of Mrs. Soulier. Miss Rita Soulier was the hostess of this meeting, which was a most unique and entertaining affair.

The tables were marked with pictures of animals, your card directing you to the table represented, and points were counted with animal crackers tied with colored ribbons. The prizes are not the prominent feature of this club, but only souvenirs given by the ladies in recognition of one's luck and skill for that afternoon. The first prize on this occasion was a year's subscription to one of our most popular monthly magazines, and was won by Mrs. Maurice Galland.

The second, a book containing much good advice for one so lucky as to win it, fell to Miss Bertha Soulier; the booby to Miss Duperier. After the serving of dainty refreshments the annual election of officers took place and resulted as follows: Mrs. J. P. Russell, president; Miss C. Soulier, vice-president; Miss Billings, treasurer; Mrs. W. O. Bunch, secretary. This popular club has just completed its third year, and begins a fourth with great promise of a continuance of its usual popularity and prosperity.

The guests of the club this week were Mrs. Provost and Miss Sorrell of Olivier.

Mr. W. R. Farmer attended as a delegate, the meeting of the World's Rice Association, recently held at Houston, Texas.

We learn that the venerable Mr. Alexander Ribbeck is quite ill at his residence, West Main street.

Every Drop Counts. Remember that when you are rubbing Perry Dye's Pinkkiller on a smudge that has been stained by greasework. Down into the tiny pores of the skin Pinkkiller works its way, soothing the inflamed tissue and taking away the ache. Ask your druggist what his other customers say of this household benefactor. There is but one Pinkkiller, Perry Dye's.

KNIGHTS OF HONOR NOTES.

On the occasion of the annual celebration Iberia Lodge No. 3155, Knights of Honor was favored with a visit from several of the Grand Lodge Officers: Hon. Louis P. Paquet, Grand Dictator of New Orleans; Hon. James Simon, P. G. D. P. S. R. of St. Martinville; Hon. W. J. Bosworth, General Assistant Dictator of New Orleans.

These distinguished gentlemen, were present by special invitation, to install the officers elected for the year 1903. The evening's program began with an informal reception to the Grand Lodge Officers, followed by the interesting ceremony of initiation in which three candidates received the degree of Knights. This was the last official act of the officers who have served during 1902.

The Grand Dictator, with Brother Dudley S. Campbell in the chair of Dictator, were duly installed into office. The retiring officers are pleased to show in their report an increase in membership during the past twelve months, and the new officers have the assurance of an active year before them. Addresses were made by the visitors, after which it was announced by Brother Albert Decour, Chairman of the Committee on Entertainment, that the banquet was ready to be served at the Moos restaurant. Needless to say that the guests were served in the usual attentive manner and it was past the hour of midnight before the last toast was drunk and the said good-bye. Owing to many circumstances it has been decided to delay the holding of the Grand Lodge session at New Iberia until the year 1904. Although this is a great disappointment to the membership the same welcome will be extended to them one year later.

To the officers who are serving in the 19th year of the history of Iberia Lodge we extend our best wishes for a year full of prosperity to their lodge and its membership.

Gum wants an appropriation of $40,000 for public improvements. This colony business is an expensive luxury, except for the favored few who secure special privileges and can form the natives.

The National Board of Trade, in session at Washington, adopted resolutions urging Congress to make liberal appropriations for river and harbor improvements and recommending the enactment of a law providing for a better currency system.

A black cat its feet shod with walnut shells, nearly caused a panic in Statuary Hall in the National Capitol about midnight in New Year. The noise caused by the one poor cat sounded like a troop of cavalry and, only after the full guard was called out, was the actual trouble discovered.

Yours truly, HARRY TURNER.

JEANERETTE NOTES. Mrs. C. A. McGowen entertained magnificently at an elegant reception given by her to a host of friends on Friday 16th instant.
