

LOCAL NEWS.

Owing to fact that our national holiday falls on our regular publication day, we decided to issue our paper a few hours earlier, in order to give our force the full benefit of the day to spend in such patriotic diversions as seems best to them.

Company "G" will leave for Crowley to take part in the 4th of July celebration there, under the command of Lieutenants Vallemont and Frowst.

Everybody should attend the 4th of July excursion to Jeanette for the benefit of the Cemetery Association. A good time is in store for all who will take in the trip.

We are pleased to note that since our last issue our Police Officers have been active in looking after the swarm of peddlers who have invaded our community and are selling goods without license, consequently doing considerable harm to our home merchants.

Teche Encampment No. 18, Knights of Temperance, held their annual election of officers last Friday, June 26th, at their new home in the Pythian building.

DEATH OF JOS. K. BOUTTE.

Our community was thrown into deepest grief when it was announced that popular Joe Boutte, had passed to the great beyond.

He was a member, performed the beautiful burial rites at the home of the deceased Monday evening, from thence the remains were followed by a large concourse of sorrowing friends to St. Peter's Catholic Church where the rites of the Church were solemnly given.

New Iberia, La., July 3d, 1903. Received as Tutrix from Sovereign Camp Woodmen of the World of Omaha, Nebraska, their check No. 8871, for the sum of Two Thousand Dollars in payment of the claim for certificate of late Sovereign A. H. Widney.

The Derville Club is correct when it says that "some people do not seem to realize that space in the columns of a newspaper is as valuable to the newspaper man as are the goods in the stores to the merchants. Most any one would think of flying before they would of going into a store and asking for a bolt of calico or a pound of butter, and not expect to pay for it."

The patrons of the Tribune were very liberal last week in their patronage, and kept the Editor on the jump the entire week. Much of the time working him over time, this necessitated our doing things in a rush, and the consequence are several inadvertent and/or typographical errors.

A YANKEE'S OPINION OF THE SOUTH.

A few days since a traveling man from the north—we did not learn his name—was here, and in speaking of the country generally he said, "What a delightful country this is to live in and how little the residents appreciate it."

The Cemetery Association will hold their regular meeting next Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock. A full attendance is required.

The Donaldsonville Times of June 10th says: "Manager Wallace Barron, of the Donaldsonville Canning Factory, who returned from Thibodaux this morning, informed us that the canning factory at that place is working splendidly for a new enterprise and is doing a fine business in the way of canning berries."

A Californian has hit upon a novel plan for making poultry work in his plum orchard where and how he will, of cleaning the land of curculios and fertilizing it at the same time. He has twenty-eight small, portable boxes, each containing about fifty hens. Most of the house is a simple enclosure of wire mesh, with a covered annex for stormy weather and for a roosting place.
