KIDNEY TROUBLE DUE TO CATARRH.

N. J. HERTZ

The Curative Power of PERUNA in Kidney Disease the Talk of the Continent.

Nicholas J. Hertz, Member of Ancient Order of Workmen, Capitol Lodge, No. 140, Pearl Street Hotel, Albany, N. Y., writes:

"A few months ago I contracted a heavy cold which settled in my kidneys, and each time I was exposed to inclement weather the trouble was aggravated until finally I was unable to work.

"After trying many of the advertised remedies for kidney trouble, I finally took Peruna.

"In a week the intense pains in my back were much relieved and in four weeks I was able to take up my work again.

"I still continued to use Peruna for another month and at the end of that time I was perfectly well.

"I now take a dose or two when I have been exposed and find that it is splendid to keep me well."

Hundreds of Cures.

Dr. Hartman is constantly in receipt of testimonials from people who have been cured of chronic and complicated kidney disease by Peruna. For free medical advice, address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

SUPERIORITY OF RED CEDAR.

Importance of This Native Tree as an Ornamental Plant.

Any one who has noticed the numberless half-starved red cedars in the country, standing up on so many stumps, would hardly imagine that this evergreen is by far the most promising of all material for formal gardens in the northeastern United States. Yet so it is. The red cedar can be trained into nearly every shape that is demanded in the formal garden.

These dominant forms, says Garden Magazine, are as follows:

1. The standard or bay-tree form. Of course, no conifer can take the place of a broad-leaved evergreen, but the bay must be kept in a house all winter.
2. The dome. For this purpose the globose arbovitae is superior to box, privet and catalpa bungei, since the box is not hardy enough and the others are deciduous.
3. The pyramid. In this form, the red cedar has to compete with arbovitae, Nordmann's and the silver fir, and the Douglas, white and Norway spruce.
4. The spire or column. In this shape, the red cedar will reproduce the effect of the cypress in Italian gardens.
5. The arch. In default of a hardy evergreen vine, red cedars can be trained in pairs over iron pipes to form perfect garden arches six feet across and ten feet high.

Finally, the rugged picturesqueness of the famous Swiss stone pine can be reproduced by moving battle-scarred old cedars thirty or thirty-five feet high, their bare trunks crowned with an irregular tuft of foliage.

THE COMPOSER WHO FILCHES.

De Koven Has No High Idea of Such a Man's Honesty.

Reginald De Koven, the well-known composer, was speaking with some scorn of a foreign musician whose productions were not always so original as they pretended to be.

"I should like to use this fellow," said Mr. De Koven, "as a character in a comic opera. I would give him long hair, a velvet coat and a pocket fiddle, and in the second act I would have him kidnaped by brigands and hidden away in a remote cavern.

Mr. De Koven laughed at his odd fancy and went on:

Here the brigand chief visits him. The chief says:

"From your costume am I to judge you to be a strolling musician?"

"Not at all," is the haughty answer. "I am a composer."

"What are your works?" the chief asks.

"The other enumerates his operas and the chief says:

"Sing me an aria from 'The Pink Stocking' in your best manner."

"The composer sings the aria and at its end the brigand chief, rising in great excitement, orders the shackles to be stricken from his limbs.

"So you steal!" he cries. "Then go in peace. I never exact tribute from a colleague."

The Pessimist.

A. J. Cassatt, the president of the Pennsylvania railroad, is an amateur farmer of great excellence.

Mr. Cassatt praised the other day the fine year that farmers generally he said:

"But I have a neighbor, near Chesterbrook, an incorrigible pessimist, whom I can't get to acknowledge a good season ever.

"Meeting this old man on the road the other day, I stopped and said:

"We farmers have had a good year this time, Henry, eh?"

"Oh, nothing out of the ordinary," the old fellow grumbled.

"Henry," I said, "you are always finding fault. This year, though, I don't believe you can give me a single good reason for complaint."

"Can't, can't!" he snarled. "How about sp'iled hay? There won't be nary a bit for the young calves."

Women and Economy.

Women, as a class, have most uncertain ideas on the subject of economy, avers M. A. P. They define the word simply as the not spending of money, and associate it chiefly with straitened circumstances. But economy means administration, the cleverest way of spending one's money, whether one's allowance is $250 or $25,000. In either case, the following rules hold good: 1. Pay ready money for everything. 2. Never spend anything without well considering if the article in question is a necessity. Will it be valued twenty-four hours after purchase? 3. Always leave a margin—that is to say, always live within your income. 4. Keep accounts; even the record on a penny account book acts as a check on one's expenditure. The secret of true economy is trouble-taking; laziness and extravagance are apt to go hand in hand.

Feared a Coolness.

Bishop Ames told of a Mississippi slave owner who said to one of his slaves:

"Pompey, I hear you are a great preacher."

"Yes, massa, de Lord do help me powerful sometimes."

"Well, Pompey, don't you think the negroes steal little things on the plantation?"

"Ise mighty fraid they do, massa."

"Then, Pompey, I want you to preach a sermon to the negroes about stealing."

After a brief reflection, Pompey replied:

"You see, massa, dat wouldn't never do, 'cause 't would throw such a coolness over de meeting!"—Philadelphia Ledger.

It Went.

The next man who was examined as to his qualifications for serving on the jury pleaded unfitness.

"I beg pardon, your honor," he said, turning to the judge, "but it is not customary for a butcher to sit on a jury in a murder trial, is it?"

"No," said the judge. "Are you a butcher?"

"I suppose that's what you might call me, your honor. I'm a manufacturer of dry paper."

"You may stand aside, sir," said the judge, coughing violently in his handkerchief.

Every housekeeper should know that if they will buy Defiance Cold Water Starch for laundry use they will save not only time, because it never sticks to the iron, but because each package contains 16 oz.—one full pound—while all the other Cold Water Starches are put up in 3-4 pound packages, and the price is the same, 10 cents a pound, because Defiance Starch is free from all injurious chemicals. If your grocer tries to sell you a 12-oz. package it is because he has a stock on hand which he wishes to dispose of before he puts in Defiance. He knows that Defiance Starch has printed on every package in large letters and figures "16 OZ." Demand Defiance and save much time and money and the annoyance of the iron sticking. Defiance never sticks.

BIG PUBLISHER SUED.

Chicago, Oct. 19.—The Peruna Drug Manufacturing Company, manufacturers of a widely known proprietary medicine, has brought suit in the Superior Court of the City of Chicago against the Curtis Publishing Company of Philadelphia, alleging that it has been damaged to the extent of $250,000 by a recent article in the Ladies' Home Journal.

The suit is based on a statement recently made in that journal that a testimonial as to the merit of the remedy manufactured by the plaintiff, alleged to have been given by Congressman George H. White of South Carolina, was fraudulent, denial from Mr. White that he ever gave such a testimonial also being printed.

The Peruna company declares that Congressman White did give the testimonial in good faith, and that it has two original letters from Mr. White. It declares that Mr. White was led to repudiate the testimonial through a misunderstanding.

This is the second large damage suit that has been filed against the Curtis Publishing company since it inaugurated its attacks on "Patent Medicines."

WOMEN'S NEGLECT SUFFERING THE SURE PENALTY

Health Thus Lost is Restored by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

How many women do you know who are perfectly well and strong? We hear every day the same story over and over again. "I do not feel well; I am so tired all the time!"

Miss Kate McDonald

More than likely you speak the same words yourself, and no doubt you feel far from well. The cause may be easily traced to some derangement of the female organs which manifests itself in depression of spirits, reluctance to go anywhere or do anything, backache, bearing-down pains, flatulency, nervousness, sleeplessness, leucorrhoea.

These symptoms are but warnings that there is danger ahead, and unless heeded a life of suffering or a serious operation is the inevitable result.

The never-failing remedy for all these symptoms is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Miss Kate McDonald, of Woodbridge, N. J., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham: "I think that a woman naturally dislikes to make her troubles known to the public, but restored health has meant so much to me that I cannot help from telling mine for the sake of other suffering women.

"For a long time I suffered untold agony with a uterine trouble and irregularities, which made me a physical wreck, and no one thought I would recover, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has entirely cured me, and made me well and strong, and I feel it my duty to tell other suffering women what a splendid medicine it is."

If you are ill, don't hesitate to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice—it is free and always helpful.
