—It will be noted by perusal of the minutes of the Police Jury in appearing in another column of The Enterprise, that a resolution was introduced by Mr. Leon Landry and carried, inviting the Good Roads Association of the Parish to join with them in calling on Friday, July 5th, a general mass meeting to further the cause of better roads for Iberia Parish. From what we can understand it is the intention of the Parish stewards to submit to the people an election at some convenient time for a two mill tax to be used exclusively for good roads purposes, the Police Jury then reducing the mileage from ten mills to eight. As the law is now constituted the Police Jury cannot take two mills from the general funds and consequently there is not sufficient to maintain the roads to the proper standard, much less build better highways throughout the Parish. There is no doubt the property holders will readily vote the tax under those conditions and we hope to see an enthusiastic meeting held on July 5th.

LeBlanc and wife of our District Attorney, was indeed a heart-rending shock to the relatives and friends of the deceased. Deceased leaves to mourn her loss, besides her grief-stricken and devoted husband, three little children, ranging in ages from four to six years and a devoted mother, father, brothers and sisters, all having the sympathy of their friends in the hour of their terrible affliction. "The twinkling stars are laughing love, laughing with you and me."
And so, were all the merry merry men and pretty maidens who assembled at the hospitable home of Mrs. George Fitzhugh in East End on Tuesday evening last. The splendid moon had suggested a garden party, but the curbs of the dainty lassies would hold their bewitchingness better indoors during the long evening of dancing. So it was decided to have a gallery party which during the delightful entertainment spread over everywhere with fun and frolic. Bright and blinking electricity illumined the house, grounds and ample galleries. The punch bowl upon the lawn under the trees was presided over by Misses Theda and Marietta Murray and was the center of attraction after every dance. One does get so thirsty gliding and turkey trotting and rushing something or other this summer weather. The merry young hostess, Miss Henrietta Russell, was entertaining her friend, Miss Laura Meredith of Ennis, Texas, who has made many friends during her visit in New Iberia. Among the attractive girls who seemed to be enjoying every moment were Misses Robert Burke, Marjorie Burke, Maude Eatarge, May Bell, Annie Bell, assisted the fair young hostess in caring for her guests. Miss Lillian Voorhies beautifully gowned in pale blue satin, with silver trimmings, looked sparkling and bright as usual. Miss Mary and Miss Cora Segura and Miss Adeline Pickett, sweet young debutants to whom society is attractive in its newness. Misses Alma and Hazel Sharp, Miss Roth Hogsett, Olga Smith, Julia McMahon, Lucy and Helen Gebert, Ida Campbell, Celeste Dimitry, Marie Cage, Alice and Rita Eckart. Miss Annie Barrette, who is the winsome guest of Olga Smith and Miss Frances Bruce Loughridge who with her family are a delightful addition to New Iberia society. They now occupy the beautiful old Henshaw house. "They were bred in old Kentucky" and have that wonderful charm of manner and conversation that is claimed for the "quality folks" from that dear old commonwealth. Everybody hopes they will be pleased with our Teche land and remain. But we almost forgot that in this merry assembly their were a goodly number of beaux as well as belles. Mr. H. C. Robb and Francis Voorhies, Julian Meyers, Ralph Southwell, Joe McConnell, James Lee, Willie Decuir, Benny Renaud, Willie, Tony and Richard Eckart, Fred Patout, Lester Kahn, Robert Perry, Nat Dauterive, R. J. Lockwood, Harry Smeades, Alfred Pickett, Joe Comeaux, Eldridge Hine, Fred Schwing, Harry Smith, Henry King, Philip McMahon, Paul LeBourgeois and Willie Bland. The music was good and everybody expressed their pleasure excepting one member of the household, who, although it is claimed by the longest that he is truly thoroughbred, his manners did not seem to prove it, many folks you know never like any music but their own. So as soon as the fiddles began to tune up, there was a prolonged note in opposition, in dancing also there was an active protest, fore-footh four feet ought to do more dancing than any two. Again it was all done for sport and of course sport wanted to have a hand: I mean a foot in it, four of them indeed. So while all the young folks said they had the very best time in their lives and Mr. and Mrs. Buffinton said "me too." This sporting party aforesaid may never be invited again to anybody's party. He cannot believe you see.
