Monday night the beautiful home of Mrs. Clet Girard was the scene of one of the most enjoyable events of the season. The occasion was the anniversary of Mrs. Girard's birthday at which she entertained the members of the Brooklyn Euche Club and their husbands and other guests at a Tacky Party. The guests all came in old time costumes, many of which showed sharp contrasts with the latest styles. In fact it was a hard matter for the judges to decide the winner of the prizes given by the hostess for the tackiest costume. Dancing was the main interest of the evening and the scottishes and polkas of old days were intermingled with the waltzes, two-steps and tangos of the present. Tempting refreshments, including a grand birthday cake were served from a beautiful decorated table. Mrs. Girard was the recipient of many pretty and useful presents from her friends and the Club.

—Owing to the crowded condition of our columns, we were compelled to omit from this weeks issue several articles which will appear in our next issue.

—The friends and relatives of Mrs. J. G. Lallande regret to learn of her demise in the City on December 12th, where she had been residing for the past two years. Mrs. Lallande was highly esteemed in New Iberia where she had a large acquaintance after a residence here of a number of years. She was the mother of our fellow-citizen, Mr. Louis Lallande and Mrs. George Cousin, and also Mr. Joseph Lallande of the Southern Pacific Railroad and Mrs. A. A. Smith of Birmingham, Ala. The family have the sympathy of the community.

—In another column appears an article written by one of our progressive citizens, entitled "Get Together," and while we do not endorse its exact wording, in every particular, the intent is, how- ever, for the betterment of the community, if we will but take heed. Our people should work together in more unanimity if they wish this City to enjoy the prosperity that is due it, and we should all back every movement that is calculated to benefit the town. It is only by a united pull that we can accomplish anything and we sincerely hope 1914 will find all of our citizens standing together and encouraging every undertaking that will forge New Iberia to the front.

—It was gratifying to the friends and acquaintances of the venerable Judge Felix Voochies when they learned that he had rallied from his attack of illness and has bright hopes for rapid recovery. On Thursday morning it was rumored that a tumor had been taken for the worse, but the report was without founda- tion. Judge Voochies is residing at Port Allen, La., with one of his daughters where he was taken ill.

—A sad accident befell an old colored man last Monday evening which may cost him his life, though at present he is reported doing as well as could be expected. The negro it seemed was hard at hearing and while walk- ing on the Southern Pacific track was run into and knocked down by the Motor car and seriously injured. The unfortunate was then brought to the office of Dr. J. W. Sanders where he received attention.

—Died, at Dallas, Texas, on Wednesday, December 17th, 1913, Mr. Jules Muller, aged 44 years, after an illness of several months. Mr. Muller was a native of Geneva, Switzerland and came to this Parish a number of years ago, being betrothed to Miss Bertha Bayard, daughter of the venerable Mr. H. B. Bayard, who survives him. The remains of the deceased arrived here on Thursday night and were brought to the residence of Mr. A. J. Mau- nus where it remained in care of friends, until Friday morning at nine o'clock when the funeral services were held at St. Peter's Catholic church. His widow has the sympathy of a large circle of friends and relatives in the hour of her distress.

—This week will practically wind up the 1913 cane crop with possibly one exception that of the Orange Grove refinery at Olivier, whom we understand will not finish grinding until about the first of the year. The crop is said to be about 25 per cent short and with the small price paid per ton it is gratifying that our farmers had such delightful weather for harvesting, other- wise many would have fared very badly. The mill of M. A. Patout & Son, situated near Patoutville, so we understand, finished yesterday crushing near- unto 42,000 tons; in 36 days they put through 36,000 tons without a single mishap to interfere with the mill.

—The Herpeche-Bahon fam- ily's of this City had the sad mis- fortune of losing their aunt, Mrs. Albertine Hutchison who died last Tuesday at Scot, La., after a short illness. Mrs. Hutchison resided here with her sister, the late Mrs. Chas. M. Bahon for a number of years before taking up her residence at Scot. Messrs. X. A. Herpeche, Chas. and Ed- ward Bahon were among those who attended the funeral.

—As per call of District Judge James Simon, Messrs. J. G. LeBlanc, J. F. Moore, B. V. Moutret, P. C. Romero and Joseph Bonin, members of the Jury Commission for Iberia Parish met in the Clerk's office and drew the list of Grand and Petit Jurors to serve for the next criminal term which will begin its session on Tuesday, January 6th. The complete list of Jurors appears in another column.

—News from the Anse La Butte oil field last Wednesday was to the effect that a 500 barrel gush- er had been brought in which created much talk here in New Iberia. There are a number of our citizens interested in the well, among them being Mr. J. S. Suttle and Dr. Paul N. Cyr of Jeanerette, Joe Smith, Robert Taylor and others.

—The friends and acquaintances of Mr. L. E. Marion of La- fayette and formerly of this City were shocked last Thursday upon learning of his sudden death. Mr. Marion had only reached the age of 58 years and was engaged in the hotel business at the above place.

—The ladies of the Unsectar- ian Aid wish to announce to the public that the proceeds of the Victrola Musicale at the residence of Mrs. Leon Dreyfus on Thursday last week amounted to $51.00, a welcome sum to the treasury of the Association. In connection with this statement, they wish to thank those who at- tended and enjoyed the delight- ful evening, for their liberal do- nations. To their generous and efficient members, Mrs. Dreyfus, who unaided furnished the even- ing's entertainment as well as the delicious refreshments, the Unsectarian Aid extend most cordial thanks, also to the charm- ing waitresses, Misses Virginia Barrow, Pearl Davis, Noelle Mis- tro, Carrie Weil, Lila Wolf, Bessie Galiand and Celeste Dim- itry.

—The teachers of Iberia Parish met on Saturday the 13th inst. in regular monthly session at the Magnolia school. Miss Stone, the worthy principal and her able faculty acted as hostesses of the occasion. In the morning an ex- citing game of basket ball was played by the pupils of Magnolia school. At nine o'clock the meeting was called to order and after several numbers, recess was given and the teachers were invited to partake of a very taste- ful lunch also to receive a pres- ent from Santa Claus which was on a beautifully decorated Christ- mas tree. Each present was sym- bolic of the nature of the particu- lar teacher. This surprise re- sulted in a heightened spirit of all the teachers and was in harm- ony with the season. After rec- cess the program was continued. When business was concluded a rising vote of thanks was offered to Miss Stone and her faculty for the charming reception and each teacher parted with the knowl- edge of a doubly well spent day.

—We had a pleasant call last Thursday from Mr. H. B. Bond an old Confederate Veteran of this State, but who has since been residing in Mexico and other countries. Mr. Bond served un- der General Mouton and Dick Taylor. He camped here with his regiment and remembers a num- ber of our old citizens who have long since passed to other shores and gave us a vivid description of several skirmishes that took place hereabouts. Mr. Bond has engaged in general repair work here and we hope will receive cordial treatment from our peo- ple.

—New Iberia will soon be the proud possessor of a small cigar factory which will be started by Mr. Bert C. Hall, who arrived here with his family this week from Punta Gorda, Florida. New Iberia had been recommend- ed to him by a former Iberian, as the logical point in this State for an establishment of that nature, and we hope he will receive the proper encouragement from our business men as soon as he puts his goods upon the market. The gentleman has had a number of years experience in the making of cigars and if all of his brands are as good as a sample present- ed to us, we can see no reason why smokers of the weed should not give his cigars the preference. Mr. Hall will increase the output as fast as he will have demand for his articles and it will be a big advertisement for New Iberia, when his line is put upon the market and besides give employ- ment to expert help in the man- ufacture of cigars. Small indus- tries is what New Iberia desires at the present time and strangers who come here should be en- couraged in their efforts towards planting industries here. He has taken up his residence with his little family on lower Main Street.

—Under the direction of the ladies of the Civic League, the Court House property is assum- ing a pleasing aspect. The paint- ing of the building is nearly completed and the work of beau- tifying the lawn is to be under- taken immediately. We are in- formed, that it is the purpose of the ladies to remove the present walk leading to the Court House and to construct in its stead a broad concrete pavement in the centre of the lawn. The old benches are to be removed and new ones placed on either side of the lot and beautiful electric light columns are to be erected at the main entrance of the build- ing. The activity of the ladies in this matter is to be commend- ed and deserving of the thanks of the entire community. We congratulate them upon their achievement.

Kunt's Lightning Oil
This is the liniment which has caused so much talk. So many people are telling how it has re- lieved them of pain that one can no longer doubt that it is truly a wonderful remedy. Every drug- gist handles it.

AN OBJECT IN VIEW.
You seldom find a saving fam- ily paying rent.
A family paying rent has no special incentive to save, but the family that buys a home has a special object to save for. They at once realize that it is much more important to save their mon- ey and pay for their home than to waste it foolishly, and if they have borrowed money from this Association they can pay it back in easy monthly payments.

It is all in the plan.

IBERIA BUILDING ASS'N

—Mr. Onepiphore Hebert suf- fered the loss of his barn, which was full to the brim with corn, hay and other products of his little farm near the corporate limits, which was destroyed by fire last Thursday night. We understand he carried some in- surance, but not near enough to cover his loss. The building was owned by Capt. John T. White of which there were no insur- ance, consequently the loss will fall quite heavily upon the gen- tleman. Mr. Hebert is engaged in farming on the small place of Capt. White and that of Mr. Por- teus R. Burke.

—On Monday evening last a number of gentlemen met at Mayor Fontellie's office with Mr. Guthridge of the Southwest Louisiana Development Bureau, whose headquarters are at La- fayette, for the purpose of choos- ing a third member to act on the Board of Directors, the other rep- resentatives of the Parish being Messrs. Leon Landry of the Po- lice Jury and J. B. Hewes of Jeanerette. It was the unani- mous opinion of those present that Mr. Edwin L. Estorge be select- ed, and the gentleman accepted the responsible office. There are practically up to the present writing thirty-five of our citizens who have joined the Bureau, however, owing to the busy sea- son there were present at the meeting only the following named gentlemen: Horace Gator, W. R. Sharp, Dr. J. A. Goodwin, Al- phonse Davis, A. G. Barrow, Ed- win L. Estorge, Mayor Fontellie and M. W. Fisher.

MASONS TRIBUTE TO VICTOR ERATH
Death and sorrow are hand maidens; the sombre color of shadows fill the background of the tapestry of wails and des- pairs. The separation of earthly life from the unknown; the severance of ties of love and broth- erhood furnish the dirge of the cortege of faith and hope.

The certain prevents the sight of the life of salvation, of red- emption by angel and Deity; but the still voice of conscience fanning the breath of faith brings victory over doubt and misery.

Brother Victor Erath was pro- foundly religious and touched by the beauty and power of truth and honor. His whole career re- flects the rugged spirit of integ- rity, morality and industry. With courage he labored in the quarry of human endeavor; with love and charity he endorsed and encouraged all concerted efforts at humane and rational solution of social problems. His citizen- ship was exemplary and his patriotism and personality sat- urated every one of his connections with public movements involving the development of New Iberia and Iberia Parish.

Being scrupulously honest and exacting in his daily dealings with his fellow man, his demise left no trace of enmity, malice or envy.

Aurora Lodge feels the loss keenly and the fraternal ties that still binds us together and beckoned us to exercise Charity and Benevolence on this battle field of human struggles, feel the tears and the mourning that kind- hearted and gentle, an ideal pic- ture of domestic bliss and fidel- ity, a spotless father and hus- band bearing the load of duty and responsibility with heroic fortitude and resignation, we understand the load of the heavy affliction the wife and his children have from now on to bear.

Aurora Lodge will dedicate a special page in its book of sor- row to the memory of Brother Victor Erath and extend the warm hand of friendship that typifies the spirit of our Lodge and beg to present our heartfelt condolence to wife and children.

DON'T LET YOUR HOGS DIE.
This is to certify that Mr. Felix Schexnayder of Jeanerette, having a bunch of fine hogs, some fifty or more in number to become effected with cholera used South- ern Hog Cholera Remedy with telling effect. Before the na- ture of the sickness was discov- ered one of the hogs had died and eleven more of them seriously effected, he immediately separated the sick ones from those not down and by heavy dos- ing with Southern Hog Remedy did not lose a single one of his remaining number treated. Mr. Schexnayder is high in his praise of Southern Remedies for all dis- eases for which it is recommend- ed. This Remedy is manufactur- ed in New Iberia and sold by leading merchants and druggists throughout this State as well as in other States where it has been introduced. Ask your merchant for it. I have charge of all the sugar and rice district during 1914.
