JUDGMENT OF SEPARATION OF PROPERTY.
MRS. LELIA DESLATTES
 vs.
L. C. ANDRE
 State of Louisiana, Parish of Iberia, 19th Jud. Dist. Court.
 In the above numbered and entitled cause, the legal delays having expired, a preliminary default was regularly entered and more than two days having elapsed from the day of said preliminary default, and no motion having been made to set aside the same, and no answer having been filed, the case was regularly fixed for trial on confirmation of default, and on the day assigned it was regularly taken up, tried and submitted, and the law and the evidence being in favor of the plaintiff, Mrs. Lelia Deslattes and against the defendant L. C. Andre, it is by reason of the law and the evidence thereof,
 Ordered, adjudged and decreed that there be judgment in favor of the said plaintiff and against the defendant, her husband, decreeing a dissolution of the community of acquets and gains heretofore existing between them and a separation of the property between the said plaintiff and the said defendant.
 It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that defendant pay all costs of Court herein to be taxed.
 Thus done, read and signed in open Court at New Iberia, Iberia Parish this 16th day of March A. D., 1914.
JAMES SIMON,
 Judge 19th Jud. Dist. Court.
