Mr. Reubin H. Brown brought in this week from his place near Jeanerette a boll of matured cotton which is one of the finest we have seen in these parts for many years for the month of July. Mr. Brown informed us that he has twenty-five acres of the fleecy staple and will commence harvesting between the 5th and 10th of next month. All of his cotton is known as the Simpkins Early Prolific which is said to be the best adapted to our soil.

—During the rain storms last week when nearly every public road leading into this City was completely submerged by water the public thoroughfare which passes the beautiful plantation property of Mr. Octave Darby was high and dry, made so by the excellent drains which lead into the marshes of Spanish Lake. Were it not for the hedges along that particular road it would undoubtedly be the best one in the Parish. It will not be very long before the Police Jury will have to take steps to have the hedge cut as was done on the Jefferson Island lane, otherwise it will soon be impossible for vehicles to operate on that thoroughfare.

Our presses were busy this week getting out several thousand circulars advertising the seventh anniversary sale beginning to-day of Mr. Abe Hirsch, the haberdasher. The gentleman came to New Iberia during the fall of 1907 and leased a small section of The Enterprise building which was at that time considered a mere hole in the wall and remained there for four years. It was not many months later, however, before Mr. Hirsch realized that his business was growing to such an extent that he would be compelled to seek quarters that would give him more room to display his goods. Watching his opportunity to secure a stand within close proximity to where he was doing business, he at once leased the large building a few door north of The Enterprise office, owned by the Knights of Columbus, where he continued to build up a lucrative trade owing to his business sagacity and efforts to please the public. It was always in the mind of the courteous and enterprising merchant to purchase a building whenever the first opportunity arose and last year he took over the elegant store building erected by Judge Hacker adjoining the original stand where he first made his start. From the very inception of his entry into business pursuits here, Mr. Hirsch has always had an anniversary sale and is now offering goods at the lowest cash prices which make it attractive to any one needing anything in his line. If Abe has not exactly what you want he will get it for you.

of the woods he would at once become suspicious and fly to other parts. It was not long before his black assistant informed him that he had located Large in one of the dives and Mr. Henderson started for the place fully determined that he would capture him once he would set his eyes upon the culprit. Upon the arrest of the criminal he at once confessed and was brought home and placed in prison. Upon inquiry as to what had become of the rings the negro informed Mr. Henderson that he had left part of the jewelry with a relative of his at Crowley and was taken there by the Sheriff. The negro's uncle stated that he had never even been there and no rings had been left with him. He was then conveyed to the Parish prison here and on Wednesday morning appeared before the District Court when he again confessed for his crime and Judge Simon sentenced him to fourteen years in the penitentiary. This will be an object lesson to those of his kind who prefer thieving to honest labor. Sheriff Henderson deserves credit for his excellent detective work in this case and the Court for the manner in which it expedites cases when brought before the bar.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Bodin of Morbihan, La., entertained most delightfully a party of friends at their home, Tuesday night. The event was given in honor of their charming nieces Misses Bernice and Soudee Bonvillain of Jeanerette, La., who are guests of their daughter, Corinne. Music was furnished by the Vital Band, and every one enjoyed dancing. Between dances, delicious refreshments were served. None of those welcomed the incoming of the next day, for it was then time to go home and it was very evident that no one was anxious to do that. Those who attended the event were: Misses Bernice and Soudee Bonvillain of Jeanerette; Isabelle, May and Edna Judice of Loreauville, La.; Martha Camos, Loreauville; May and Louise Vejet, Morbihan; and Corinne Bodin and Messrs. Gus and Edward Lamperetz, Hubald Romero, Amant Broussard, New Iberia; Porteus Camos, Loreauville; and Claude Dupuis, Morbihan.

EUNICE 6; NEW IBERIA 2.

New Iberia was defeated last Thursday afternoon by the fast semi-professional team of Eunice by the score of 6 to 2 in a ten inning game. Eunice took advantage of New Iberia errors, otherwise the score would have been 2 to 0 in New Iberia's favor. New Iberia scored their runs in the first inning with Jennaro on first, Markham hit one over the right field fence for a home run, scoring two runs. Eunice scored one in the second, one in the fourth and four in the tenth inning. Broussard pitched a magnificent game allowing only four hits. Dupuy of Eunice was touched up for seven hits which were well scattered.

New Iberia will play the fast Crowley team to-morrow on the local diamond. Game will be called at four o'clock sharp. A good crowd is expected as Crowley is made up of very good material and a good game is promised. Come out and root for the boys.

FETE CHAMPETRE FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE U. A. SOCIETY AT THE HOME OF MR. E. T. WEEKS.

And Tuesday evening was as beautiful, as anyone could desire, although every day since the very wettest of rain has fallen. All the town seemed bent upon rushing into the East End, for were not the merriest and brightest of our "rose bud garden of girls" appearing in this attractive entertainment? The handsome Colonial house, and grounds were lighted by electricity and chinese lanterns of many grotesque shapes, and colors, most effective on the landscape. It looked as if some merry fairy had left the gate of her home of enchantment ajar, for us all to take a peep at its mysterious beauty, then sweet strains of music fell upon the ear "Mendelssohns Spring Song" played in well marked time and sympathetic rhythm by the skillful fingers of Miss Bessie Galliard, and then, as if "drawn by the melody, The graceful sprites in flowing garments tripped lightly on the sward, two by two, every change in the music was symbolized by a new and graceful movement, a bevy of lovely girls, so attired as to give freedom and an added grace to every motion.

The synopsis described eight figures represented in this exquisite Grecian dance:

- 1st. End of summer.
- 2nd. Farewell to flowers.
- 3rd. Winter all flowers asleep.
- 4th. Spirit of spring enters, and just let me whisper that sweet little Katherine Burke dancing and gliding, and bowing like a veritable fairy was about the most delightful little figure among them all. I am sure it must be so, for a darling little girl sitting near us expressed that sentiment loud enough for everybody to agree with her.
- 5th. Figure leave awake.
- 6th. Spring and flowers rejoice.
- 7th. Flowers everywhere.
- 8th. Finale, all gliding gracefully into an appropriate position upon the green sward, very pretty tableaux they made, when I mention who these merry maidens were you will see.

Muriel Kling, Sadie Belanger, Jessie Bradbrin of New Orleans; Margeret Weeks, Mildred Weeks, Marion Suttle, Ruth Gebert, Katie Murray, Ada Renouet, Marie Renouet, Lauretta DeBlanc, Lula Lemaire, Gussie Jaubert, of New Orleans; Dora Lee. This graceful classic, was not only a pleasant entertainment, but the effect upon the young participants will no doubt be of lasting benefit. Grace of motion is always more fascinating than mere beauty, and in truth the one naturally leads to the other.

The funny little drama "The Model Wife" is full of amusing situations, and bright and spiky from first to last. Dramatic personae: Arthur Everett, an artist, Bernice Dreyfus; Robert Parks, his chum, Lizzie DeBlanc; Representative John H. Potts, a rough diamond, Vivian Kling; Miss McPherson, Everett's aunt, Nina Burke; Mrs. Munford Wells, Society matron, Thelma Sharp; Miss Eleanor, Perry Park's cousin, Pauline Suberbielle; Miss Belle Potts, a nouvelle heiress, Mildred Blumenthal; Willy, an artist's model, Cordelle DeBlanc; Patsy, whose mother washes, Elise Scharff; Mary, the maid, Aleo DeBlanc. These very young maidens, all acquitted themselves admirably, no stiffness, or self-consciousness, of course when one has to talk to all out doors it is very different to make everybody hear. Mr. and Mrs. Weeks were beautifully attentive to their guests, and the entire household lent itself towards making the affair a success. Our enterprising young friend, Eugene Gullott was in lending the benches from his new hall, and Mrs. Leon Dreyfus, whose generous donations to the Unsectarian Aid always takes the form of giving artistic delight to her friends at the same time, was deeply interested in this beautiful affair, now, I would like to mention the gifted young artist who was the inspiration of the entire entertainment. It is a well-known fact that the most gifted people are always modest and retiring, never talk of themselves or like to see their name in print. I promised I would not mention her. I am afraid to tell you even the first letter of her name. But if you are good at guessing it is not my fault you know. However we are much indebted to this gifted young lady for her interest in our splendid old Unsectarian Aid Society.

These are more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any cure it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by Druggists, 75c.
