"MUTT & JEFF" IN A NEW PLAY.

Bud Fisher's now nationally famed cartoon characters "Mutt & Jeff" are to re-appear at the Elks Theatre on Monday, Sept. 28th in a brand new dress called "Mutt & Jeff in Mexico." Gus Hill has given a new book a sumptuous production from every point of view. He has had a dazzling new set of spectacular scenery painted with some very startling mechanical effects and genuine dramatic thrills. New musical scores and lyrics are furnished and the "funny business" is, of course, from the fertile brain of Bud Fisher, who knows better than any one else what his eccentric folks are capable of. The offering though new, is not in its experimental stages as it has had a thorough tryout. Its reception was simply an innovation, but in spite of that fact, Mr. Hill spent his entire summer vacation perfecting the details of the play, which enables him to offer an entertainment absolutely perfect in every respect. It is an acknowledged fact that "Mutt & Jeff" holds more records for phenomenal business than any two other attractions in the history of theatrical entertainment. While the play has probably been the best advertised attraction on record, its popularity would not have lasted, but increased from year to year, if absolute merit was not evident. The fortune the play has made for its sponsors during the past two years has simply been commensurate with its pleasing qualifications. For the fourth season, instead of reducing the expenses as is usual with some producing managers, Mr. Hill has made greater financial outlays than on either or both of his former productions. His confidence in "Mutt and Jeff" and the lasting qualities of the play and title are so strong as to induce him to increase his investment rather than decrease it from year to year. The universal opinion of press and public, is that it is the one and only big comedy bit of the show world.

PLAYS PIANO AND VIOLIN AT SAME TIME.

Feeling the necessity of an accompanist when he desired to play his violin, and being unable always to obtain the services of one, keeping of a country hotel in a small Ohio town devised an apparatus which enables him to play a violin and piano at the same time. His apparatus is shown in an illustration in the October Popular Mechanics Magazine. A wooden framework which fits before the piano holds the violin in position, and by a series of foot levers provides for the manipulation of the bow. The strings of the instrument are played with the left hand, while the right hand and one foot are used in playing the piano accompaniment.

Anger is Not Manly.
 Let this truth be present to thee in the excitement of anger—that to be moved by passion is not manly, but that mildness and gentleness, they are more agreeable to human nature, so also are they more manly, for in the same degree in which a man's mind is nearer to freedom from all passion, in the same degree also is it nearer to strength.—Marcus Aurelius.
