GERMANY REGRETS AMER- ICA'S DEAD; BLAMES
BRITISH.

Berlin, via London, May 10.— The following dispatch has been sent by the German foreign office to the German embassy at Washington:
 "Please communicate the following to the state department:
 "The German government desires to express its deepest sympathy at the loss of lives on board the Lusitania. The responsibility, rests however, with the British government, which, through its plan of starving the civilian population of Germany, has forced Germany to resort to retaliatory measures.

"In spite of the German offer to destroy the submarine war in case the starvation plan was given up, British merchant vessels are being generally armed with guns and have repeatedly tried to ram submarines so that a previous search was impossible.
 "They cannot, therefore, be treated as ordinary merchant vessels. A recent declaration made to the British parliament by the parliamentary secretary in answer to a question by Lord Charles Beresford said that at the present practically all British merchant vessels were armed and provided with hand grenades.

"Besides, it has been openly admitted by the English press that the Lusitania on previous voyages repeatedly carried large quantities of war material. On the previous voyage the Lusitania carried 5,400 cases of ammunition, while the rest of the cargo also consisted chiefly of contraband.
 "If England, after repeated official and unofficial warnings considered herself able to declare that boat ran no risk, and thus lightheartedly assumed board, a steamer, which, owing to its armament and cargo was liable to destruction, the German government, in spite of its heartfelt sympathy for the loss of American lives, cannot but regret that Americans felt more inclined to trust the English promises rather than pay attention to the warnings from the German side.
