

WOMAN AVOIDS OPERATION

Medicine Which Made Surgeon's Work Unnecessary.

Astoria, N. Y. — "For two years I was feeling ill and took all kinds of tonics. I was getting worse every day. I had chills, my head would ache, I was always tired. I could not walk straight because of the pain in my back and I had pains in my stomach. I went to a doctor and he said I must go under an operation, but I did not go. I read in the paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and told my husband about it. I said 'I know nothing will help me but I will try this.' I found myself improving from the very first bottle, and in two weeks time I was able to sit down and eat a hearty breakfast with my husband, which I had not done for two years. I am now in the best of health and did not have the operation." — Mrs. JOHN A. KOENIG, 502 Flushing Avenue, Astoria, N. Y.

Every one dreads the surgeon's knife and the operating table. Sometimes nothing else will do; but many times doctors say they are necessary when they are not. Letter after letter comes to the Pinkham Laboratory, telling how operations were advised and were not performed; or, if performed, did no good, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was used and good health followed.

If you want advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass.

HE CHANGED HIS MIND.

A handsomely dressed woman entered a crowded car. A rough-looking old fellow, wearing a dilapidated hat and homespun clothes, rose to his feet.

"Miss, take my seat. I don't look as well as these 'ere men," he said, nodding to several men, "but I've got more politeness."

Without a word of thanks the young woman sat down.

"Miss," the old fellow said with a smile, "I believe I left my tobacco pouch on the seat. Will you please get it up?"

No sooner was the seat unoccupied than the old fellow deliberately sat down again.

"B'lieve I'll keep sittin' here, miss," he explained, "I've got a little more politeness than these 'ere men, but I have found out that I ain't got nigh so much common sense." — Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

The Strong Withstand the Heat of Summer Better Than the Weak

Old people who are feeble, and younger people who are weak, will be strengthened and enabled to go through the depressing heat of summer by taking regularly Grover's Tasteless Chilli Tonic. It purifies and enriches the blood and builds up the whole system. 50c.

Pure ice is in demand the whole year round—more in Summer than in Winter, to be sure—but still always in demand, for preserving meats, milk, fruit, vegetables, etc.; for use in the sick room; for cooling beverages; for making ice cream, etc. When you are placing orders for ice, don't forget that our ice is from the New Iberia Ice & Bottling Works, and is well known for its high quality.

It is a good idea to burn the carcasses of all domestic animals or fowls that die of disease, because if devoured by carnivorous animals or fowls—which are all carnivorous—they will contract the disease and communicate it to others. If chickens eat meat infested by maggots it will kill them, whether the animal or fowl be of contagious or infectious disease or not.—Ruston Leader.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

This is a remedy that every family should be provided with and especially during the summer months. Think of the pain and suffering that must be endured when medicine must be sent for or before relief can be obtained. This remedy is thoroughly reliable. Ask anyone who has used it. Obtainable everywhere.

With the dry, hot days of June and July comes an excellent opportunity for studying the effects of humus in saving the water supply for your thirsty crops. However dry the weather may become, the humus-filled soil is usually cool and moist a few inches below the surface, while soils without humus are baked and hard. No wonder our average yields are low; they would be lower still were it not that Providence interferes in our behalf with a well distributed rainfall in most of the Cotton Belt.—Progress Farmer.

Restored to Good Health.

"I was sick for four years with stomach trouble," writes Mrs. Otto Gans, Zanesville, Ohio. "I lost weight and felt so weak that I almost gave up hope of being cured. A friend told me about Chamberlain's Tablets, and since using two bottles of them I have been a well woman." Obtainable everywhere.

Why is it that no one wants to live in the country any more? Cities are full of people who live from hand to mouth and whose total wealth is represented by the clothing they have on. Years go by and these persons never have a home. They lose that independence that the proud owner of a farm has. If there is one needed reform it is to keep people on the farm and away from the cities. —Alexandria Democrat.
