ACT NO. 168.
House Bill No. 252 Joint Resolution.
By Mr. Powell.

AN ACT
Proposing an amendment to Articles 225 and 226 of the Constitution relative to assessment and taxation.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana, two-thirds of all the members elected to each house concurring, That an amendment to Article 225 and 226 of the Constitution of the State of Louisiana be submitted to the qualified electors of the State for their approval or rejection at the Congressional election to be held on the first Tuesday next following the first Monday in November, 1916, said proposed amendment to be as follows:
"Article 225. Taxation shall be equal and uniform throughout the territorial limits of the authority levying the tax, and property shall be taxed in a manner directed by law; provided that the valuation of property for the assessment of State taxes, levied by the General Assembly and by this Constitution, may be different from the valuation fixed for all other purposes; provided, further, the assessment of all property shall never exceed the actual cash value thereof; and provided, further, that the taxpayers shall have the right of testing the correctness of their assessments before the courts of justice."

"Article 226. There shall be and is hereby created a Board of State Affairs whose duty it shall be to assess, for State purposes, all taxable property throughout the State of Louisiana. It shall have such other authority relative to State assessment, budget, income and expenditure as may be conferred upon it by the General Assembly. The said board shall be composed of three members, who shall be appointed by the Governor for such terms as may be fixed by the General Assembly. The Board shall enter upon its duties on January 1st, 1917. The General Assembly shall have full authority to define the powers and duties of the Board and to fix the salaries of the members thereof. Act No. 140, of the General Assembly for the year 1916, on this subject matter, shall go into effect as a statute of the State, on the first day of January, 1917."

Section 2. Be it further resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana, two-thirds of all the members elected to each house concurring, That the official ballot to be used at said election shall have printed thereon the following words: "For the proposed amendment to Article 225 and 226 of the Constitution of the State of Louisiana, relative to assessment and taxation, and abolishing the Board of Appraisers." And the words, "Against the proposed amendment to Article 225 and 226 of the Constitution of the State of Louisiana, relative to assessment and taxation, and abolishing the Board of Appraisers." And each elector, voting shall indicate on said ballot, as provided by law whether he votes for or against the proposed amendment.

ACT NO. 203.
House Bill No. 458.
By Mr. Leopold, Chairman Committee on Public Works, Lands and Levees. Substitute for House Bill No. 225.

JOINT RESOLUTION.
Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Louisiana.

Whereas the City of New Orleans is at present exposed to storm damage and floods, and it is highly advisable and necessary for said city to have more adequate protection therefrom than can at present be secured under existing laws. Therefore, in order to promote the public safety, health, comfort and convenience:

Section 1. Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana, two-thirds of all the members elected to each house concurring, that the following amendment to the Constitution of the State, be submitted to the qualified electors of the State for their approval or rejection at the Congressional election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1916, as follows:

(a) The Board of Levee Commissioners of the Orleans Levee District is hereby empowered to construct and maintain levees and embankments along, over and in the bed of Lake Pontchartrain at such distance from the present shore line as the said Board may determine, not to exceed twenty-five hundred (2500) feet from the present shore line, and along and on the shores adjacent thereto, and along the canals connecting therewith, and in such other places in the Parish of Orleans and the adjacent parishes as the Board may determine, said levees and embankments to be of such height, width, slope, design and character of material as said Board may determine, and to protect said levees and embankments with such piling, revetments, or walls, as it may deem proper.

(b) To enable said Board to perform said work and for the purpose thereof, the Board is hereby given a right of way over and use of all public lands including such portions of the water bottom of said lake as it may deem necessary. It is also given the right to acquire by donation, purchase, expropriation or appropriation, all private lands or other property in such territory in the Parish of Orleans and adjoining parishes as the said board now has authority and jurisdiction over under this amendment, and under existing laws, and which the said board may deem necessary or expedient for any of the purposes of said board, and to pay therefor in the same manner as the said board now pays for property taken by it on the Mississippi river front in the parish of Orleans.

Section 2. Be it further resolved, etc., That the official ballot to be used at such election shall have printed thereon the words:

"For the proposed amendment to the constitution authorizing the board of levee commissioners of the Orleans Levee District to make certain constructions along Lake Pontchartrain and elsewhere" and the words "Against the proposed amendment to the Constitution, authorizing the board of levee commissioners of the Orleans Levee District to make certain constructions along Lake Pontchartrain and elsewhere." And each elector shall indicate his vote on the proposed amendment as provided in the general election laws of the state.

JOINT RESOLUTION.
Proposing an amendment to Article 133 of the Constitution of the State of Louisiana relative to the Civil District Court for the Parish of Orleans.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana, two-thirds of all members elected to each house concurring, that the following amendment be submitted to the electors of this State, for their approval or rejection, at the election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1916.

Article 133. The Civil District Court shall have exclusive and general original probate jurisdiction, and exclusive original civil jurisdiction, in all cases where the amount in dispute or the funds to be distributed, shall exceed one hundred dollars, exclusive of interest; and exclusive jurisdiction in suits by married women for separation of property, in suits for separation from bed and board, for divorce, for nullity of marriage, or for interdiction, and in suits involving title to immovable property, or to office or other public position, or civil or political rights; and in all other cases, except as hereinafter provided, where no specific amount is in contest, and of all proceedings for the appointment of receivers or liquidators to corporations or partnerships. And said Court shall have authority to issue all such writs, process and orders as may be necessary or proper for the purpose of the jurisdiction herein conferred upon it. The Judges of said Court en Banc shall have control over the Judicial Expense Funds for the Parish of Orleans, accruing, and accrued, and to this end shall fix and regulate, from time to time, the number of deputies and employees of the offices of the Clerk of the Civil District Court, and City Courts, Register of Conveyances and Recorder of Mortgages of said Parish and their expenses, and also shall have power to fix the tariff of costs and charges to be paid for official services, which shall not exceed in any respect the tariffs now fixed by law, in said offices, which are paid into, and constitute said fund. Due publication of which tariff, when made, shall be given. They shall have power to determine, whether any amounts from said fund, or its excess, shall be devoted to the expense of taking testimony by short hand and to regulate and provide for the same. The Judges of said Court shall each receive an additional annual salary of One Thousand Dollars, payable monthly, on their own warrant which shall be payable out of this Fund and provided further that the said Judges shall be authorized to contribute out of said surplus fund, to the embellishment and maintenance of the Court House.

Section 2. Be it further resolved, etc., That the foregoing amendment to the Constitution of the State of Louisiana be submitted to the electors of the State at the next election for Representatives in Congress to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1916, and on the official ballots to be used at said election shall be placed the words: "For the proposed amendment to Article 133 of the Constitution of the State of Louisiana," and the words: "Against the proposed amendment to Article 133 of the Constitution of the State of Louisiana," and each elector shall indicate, as provided in the general election laws of the State whether he votes for or against the proposed amendment.

ACT OF INCORPORATION —OF THE—

Angers & Mestayer Dredging Co., Inc.
United States of America, State of Louisiana, Parish of Iberia.

Be It Known by these presents that on this 23rd day of September, A. D. 1916, before me, the undersigned Notary, duly commissioned and qualified within and for the Parish of Iberia, State of Louisiana, and in the presence of the witnesses hereinafter named and undersigned, personally came and appeared the three natural persons of full age, whose names are hereunto subscribed, who declared, that availing themselves of the provisions of Act No. 267 of the Acts of the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana, of the year 1914, they have formed and organized and by these presents do form and organize themselves as well as such other persons as may hereafter join with them or their successors, into a corporation, for the objects and purposes and under the covenants, stipulations and agreements following, to-wit:

ARTICLE I.
The name, style and title of this corporation shall be The Angers & Mestayer Dredging Company, Inc., and under said name it shall enjoy a corporate existence and succession for a full term and period of ninety-nine (99) years.

It shall have power to contract, sue and be sued, to make and use a corporate seal and the same to alter and break at pleasure, to have, hold and receive, purchase, sell, convey, lease, grant, bond, hypothecate and mortgage property of any and all kinds, real personal or mixed, corporeal or incorporeal, to have and appoint such managers, directors, officers and agents as the business may require, and to make and establish as well as to alter and amend from time to time such by-laws, rules and regulations for the proper management and government of the affairs of said corporation as may be necessary and proper, and generally to possess all the powers hereinafter mentioned and that are now or may be hereafter conferred by law or necessary to promote its objects and interests.

ARTICLE II.
The domicile of this corporation shall be at the City of New Iberia, Parish of Iberia, State of Louisiana, where service of citation or other legal process shall be made up the President of said corporation or in his absence upon the Secretary-Treasurer of said corporation and in any other manner provided for by law.

ARTICLE III.
The object and purposes for which this corporation is organized and founded, and the nature of the business to be carried on by it, are declared to be: To engage, by contract or otherwise, in works of land dredging, drainage and land reclamation; to own and operate dredges and to traffic in the same; to buy and sell municipal, drainage and land development and reclamation bonds and to traffic in the same; to buy and sell lands, to reclaim and develop lands; to own and operate a machine shop or shops and foundry; to manufacture dredges or other drainage appliances; and in general to do and perform any and all things necessary or germane to the accomplishment of the objects and purposes herein set forth.

ARTICLE IV.
The capital stock of this corporation is hereby declared to be the sum of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00), divided in Five Thousand shares of the par value of One Hundred Dollars each; said stock is to be paid for in cash or in exchange for such property as may be authorized by law and made in conformity with legal provisions. The capital stock may be increased to the sum of One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars. The said corporation shall begin business as soon as Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars of the capital stock have been subscribed for and the amount required by law shall have been paid in.

And now this corporation intending to acquire the dredging business and the dredges of Angers & Mestayer, a partnership composed of Lewis Angers and Percy Mestayer, domiciled in the City of New Iberia, Parish of Iberia, State of Louisiana, and also a certain dredge boat belonging individually to the said Percy Mestayer, and to issue stock for said business and said dredge boats, there is attached and annexed hereto, and to be read in connection with this Charter, an accurate detailed and itemized description of said property, together with a statement of its value as appraised by the Directors, and in conformity with Section Three of Act 267 of the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana of the year 1914.

ARTICLE V.
All of the corporate powers of said corporation shall be vested in and exercised by and all the business affairs of this corporation shall be managed, conducted and operated with full, complete and plenary authority by a Board of Directors composed of three (3) members to be annually elected on the second Monday of September of each year. All such elections shall be by ballot and a notice of the meeting of the stockholders of this corporation, for this purpose, shall be given in the manner required by law. The Directors elected shall continue to hold their office until their successors shall have been elected and installed, and any vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors, from any cause whatever, shall be filled by election of the remaining Directors for the unexpired term. All stockholders meetings shall be called and held conformably to the provisions of law. Two Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

There shall be a President, a Vice-President and a Secretary-Treasurer elected annually by the Board of Directors, and until the first annual meeting on the second Monday of September 1917 of the stockholders as herein provided for, the following stockholders shall constitute the Board of Directors, to-wit: Lewis Angers, whose Post Office address is New Iberia, La., who shall act as President; Norbert Mestayer, whose Post-office address is New Iberia, La., who shall act as Vice-President; and Percy Mestayer, whose Post-office address is New Iberia, La., who shall act as Secretary-Treasurer.

A Director may be represented at any Board meeting by proxy, provided the other two Directors are personally present.

Upon unanimous vote of all of the Directors the Board of Directors may be increased to five members, the additional members being elected by the Board of Directors to serve until the next election by the stockholders; at which meeting the stockholders may maintain the number of Directors at five, or reduce the number to three as herein provided for. In the event that the Board of Directors is increased to five members, as herein provided for, then three shall constitute a quorum, and two directors may be represented by proxy at any meeting of the Board.

ARTICLE VI.
Notice of all meetings of stockholders for election of Directors or any other purpose shall be given conformably to Sec. 10 of Act 267 of 1914, under the provisions of which this corporation is organized, and said meeting shall be attended by all of the formalities and requirements prescribed by said section of said Act.

ARTICLE VII.
No stockholder shall ever be held liable or responsible for the contracts, debts or obligations of this corporation in any other sum than the unpaid balance due for the stock subscribed to by him, nor shall any informality in the organization of this corporation have the effect of rendering this Charter null, or of imposing any liability beyond the balance due upon his stock.

ARTICLE VIII.

This act of incorporation may be altered, amended or modified by a vote of two-thirds in amount of the capital stock represented at any meeting called for that purpose, after due notice has been given as provided for in this act.

The capital stock of this corporation may be increased to any amount up to $150,000.00 (one hundred and fifty thousand dollars) at a meeting of the stockholders called for that purpose after compliance with all of the formalities herein set forth for a stockholders meeting, upon the affirmative vote of three-fourths of all of the outstanding stock, and further upon a compliance with the formalities prescribed by law.

This corporation may be dissolved and liquidated conformably to Sections 28 and 30 of Act 267 of 1914 or in pursuance of any future law or laws appertaining thereto.

Thus done and signed at New Iberia, Parish of Iberia, State of Louisiana, this 23rd day of September, A. D. 1916, in the presence of Porteus R. Burke and Edgar E. Delhomme, good and competent witnesses, who have subscribed these presents with the parties and the undersigned Notary.
