NEW IBERIA BOARD OF HEALTH TO INAUGURATE RAT EXTERMINATION CAMPAIGN.

In accordance with the wish of the State Board of Health, our local authorities met in session yesterday morning for the purpose of putting on a rat extermination campaign. This measure is prompted by Dr. Dowling owing to the discovery of plague at Bogalusa, Beaumont, Galveston and other cities. A public health service man is expected here in a day or two, and from that time our local health officials will be on the job. It is the intention to have every citizen do their part in catching and killing rodents that must be dipped into coal oil in order to destroy the flea and afterwards to bury them.

On Thursday, Dr. W. F. Carstens received the subjoined message from the State Board of Health:

"New Orleans, June 29, '20. Arranged with Public Health Service to send special man to New Iberia to instruct trappers if you will arrange for employment for two months. Urge the Board to accept, since plague has appeared at Bogalusa, Galveston, Beaumont, Pensacola. If without funds suggest you request municipal authorities to finance."

OUR EXCELLENT BAND.

Did you all attend the fine band concert last Wednesday evening, beginning at eight o'clock? It seems to me that everybody who had a car, crowded it with their best friends and filled both sides of the square in front of the Court House as close as could be. Those whose cars were in the garage, trotted down on shanks' ponesy and formed a standing committee, or "sat on their thumb, until more room would come." But when the music began, everybody who had any music in their soul made a vow, not to miss another of those rare treats. The best gift that our little town has received yet through the Chamber of Commerce appealing to our talented musical townsman.

Prof. Armandez, who has been the leader of our very best bands always. He is such a thorough musician, that while he instructs the new members he inspires them with his enthusiasm, and expression. I learned from some young friends, living many miles out of town, that they never miss a band concert, considering them a rare treat. Music speaks in a distinct language. Some of it, cultivating and uplifting. Some sad to say of a very different order tangling the brain into an irresponsible twist. But our fine band would waste their talents on that kind of stuff. Just at present our band is in demand for 4th of July celebration. They play in Franklin I believe. No doubt many of our people will go to hear them, and when they play Star Spangled Banner, New Iberia will join in. On last Wednesday evening, the program was especially attractive, containing a selection from the old opera Norma, the symphony was perfect throughout, and the solos and duets carried the tenderness and pathos of the best trained voices. Departed days come back to me, in recollected music.

To one whose childhood and middle life was spent absorbing the best class of music. Thomas with his May festivals of thousands of musicians instruments and voices in perfect accord. A military band (in a U. S. A. garrison) one of the best in the land practicing every morning and playing every evening. Only

HELP TULANE.

Avery Island, La., July 1st, '20. Editor Enterprise, New Iberia: Feeling sure of your interest in all that concerns the uplift of the young manhood of our State, I take this opportunity to ask that you will, through your columns, make an appeal to your readers, for a helping hand, to Tulane University, in her time of need; her very existence depends upon her raising $2,600,000, in order to obtain a like amount from the Rockefeller Foundation Fund, and thus be assured of an endowment, that will enable the University to carry on its great work. I am vitally interested in the work, as my husband, Col. Wm. Preston Johnston, was its founder and first President. Trusting that this appeal will arouse a substantial response from Tulane men, and Newcomb women, in our section, I am,

Very respectfully yours,
Mrs. Wm. Preston Johnston.

OPPENHEIMER—KLING.

On Wednesday evening, June 30th at eight o'clock at the Temple Gates of Prayer occurred a wedding of great interest locally and throughout the State. It was that of Miss Vivian Kling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lazard Kling of this City, and Mr. Jesse Oppenheimer of Kansas City, Missouri. The Temple was beautifully decorated for the event in a color scheme of pink and green and to the strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin, the bridal party entered. First came the ushers, Mr. Adolph Marx of Lake Charles and Mr. Lionel Kling, brother of the bride. They were followed by the junior bridesmaid, Miss Ruth Reinauer of Lake Charles who was charmingly attired in a frock of sunset yellow and pink. Her flowers were a shower bouquet of Russell roses; next came Miss Sophie Marx of Lake Charles, gowned in blue Charmeuse, veiled in tulle, carrying a shower bouquet of Russell roses. The maid of honor, Miss Muriel Kling, sister of the bride was daintily attired in a frock of orchid pink taffeta and meline. She carried a shower of Ophelia roses. Little Miss Juliette Levy who preceded the bride was a dainty little flower girl in ruffled Swiss. The bride entered with her father, by whom she was given away in marriage. She made a beautiful picture in her dress of white Duchess satin and tulle, embroidered in pearls. Her long veil of illusion, made in cap effect was caught on to her court train with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. Waiting at the altar was the groom, Mr. Jesse Oppenheimer, attended by his best man, Mr. Ralph Ettlinger of Kansas City, Mo. The impressive ceremony was performed by Dr. Emile Leipziger of New Orleans. After the ceremony a reception was held at the family residence on St. Peter Street. The home was beautifully decorated with Shasta daisies, ferns and roses. During the evening, refreshments were served. After the reception the happy couple left on a tour through the West and Canadian Rockies. On their return they will make their home in Kansas City, Mo. The out-of-town guests at the wedding, besides the members of the bridal party, were Mr. and Mrs. Herman Oppenheimer, father and mother of the groom; Mr. Ralph Ettlinger of Kansas City; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Coughenem, Mrs. Leon Pfeifer, Misses Marion and Anna Pfeifer, Miss Marie Elise Dupuy and Louise Levi of New Orleans; Messrs. Richard Loeb and Karl Kahn of Morgan City; Dr. and Mrs. Moise Levy of Galveston, Texas; Mrs. S. Marx, Mr. and Mrs. Sol Reinauer, Messrs. Louis, Benjamin and Jules Reinauer, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Muller and daughter Janice, Miss Rosa Hart of Lake Charles; Mrs. Benny Levy of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Levy of Alexandria. Punch was served by four beautiful girls, Misses Dorothy and Elizabeth Shaw, Janice Scharrf and Anna Pfeifer. Numerous and beautiful gifts were received by the couple.

GEORGE H. RIVIERE.

It is with deep sorrow and regret that we chronicle the unfortunate and sad ending of our fellow-citizen, Mr. George H. Riviere, which occurred last Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock. Deceased had been a sufferer from an incurable disease for several years, in fact he had become so despondent recently over his ailment, couple with financial troubles that on several occasions he expressed an intention to take his own life. On Monday morning after going to his jewelry store and spending a while with his son, George, Jr. he stated that he would return home. Upon reaching the middle of the public bridge spanning the Teche he carried out his threat, and discharging his hat and coat jumped into the water. At the time there was no one near enough to him to interfere and a little boy who witnessed the scene ran to his store and informed his son what had happened. The young man ran to the bridge as fast as he could and jumped into the Bayou, catching a hold of him, held his head out of the water until others attracted to the scene, assisted in pulling his limped body out of the water. Unfortunately being in such a weakened condition he could not be resuscitated. He was then carried to the Dauterive Sanitarium which is also near the Bridge, but nothing could be done and his heart ceased to function. The remains were then brought to his home on Duperier Avenue and prepared for burial. On Tuesday morning his remains were shipped to New Orleans and Wednesday he was peacefully laid to rest in the family vault in St. Louis cemetery. Mr. Riviere was a splendid citizen and his death cast a gloom over the community. He was ardent and enthusiastic member of the Elk Lodge and at the time of his demise was filling the office of Treasurer. He was also a member of the Woodmen of the World Lodge. He leaves to mourn him, three daughters and two sons, and a grief-stricken widow. The Enterprise extends its heartfelt sorrow to the family.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH SERVICE.

On Sunday, July 4th the "little church around the corner" will hold their evening service at 8 o'clock, Mr. Robert Woodson will preach. This faithful little band of busy Christians being constantly blessed, while they miss their beloved pastor and his incomparable wife, whom to know her is to love her, to mention is to praise.

The Presbytery always send to them, very superior young "ministers to be" gifted and delightful personalities. Mr. Glen Morrow, who was here last summer decided that he could do more far-reaching good teaching in Cornell University, than preaching here. Mr. Robert Woodson is from South Carolina, studying at Columbia, graduates next year, a good preacher, admirable reader. He is a delightful addition to the little church circle.
