IRISH CALL PARLEY ON INDEPENDENCE BY DOMINION PLAN.

London, Aug. 19.—Irishmen of moderate views concerning the problem of dominion home rule will assemble at Dublin from all parts of Ireland next Tuesday for a conference. This meeting, says a Dublin dispatch, to the Daily Mail, has been "endowed with considerable importance by the change in policy in Downing street."
 "Although Premier Lloyd George's statement in the house of commons last Monday puzzled Irish politicians," the dispatch says, "it is wrong to take a pessimistic view of the situation, as the way to peace is by no means closed."
 666 cures Malaria, Chills and Fever, Bilious Fever, Colds and LaGrippe. It kills the parasite that causes the fever. It is a splendid laxative and general tonic.

SIX MILLION PEOPLE IN U. S. ARE HOMELESS.

New York, Aug. 19.—Six million people in the United States are inadequately housed with little hope of the situation being relieved soon, it is estimated by Edward P. Doyle, secretary of the mayor's housing committee.

It appears that in England they are greatly worried lest the United States capture the world's export coal business, and the Chicago News remarks that when the American consumer hears about it he will be worried, too.

A little boy came galloping down the street. He was full of life and spirit, but in the exuberance of his joy he inadvertently bumped into a passing man.

"Get out, you brat—what th'h—!—'s th' matter with you?" he snarled, with a terrifying glare calculated to put terror into the heart of even a much older person.

The boy stopped, started in a startled manner for a moment, murmured his excuses, and slunk shame facedly away, crushed in spirit and sore of heart.

And the uncontrolled passion of a grown man did it!

Some day the boy may forget—and he may not. The incident may remain with him as long as life lasts. It often happens that way.

Little happenings in the early life of a child often exert a strong influence in the after life of the adult.

As the seed is planted, so does it often grow, and mature, and die.

"Brat!" and "What th'h—!—!"

Harsh words to apply, even to a man but infinitely more pregnant with disastrous results when hurled in the heat of passion at one of tender years.

WHY A BABY CRIES

Because it's the nearest he can come to talking. It is his language,—hard to understand sometimes. But a mother usually understands it as plainly as if he were speaking words.

He might be saying, "Wow! I'm having a good time stretching my lungs. Nothing's wrong, so just let me alone while I yell a little."

But again he might be saying, "Ouch! My dinner didn't agree with me at all. My tummy feels tight and it's beginning to hurt. So if you don't do something for me I'm going to be real sick."

If the little wooden bottle of Ware's Baby Powder is at hand, mother knows exactly what to do.

This remedy has been used for over thirty years, and has never failed to bring instant relief to babies suffering with colic, diarrhoea, or other stomach and bowel complaints.

It is not a purgative or a narcotic. It's a simple antiseptic that cleanses and purifies the contents of the stomach. Odorless and tasteless,—baby likes to take it.

It is endorsed by parents and physicians everywhere.

Don't be afraid to try the remedy that brings hundreds of letters like this: "Dear Sir: I think your Ware's Baby Powder is the grandest remedy in the world."

My twin baby boys were seven months old and had bowel trouble all their lives, but since I commenced using Ware's Baby Powder they are well and fat as they can be." Mrs. P. D. Morgan, Halle, La.

It is an easy matter for editors and others to sit in a chair and dope out beautiful rules of life for others to observe. In putting them into practice ourselves—but, then, we seldom do.
