

JAPAN AND AMERICA CAN NOT SUCCESSFULLY CONDUCT WAR TO ADJUST DIFFERENCES.

Tokio, Nov. 3.—Viscount Kentaro Kaenko, president of the American-Japan society, asserts in a special article in the Japanese newspaper, Yomiuri, that not by war, but by friendship and intelligent diplomacy, can Japan accomplish the aims she seeks in connection with American problems.

The Viscount declares that because of gratitude for what Americans did for Japan in the days of Commodore Perry and Townsend Harris, Japan has harbored no grudge against the United States, although of recent years in the United States there has arisen an anti-Japanese agitation, beginning with the San Francisco school incident; then the taking of the right of land ownership away from the Japanese, the restrictions of the leasehold of land, the restriction of photograph marriages and other incidents.

"Instead of resentment, Japan has of her own accord restricted the immigration of her laborers into the United States by the gentleman's agreement. Japan is now taking toward the United States an attitude similar to that by America toward Japan 67 years ago, an attitude of patience and forbearance."

Viscount Kaneko held that for the peace of Asia, Japanese-American friendship is an absolute necessity, yet in spite of this some people talk of war. He went on:

Even so-called intelligent classes fear a drift toward war in the near future. I am firmly convinced that such talk is indulged in merely to attract the attention of other people.

"Suppose that the two nations were at war with each other. America will have to base her operations in Hawaii and the Philippines. No matter how great the economic advantages of how great the military and naval strength which she may command, she will not be able to do more than hinder a portion of Japan's shipping from operation, or devastate the shores of Japan temporarily.

"She will not be able to deal decisive blows to Japan, nor land a single man on the soil of Nippon. The Japanese will never permit such a thing to pass. Nevertheless, Japan has been invaded by foreign hosts since history recorded her birth. Mongolian invasions were twice attempted, but in vain. Since that time, Japan's national strength has increased many fold.

"On the other hand, suppose that Japan should attack America and that she should be able to land marines from her powerful fleet in San Francisco. How will Japan transport the million soldiers needed to make the launching of marines effective? How will she send provisions? It is altogether an impossibility. Moreover, even if Japan's army should occupy a portion of the western coast of the American continent, the body of the United States will not be greatly hurt. Quite possibly, New York and Washington will pay no attention to such a trivial incident.

"This, it is plain that a war between Japan and America cannot accomplish its final object and because of its very uselessness will be waged."

BOGS PAY BIG MONEY.

Mr. Pete Wing of Hawk Point, Mo., made a lot of money out of his hogs. He says: "I feel them Dr. LeGear's Hog Prescription. It has given wonderful results in putting gains on them with less feed. They were on heavy feed for only a month averaged a gain of 2 1-2 pounds daily, and were only 7 months, 10 days old, when sold."

Mr. Wing profited by the advice of Dr. LeGear, Graduate Veterinarian and Expert Poultry Breeder of 28 years' standing.

Dr. LeGear's Hog Prescription will put weight on your hogs also, because it expels worms, purifies the blood and conditions them so that they gain flesh on less feed. It makes no difference what ailment is prevalent among your stock or poultry, it is money in your pocket to get the proper Dr. LeGear Remedy from your dealer, on a satisfaction or money back offer.

REPUDIATE LEAGUE.

Many significant results were achieved at the polls Tuesday, but two stand out over all others because they definitely impress the sentiment of the American people as to two very vital issues, the league of Nations and the protective tariff policy. The democratic party sought to make the League the paramount issue, at the behest of President Wilson, and thereby took a referendum to the people as to whether the United States should become a member of the League under the conditions stated in the covenant, which conditions alone governed the sentiment of the people on the adoption question. The vote showed clearly that the people want no entangling alliances, no remote chance, even, of breeding war and no surrender of our national independence in national and international affairs. The vote was so decisive as to settle the fate of the league in its present form and undoubtedly this clearly expressed will of the people will be respected by congress. Another significant feature of the balloting was that wherever farmers went to the polls a decisive vote was registered for a protective tariff, and this policy, too, undoubtedly will be accepted by congress as direct instructions to the people's representative on the tariff question. The vote was clear and unmistakable upon these issues and the republican party will be expected to sacredly regard its pre-election pledges in the premises. We may confidently expect a gradual return to normal business conditions as one great result of the election and the clear-voiced expression of the people, and business undoubtedly will begin to resume along normal lines in confidence surrounding and found in the results of the balloting Tuesday. It will be interesting to note whether the Federal Reserve Board and Secretary Houston have rightly interpreted the thunderous voice of the great masses of American citizenship.—Lafayette Gazette.
