

IF THE FRAME IS BUILT with sound, well seasoned lumber the building will be good for years and years of service or occupancy. A good solid frame can be re-covered with new siding again and again as the old becomes weather and time worn. Our heavy timber for framing and sills is selected from the very finest lumber cut. It is thoroughly seasoned. It is the kind of timber that spells durability.

The general manager Mr. Max Zimmermann informed us on Thursday

—The nuptials of Miss Marie Louise Vidrine, a daughter of Mr. Louis Vidrine and Mr. Wiltz E. Buquet have been announced to take place at St. Peter's Catholic church in this City on Saturday, October 1st, 1921 at five o'clock A. M. Miss Vidrine has a number of intimate friends here who wish her and her groom-to-be, life's best blessings.

—We were informed by Parish Supt. Porter that the School Board has decided to advertise for bids for the erection of the New Iberia High School on Oct. 1st. This is good news to the people of New Iberia who are anxious to see work on the building started. The school will be modern in every particular, in fact be one of the finest in the State.

—There will be Church service at the Presbyterian Church here on Sunday next, the 25th, at eleven o'clock A. M. The Rev. Mr. Booth, who had been filling the pulpit for the summer, being called to Beaumont, Rev. H. W. Jamieson of New Orleans, Secretary of the Student's Y. M. C. A. at Tulane University of New Orleans will preach.

—The twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Ochs of Weeks Island is announced for Thursday, Oct. 6th, 1921. Both Mr. and Mrs. Ochs have many friends in New Iberia who extend their best wishes.

—The remains of Miss Jeanne Decuir who died at New Orleans on Tuesday, Sept. 21st, 1921 were interred in St. Peter's Catholic cemetery after the funeral services on Wednesday morning. Miss Decuir was a sister of Mrs. A. J. Suberbielle and Miss Julia Decuir of this City.

—We had a pleasant call last Wednesday from Mr. Thos. W. Moore of Houston, Texas. Mr. Moore is the assistant to Mr. C. J. Webre of this City, in the exploiting for salt on the Cote Blanche Island which adjoins this Parish. He had with him a large piece of crystal salt extracted from the ground at a depth of about seven hundred feet. He and Mr. Webre have been busily engaged for a number of months drilling on the Island and Monday they succeeded in striking a salt bed. It is the intention now to make further investigation to locate the dome after which the owners of the Island and other capitalists will begin the erection of a Salt Mine which will prove a valuable asset not only to the discoverers and owners, but to the Parish of St. Mary as well.
