

BOY FARMERS WILL STAGE CORN SHOW

Most of the parishes of the state are expected to be represented in the boys' and girls' corn club competition at the Louisiana State Fair, October 27 to November 8, in which improved premiums have been offered.

There are thousands of juvenile corn growers in Louisiana, practically every parish being well represented in the work, and efforts are being exerted to have all of the various clubs represented.

In addition to the Louisiana club competition, there will be held an Invernal Corn Club contest, in which several states are expected to have contestants.

The result of the instruction given to juvenile farmers in growing fine corn will be reflected in the large collection of excellent specimens displayed at the State Fair.

For further information, write to V. R. Hirsch, secretary-manager, Shreveport, La.

STATE FAIR SCHOOL FOR THE CLUB BOYS

The State Fair School for members of the Boys' Junior Extension Clubs will be one of the important features connected with the visit of juvenile farmers to the Louisiana State Fair, October 27 to November 8.

Prof. H. F. Bretthauer of Shreveport, secretary of the Community Y. M. C. A., who is recognized as one of the country's most successful specialists in work among juveniles, will have direction of the school.

Lectures by interesting speakers on agriculture and other topics, stock judging contests and other special educational features will be provided in connection with the school.

For further information write to V. R. Hirsch, secretary-manager, Shreveport, La.

No Winner in a Healthy Child

Attention directed to those who are interested in the health of their children, the fact that a child is born healthy is no guarantee that it will remain so.

"Oh, Henry," exclaimed his wife, as she threw her arms around his neck. "I love you so! Don't forget to leave me a few dollars when you go to town this morning."

A TALK WITH A NEW IBERIA MAN.

Mr. W. T. Moss, bricklayer of W. Main Street Tells His Experiences.

There is nothing like a talk with one of our own citizens for giving hope and encouragement to the anxious sufferer from the dread kidney disease. We, therefore, give here an interview with a New Iberia man:

disordered and caused me much annoyance. I had those dull, achy feelings all over my body until I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. Doan's helped me very quickly and when I had used them for a few weeks, they entirely cured me of the trouble.

NEW YORK STATE PROGRESSING.

Last week we told you of China's progress in having elected a Single Tax Emperor, Sun Yet Sen. This week we have more cheering news still.

honeycombed with folks who have seen the light my little grand daughter Audine Stark, a junior in the St. Lawrence High School of this place brought home among her other studies for this session a week ago "Community Civics," a book not in use last school session which openly advocates co-operative societies similar to those founded by socialists, but specially dwells on the necessity of equality of opportunity in the use of the earth as taught by Henry George whose name is prominently mentioned in the chapter devoted to the all important question of justice.

An old colored mammy whose husband had just successfully sued for divorce came slowly down the court house steps, talking to herself: "Dar ain't no justice in dis heah wo'ld. Dat useless ol' husband of mine, he got his divorce, he got de house, got de money, got mah free chil'en and dey ain't none of 'em his'n."

Whale of a Fish Story. "It's a whale," more than one visitor asserted who visited Monk's wharf here recently. They were wrong. It was a sturgeon. From the tip of its tail to its snout it measured just 18 feet, and it weighed 900 pounds.
