State Military Encampment.

A special troop train will leave New Orleans at 4 p. m., on Sunday, July 11th, for the State military encampment at Alexandria, over the L. R. & N. Leaving New Orleans, the train will have on board several of the New Orleans companies and at Baton Rouge will pick up Company E of that place, Company I of LIEUT. COL. L. P. KILBOURNE.

Amite, and troop C of Covington.
This train will pass St. Francis-ville at 9 p. m. and will take on board Company A of this place.
The train will arrive at Alexandria early on the morning of the 12th.

The train will carry a Pullman sleeper for the officers and will be in charge of Lieutenant Colonel L. P. Kilbourne, as ranking officer, from St. Francisville to Alexandria.

Ready for Business.

The Louisiana Railway and Navigation Company is now in shape to transact business at Bayou Sara with some degree of comfort and satisfaction to its patrons. Agent Mansker has moved into the new depot, which has separate waiting rooms for blacks and whites; and a large warehouse for the storing of freight. The new passenger schedule on this road which went into effect Sunday is all that can be desired, and a night operator will be on duty from 10 p. m. to 7 a. m. The new passenger schedule appears elsewhere in this paper.

said she, "some one has bit a big

The Catholic Sunday School picnic last Saturday on the banks of Alexander's creek, was a perfect success despite the rain that hurried the affair to a conclusion in the middle afternoon. A large number was present. The dinner was excellent.

Prof. B. N. Lowrey, and family have moved to the house on Ferdinand St. formerly occupied by Ruffin Barrow.

The merchant who is forever preaching against mail order houses and at the same time letting the government furnish his envelopes already printed is not consistent. If a newspaper man should send to a mail order house for a pair of shoes he would simply be drummed out of town.
The government office at Washington doesn't do the printing on the envelopes, but the work is done by a firm at Dayton, O., and the government simply acts as agent.—Farmersville (Tex.) Sentinel.

Rev. S. L. Riggs will hold service at Star Hill at 11 a. m. and at St. Francisville at 8 p. m., tomorrow. At both churches will be presented the claim of the American Bible Society, which was requested by the last District Conference at Slaughter.

An Interesting Game.

The closest and most interesting game of ball played here this season was pulled off at Feliciana Park, Sunday afternoon, between the Felicianas and the Schwartz Stars of New Orleans.

The game was a pitcher's battle from start to finish and resulted in a score of 1 to 0 in favor of the Felicianas. Wade Buquou's sensational running one-hand catch was easily the feature of the game, and his two-base hit brought in the one run made.

The Stars brought up but six of their regular men, claiming that three of them got left. However, they played Dudley Weber of Donaldsonville on second, and Jimmie Dardenne and Tony Sansoni. Weber is a first-class player and second base is his regular position. Dardenne and Sansoni are both good players and have played with the Felicianas this season. Taken together, the Stars had a strong team, and if all their regular players had been here, it is doubtful if the result would have been different.

THE TRUE DEMOCRAT has received a number of compliments on the fight it made for the continuance of the L. R. & N. morning train as far as Angola, after the management had announced its intention of stopping it at Baton Rouge. We do not claim much of the credit for this, as all the people between Baton Rouge and Angola made a strenuous kick against the proposed change.
However, it is pleasing to know that our efforts in behalf of the people of West Feliciana are appreciated, and such appreciation goes a long way in giving our readers the very best paper it is possible for us to produce.

L. R. & N. Schedule.

The passenger schedule which went into effect on the L. R. & N., last Sunday, is as follows:

Train No. 6 leaves New Orleans at 6:50 a. m., arrives Baton Rouge, 9:55; Bayou Sara, 11:02; Angola 11:45.

Train No. 5 leaves Angola, 3:40 p. m.; Bayou Sara, 4:23; Baton Rouge, 5:30; arrives at New Orleans, 8:45.

Train No. 2 leaves New Orleans, 6:20 p. m.; Baton Rouge, 9:28; Bayou Sara, 10:35; Angola, 11:02; Alexandria, 3:03 a. m.; arrives at Shreveport, 8:10 a. m.

Train No. 1 leaves Shreveport, 6:30 p. m.; Alexandria, 11:25; Angola, 3:20 a. m.; Bayou Sara, 4:08; Baton Rouge, 5:22; arrives New Orleans, 8:20 a. m.

Last week THE TRUE DEMO-CRAT announced that A. Villeret had been elected president of the Mutual Building & Loan Association, vice J. H. Percy, resigned. This was an error in proof-reading. The office in question was that of vice-president. An excellent gentleman, S. McC. Lawrason by name, is president of the Association, and we had no intention of robbing him of any of the honors rightfully due him. Beg pardon, Judge.

J. D. Wood of Brandon was in town Monday morning. Mr.
Wood expressed appreciation of the new service on the L. R. & N., which permits people living between Bayou Sara and Angola to make the round trip to Bayou Sara before noon, and gives them seven hours for the transaction of business in Bayou Sara and St. Francisville.

Mrs. E. L. Newsham entertained informally at cards, Saturday evening, in compliment to her guest, Mr. Dudley Weber of Baton Rouge. The affair was quite impromptu but lost nothing in that respect, for in that well-appointed home, a few moments' notice is all the hostess needs to evolve a dainty entertainment.
