

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Patron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side. The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was confined to my bed again. After nothing seemed to do me any good.

I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without its tiring me, and am doing all my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of continuous success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.

SONG OF THE FLY.

Nearly two centuries ago, a minor poet wrote the song of the fly, in which occurs the touching invitation:

"Busy, curious thirsty fly, Come and drink, the same as I."

How times have changed: The man who penned such an ode to-day might count himself lucky if he escaped confinement in a lunatic asylum. We love animals these days, yes; but not creatures which poison us with filth and murder us with disease germs.

"Baby by, there's a fly, we will swat him, you and I!"

There he goes, on his toes, spreading typhoid on your nose."

That is the modern version. It may not sound so poetic, but it makes for healthier children and less crowded cemeteries.—Chicago Journal.
