Clyde Magearl returns Sunday to Ruston Industrial Institute, where he had a successful session in 1914-15.

Messrs. J. B. and Edward Murphy are enjoying a visit from their sister, Miss Josie Murphy of New Orleans.

Miss M. J. Cooper and cousin, Mr. H. L. Cooper, of Vicksburg, Miss., were recent guests of Miss Margaret Thom.

Mr. Jas. Tirout went to Morganza, meeting his sister, Mrs. E. T. Muse there, to look after their mutual business interests.

Mr. and Mrs. Shelby Reid and little son spent several days last week with her grandmother, Mrs. L. J. Davis and family of Wakefield.

Levering Lawrason left Saturday returning to the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Boston, where he enters the senior class.

Mr. Cheston Folkes and M. S. Taylor were in New Orleans at last week-end attending a conference of Dr. C. Pierson's political friends.

Mrs. O. Lejeune and daughter, Sunshine, returned from Baton Rouge, Monday night, Mrs. Howell having reached home from Kentucky.

Mr. Woodie Perkins spent the week-end at Forest. Master Clayton Perkins accompanied him home to spend several days with his grandparents.

Feltus Leake, an unusually bright and manly boy, has passed his examination into the 11th grade, having studied all summer with Mr. Bliss.

Mrs. W. M. Haile and party left immediately after the dance for their home in New Roads. Miss Myrtle Haile goes to the State Normal Monday.

Willie Stirling Jr. left Wednesday for Helena, Ark., to attend school and reside with Mr. and Mrs. Louis Stirling. Ruffin Stirling is also living there.

Mr. Graham Tempel of Gloster, Miss., is in charge of the Y. & M. V. station during the absence of Mr. L. W. Rogers. His many friends are pleased to have him here.

Mrs. Gordon Barrow and little Virginia, after concluding her visit here, spent several days in Baton Rouge before going on to her home at Millington, Tenn., Friday.

A belated, but no less interesting item is that Miss Thelma Graves has gone to Oklahoma to her aunt, Mrs. Harbour. She will take up a special course in domestic science.

Wilmer Rogers is spending a few days with his aunt, Mrs. Landry at Brooks, La. He and his little sister will be in charge of Mrs. J. Q. Tempel in the absence of their parents.

In connection with the recent successful efforts to have the Interstate Commerce Commission postpone the raising of the freight rate on sweet potatoes to points in Texas, it is of interest to note that the Louisiana Railway and Navigation Co. had no part in the proposed raise. On the contrary, this railroad company professed its entire satisfaction with the rate in force, and Mr. E. C. D. Marshall, the general passenger agent, went to Washington and appeared in person before the Commission in the interests of having the present rate retained. There is no doubt that his representations had great weight with the Interstate Commission. Through Mr. Marshall's influence, the Cotton Belt and the M. K. & T. agreed not to raise their rates. The incident puts the L. R. & N. in a most favorable light before the people of this section.

It is to everybody's interest to patronize home industries. No community can succeed where this policy is not carried out. Keep your money at home by buying at home and banking at home. On and after Thursday, Oct. 7, the Bank of Commerce will be the "Home Bank."
BE A WEST FELICIANIAN!

The dance, last Friday evening, was in no respect behind previous affairs of the kind this summer in interest and charm. The music was delightful, the attendance was large, and the feeling of pleasure and good fellowship was general. A number of visitors from Pointe Coupee and Baton Rouge were appreciated guests.

The Misses Town had the missionary society meet with them on Tuesday afternoon.

Yom Kippur is observed by Jewish citizens from Friday evening to Saturday evening, with fasting and services at the temple.

SMILE.

Smile and the world smiles with you,
Knock, and you go alone,
For the cheerful grin
Will let you in,
Where the kicker is never known.
Growl, and the way looks dreary,
Laugh and the path grows bright,
For a welcome smile
Brings sunshine, while
A frown shuts out the light.
Sing, and the world's harmonious,
Grumble, and things go wrong,
And all the time
You are out of rhyme
With the busy, bustling throng.
Kick, and there's trouble brewing,
Whistle, and life is gay,
And the world's in tune
Like a day in June,
And the clouds all melt away.
—F. A. Brinnstool.
