VETERANS' CHRISTMAS BOXES.

The first donation to the Veterans' Christmas boxes—two quarts of preserves—was sent in by Misses Hannah and Mary Town. Who'll be the next donor?

For be it understood that notwithstanding the large donation of night clothing for the old men at the Soldiers' Home, a part of which has been completed and sent in this week, the usual boxes of preserves and jellies will also be sent. The use of West Feliciana sweets in the institution's infirmary has become a custom, and one which will not be willingly broken by the devoted women of this parish. Therefore those in sympathy with the custom are urged to send in their contributions at once, so that shipment may be made early in December. For purposes of identification, names of donors should be written on jar labels. Send to this office. Acknowledgment will be made in these columns.

N. B.—For some reason nuts have been removed from the list of edibles wanted. Tobacco, pipes, warm wrist-lets and mufflers are very acceptable. Since above was in type: Mrs. B. Leopold, tobacco; Mrs. E. Robinson, tobacco; Miss Edith Leake, 1 qt. of preserves.

SUES ACCUSER FOR $7500 DAMAGES.

John L. Wells of Lottie, La., has filed suit at New Roads, against Dr. T. H. Maddox, for damages in the sum of $7,500 for false arrest and for slander of his character. SCHOOL NOTES.

The following is the per cent of attendance made by the various schools of the parish for the first month: Ninth Ward, 97; Wakefield, 95.8; Julius Freyhan, 94.8; Sebastopol, 88; Grange Hall, 85; Freeland, 83.8; Beech Grove, 82; New Hope, 76.2; Poplar Springs, 72; Wilhelm, 60.2; Star Hill, no report.

The new school house at New Hope near Alice post office has been completed. It is a neat and attractive building. The people of the neighborhood are well pleased with the building and there has been quite a revival of school interest in the community. The attendance at New Hope is the largest known there for years.

A receipt for the $6.80 sent the Charity Hospital fund has been received. Subsequently, Mrs. C. E. Thibodaux contributed 25 cents, which was duly forwarded.

A large nosegay of chrysanthemums and roses is a kindly remembrance from Mrs. J. P. Newsham much appreciated by this office. Mrs. Newsham rightly says that no roses are so sweet as those of late autumn, their fragrance not being parched out by the fiercer sunshine of spring or summer.

Mrs. Clara Davis of Angola is dangerously ill. It was hoped to take her to Woodville but she was too ill for removal.

Samples of the famous Marinello preparations for the complexion furnished free. Novelties for Christmas on sale at

THE WOMAN'S SHOP, Third Street, Baton Rouge. (D11)

HIGH SCHOOL NEWS.

Wade Wilcox was quite sick last week. The fourth grade and teacher, Miss Turnley sent him a waiter of flowers with fruit in the center.

Mrs. Crump's room is preparing a Thanksgiving program.

School will be held Saturday in order to give holiday next Friday, thereby making a complete Thanksgiving week-end, permitting teachers and pupils, who live at a distance, to go home. As the proportion of Jewish pupils is so small, nine in all, less than 5 per cent of the whole, it was not considered unjust. Miss Schlesinger, the first assistant teacher, made no objection whatever.

A thunderstorm with high wind, Sunday night, was the forerunner of a cold snap, which has made fires and overcoats agreeable.

We must confess ourselves not very close observers of nature but it strikes us as unusual to see the pecan trees in our yard bud out again with fresh green clusters of leaves on the tip of every limb, after having turned brown and sere following the great storm. If this is unusual, have others noted a like phenomenon?

The regular program at the Pastime Theatre will begin at 8:45 next Friday night, so that those who are interested in "The Master Key" may see it and then take in the play at Pythian Hall, if they so desire.

Bishop Sessums will preach and administer confirmation at Grace Church on Sunday, Nov. 28, at 10 o'clock. In the evening he will go to St. Mary's Church, Weyanoke, for confirmation and to St. John's, Laurel Hill, to celebrate the Holy Communion on Monday morning at 11 o'clock.

PERSONALS FROM WOODVILLE REPUBLICAN.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Stewart McGehee and Mrs. J. B. McGehee of Laurel Hill attended services at St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Woodville Sunday.

Dr. A. F. Barrow, Dr. Gregory and Messrs. Frank Barrow, Abe Mann and Mr. Osborne of St. Francisville composed an automobile party which visited Woodville, Thursday afternoon.

The residence of Mr. Thos. H. Wilkinson, situated on the Sligo road in West Feliciana, nine miles south of Woodville, was destroyed by fire on last Friday night. The building and contents were a total loss as no insurance was carried. The cause of the fire is unknown.

There is talk of a pound party for the Episcopal Home next Friday. It has not been decided, so if interested inquire.

The True-Democrat suggests that as the good Lord has blessed this section with a fine harvest of pecans, let us all join in making up a barrel of these nuts for the orphans. Send to this office, or to Grace Church.

Thanksgiving has always been the day to collect vegetables, meat, groceries, syrup, and potatoes for the Children's Home in New Orleans. Anything will be acceptable. The committee asks that all things be sent to the Church and they will see that it is forwarded to the Home.

Friday morning news of Mrs. Plettinger and Mr. Forrester at Baton Rouge Sanitarium is that both are doing nicely.

TO THE PARENT:

Your child's feet are an important problem to you, and a responsibility that you must assume until such time as the child is old enough to be a child no longer, and then select their own shoes; therefore see that the little tots are correctly shod in nature's way, do not crowd the feet into narrow-toe shoes; this spells corns, bunions, ingrown toe nails and stunted mentality. Children are bright and intelligent, but if you send them to school with an ill-fitting shoe that hurts and burns their poor little feet, how can you expect an all "E. E. report?" Their little mind is so conscious of foot-suffering that they cannot concentrate on studies. Start them off to school correctly shod in nature's way by fitting them with BUSTER BROWN SHOES.

A Home Institution

THE BANK OF COMMERCE, now a little over one month old, has not startled the world of finance. It has, though, more than come up to the expectations of its officers and directors, who are highly pleased with the showing thus far made. The Bank has been and will continue to be a large asset for the parish of West Feliciana. It is a local institution, meeting the requirements of an enlightened community. It also carries its part of the cost of government by paying licenses and taxes. Does the bank or banker with whom you do business help pay the expenses of running the parish of West Feliciana and the town of St. Francisville? Every dollar made out of your business by an outside bank is a dollar lost to our community.

If you have not already opened an account with the "home bank," you are respectfully invited to do so now. We believe that if you will become better acquainted with us you will soon learn to trust us.
