DEATH OF MRS. IRA MCGEEHEE.

The remains of Mrs. Betty Ward McGehee, who died in Leland on January 2, were brought to Woodville and interred on Tuesday morning in the family burial ground on Bowling Green plantation. The deceased, who was the widow of the late Ira Edward McGehee, was a former resident of Wilkinson county, where she had many distant relatives.--Woodville Republican.

The A. S. Tomb Drug Co. of Jackson and the Covington Bank and Trust Co. of Covington have each favored us with beautiful calendars.

On account of bad weather and other circumstances, the Odd Fellows abandoned the idea of a supper last Wednesday night.

A FAIR DEAL.

The charge is frequently made that New Orleans commission merchants are not fair in their dealings with truckers, and that the latter's experiences not only make New Orleans objectionable as a market, but discourage trucking in general. Mr. Peter Trocchiano, a merchant of St. Francisville, has laid on our desk some interesting data as proof to the contrary, showing that at a time when the local market was paying only half as much, a certain New Orleans firm of wholesale grocers, without solicitation or influence exercised, paid good prices for sweet potatoes and hay. Mr. Trocchiano says he had no interest in either shipment, but made them solely to oblige a customer, and that the latter was highly pleased with results. We do not give the name of the New Orleans firm, not merely on account of the advertisement, but to avoid partiality, as there are surely other firms as liberal in their dealings, as the one our home merchant knows.

The Farnbacher Dry Goods Co. of Baton Rouge has sent us a large photo of the scene at the time when their prize automobile was awarded. The street was blocked in every direction, and the street cars were unable to make a passage along their tracks. A negro woman won the prize. It is reported that she sold the car and made a payment on her home--much wiser in this respect than many white people, who mortgage their home to buy a car.

Grace Church choir is rehearsing a play to be given in February, the proceeds being devoted to the purchase of new hymn books. Mrs. Maguire and Miss Leila Golsan are in charge of the play.

ST. FRANCISVILLE LYCEUM COURSE

Third No., Monday, Jan. 17

GILBERT ATLEE ELDREDGE
Costumed Character Sketches and Impersonations.

PATHETIC, DRAMATIC, HUMOROUS, SENTIMENTAL

Mr. Eldredge presents a widely varied, artistic, and popular repertoire of costumed interpretations of a high order, changing quickly from humorous to pathetic and from dramatic to sentimental representations. Mr. Eldredge stands today one of the most practically certain attractions on the platform. During the last thirteen years he has filled more than twenty-five hundred engagements. Mr. Eldredge is in line with the tendency of his time, and is ever on the alert to meet the demands of the public for generous, clean and thoroughly satisfying amusements. His line of work reaches all classes, from those who like the subtle humor of good old "David Harum" to the tragedy of "Julius Caesar."

WAKEFIELD.

Louise and Edward Jackson returned home last Saturday, after spending two weeks in New Orleans visiting relatives.

Messrs. Ed and Jim Murphy have returned from a visit in New Orleans.

Miss Clotele Bahm was absent from school a part of last week on account of a second attack of grippe.

Mr. F. D. Terry is moving his family to New Orleans, this week. They will be very much missed at Wakefield.

The School Improvement League had a meeting last Friday. They meet the first Friday of each month.

The average of the Wakefield school for the third month was 91.7%.

AUTO TRIP TO BOGALUSA.

Mr. Harry Daniel and his mother, Mrs. E. I. Daniel, returned Monday from a trip to Bogalusa in their Ford car. They left here on Thursday of last week, making the trip via Slaughter, Greenville, Greensburg and Franklinton. The roads in general were good, only a few bad mudholes were encountered, and these were principally in Tangipahoa between Greensburg and Franklinton. The return trip was made, Monday, leaving Bogalusa after seven o'clock, and arriving here about five, making several short stops en route. The distance covered is estimated at 150 miles. They used 15 gallons of gasoline, but this included some side trips to Poplarville, Miss., and other points. They had two punctures, due to badly covered culverts. The weather was delightful for the excursion. The West Feliciana colony at Bogalusa, A. W. Ard and family and Chas. E. Percy and family, were well and happy. Mrs. Ard's health has materially improved since her illness last year.

This trip will encourage others to make longer cross country rides.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

The rank of the high school classes for those receiving no demerits are: First, eleventh grade; second, tenth grade; third, eighth grade; fourth, ninth grade.

Miss Fulton has recovered from her spell of grippe. She was absent two days. Mr. Mervin Taylor substituted the first day and Miss Belle Barrow the second.

Those receiving no demerits in the seventh grade are Marion Tempel and Belle Tooran.

The honor roll in Miss Turnley's room is: Third grade, Mamie Rettig, Mary Ellis, Sunshine Lejeune; fourth grade, Lucille Barrow, Sally Thoms, Theresa Irvine, Dorothea Schlessinger, Ellis Ellis, Mary Brady, Henrietta Hadden.

The sand table in Mrs. Crump's room is fixed as an Eskimo village. The little folks are making booklets about the Eskimos.

The boys are making a giant stride.

An interesting land deal early last week was the sale of 800 acres of Ellerslie plantation, West Feliciana, to Mr. Edward Percy for $12,000.

HAPPY NEW YEAR

Nineteen Hundred Fifteen, with its joys, pleasures, hardships, pains, failures and successes, has passed and the hand of time has securely fastened the page into the annals of history.

Nineteen Hundred Sixteen has started its course with anticipations of all the good things offered by the year just gone, even greater successes hoped for, the realization of which depends largely upon the measure we make. May you all make the measure and attain, if not all, the greater part of all things hoped for in Nineteen Hundred Sixteen is our New Year's wish.

In the beginning of this year we want to call your attention to the excellent facilities offered by this institution in a banking way and to place at your disposal that service which we have always given our depositors, the kind which facilitates, accommodates, and, above all, PROTECTS.

BE A WEST FELICIANIAN.
