

BANKRUPT SALE

THOUSANDS of people are expected to attend this First Bankrupt Sale to take place in the City of Winnfield, La. Tremendous preparations are now being made, and this event promises to be Winnfield's greatest attraction to all classes of people.

Commences 9:15 a. m. Wednesday, February 2, and Closes Saturday, February 19, 1910

Entire stock of merchandise for men, women and children thrown on the market regardless of former cost or value.

Necessity Knows No Law Having been appointed assignees of the Famous stock, Winnfield, La., K. & I. Shoe Co. and The Merit Cloak and Suit Co. of Cincinnati, Ohio, will dispose of this entire high grade and up-to-date stock at retail at Bankrupt Sale. Every article of merchandise and fixtures must be sold and disposed of within sixteen days, to comply with the orders of the consignment—Sale taking place at the Famous old stand, Winnfield, La. Former Manager of The Famous, J. Isralsky, was not in circumstances to pay his liabilities, and, rather than go to court, he has turned over his entire stock of merchandise to his creditors, but under one condition—that the stock must be sold at retail to the public, at Bankrupt Sale. He claims that it is due to the public to give them the opportunity of the greatest values that ever were known in the history of Winnfield merchandising annals.

Bear in Mind That this is not a so-called special sale, money raising sale or going out of business sale. This is a bona fide sale at which the stock must and will be sold. It doesn't matter what the result may be, as the K. & I. Shoe Co. and the Merit Cloak and Suit Co. have been appointed, by the rest of his creditors, as assignees, to dispose of the Famous entire stock. They will make all efforts to sell it. The stock will positively be sold for less than half of its value. Such an opportunity you have never had and never will again. This is the misfortune of Mr. J. Isralsky, former manager of The Famous, and it's our loss but it's your gain. The stock is new and up-to-date. It is mostly early spring goods. A few winter goods on hand which it will pay you to buy now, for next fall, at these prices.

Conditions of This Sale: No goods exchanged whatever, nor taken back. Every article in the house will be marked in plain figures. Positively one price to all. No exceptions made. No goods will be sent out on approval under any circumstances.

Notice: Being strangers in your town, we have employed J. Isralsky, former manager of this store, to conduct and manage this BANKRUPT SALE. Sale takes place Wednesday, February 2nd, 9:15 A. M., Sharp, and will continue until Saturday, Feb. 19. Remember the place and date. The Famous' old stand.

This is merely to give you an idea of our prices. To quote everything we would need a twelve-page paper, so call and see for yourself.

Notice to the Public: J. J. Isralsky, former manager of The Famous, extend a cordial invitation to the people of Winn and adjoining parishes to come and see me once more. I certainly advise the public to take advantage of this BANKRUPT SALE. When I turned my stock over to my creditors they were going to ship that stock to Cincinnati, but as I appreciate the large patronage given me here in the past, I induced them to sell this stock at retail at Bankrupt Sale. As I knew the stock would not bring much under the hammer, so I advised them to favor me and give the benefit to the people of Winn Parish and adjoining parishes. I know that I am due that to the people, and you are surely going to get the benefit of it. You can depend on what I tell you. There was no sale ever conducted in Winnfield, by me or any other concern, to compare in prices with this sale. A comparison would be ridiculous. Don't delay, but be here on time, as the assignees only wanted to give this sale for one week, but, at my request, I got it for sixteen days and I, myself, don't believe that the stock will last over one week, so you had better come at once. Thanking you all for the past favors, hoping to see you for the last time at our Bankrupt Sale. (Signed) J. ISRALSKY, Former Manager of The Famous.

BEWARE! CAUTION! Before you enter the building, see that you are in the right place. Look for the sign, Bankrupt Sale.
