THE CITY PRIMARY ELECTION

The Primary for Selecting Democratic Candidates for City Officers Was Held and the Candidates Chosen---The Official Figures.

The primary for city officers was held last Tuesday and the candidates chosen without a second primary being necessary. There was considerable feeling displayed over one office as the day wore on, but the rivalry was in a rather friendly spirit and no personalities were indulged. The office of marshal was warmly contested and was anybody's race all day. The defeated candidate has no cause for chagrin as his vote proved that his former record on the force was appreciated.

The ticket chosen seems to give satisfaction and will be triumphantly elected. Following is the official count:

FOR MAYOR.

W. E. Cooper	112
S. J. Harper	85

FOR MARSHAL.

J. J. Jayne	97
Charles Felix	78

FOR ALDERMEN.
(Vote for five)

Chas. L. Jones	121
J. M. Hyde	115
J. W. Boyett, Jr.	113
C. H. Elliott	12
J. B. Mathews	105
W. T. Orr	90
H. H. Long	88
W. F. Dickerson	74

McDonald--Wagner.

MARRIED: At the Methodist Church in Winnfield, at 8:30 p. m., Mr. A. LAWSON MCDONALD and Mrs. EVA S. WAGNER, Rev. J. D. Harper officiating.

This wedding has been the social topic for several weeks but the date was a profound secret until yesterday when the news leaked out.

At the close of the prayer service last night, Bro. Harper announced that the marriage service would be held. Besides the attendants on the prayer meeting a few relatives and friends who had been invited, were present.

Miss Audie Williams presided at the organ and played the wedding march as the bridal couple, unattended, entered the church and took place in front of the altar, when Rev. Harper pronounced the words which made them man and wife.

The bride was costumed in an elegant dress of some creamy stuff (name to us unknown) but she looked sweet and modest as she took the vows which bound her to her manly spouse.

After the service a few relatives and friends accompanied them to the bride's parents' home where a post nuptial luncheon was spread and good wishes showered on the happy couple.

They will occupy their home on Clay street and be at home to their friends after to-day. THE COMRADE wishes them a happy and prosperous voyage on the matrimonial sea.

W. C. T. U.

On next Monday evening at the court house, Mrs. Mary Harris Armor, of Georgia, will address the people of Winnfield on the temperance question. Read what one man says of her:

"And there was one, a Southern woman, a Georgia woman, who addressed the vast convention. She was a small woman, quick of movement, a bundle of nerves. She was a live wire. . . . One time she was an intellectual termagant engaged in denunciatory dehortation, again she was an Esther pleading passionately for her people; again she was a Joan of Arc, calling on her countrymen to arise, buckle on the bayonet and defend themselves. She was eloquent, tragic, formidable; now a cyclone in petticoats with a voice of thunder, now moving about with serpentine graciosity and pleading in the most dulcet and tender tones. She ran the entire gamut from an insidious humor that would steal a smile from the lips of grief to a malevolent and objurgatory tirade against her pet enemy that was marvelous in its rhetorical copiousness and intensity."—W. M. Connally in Elkdom, writing of the National W. C. T. U. Convention in Nashville, Tenn.

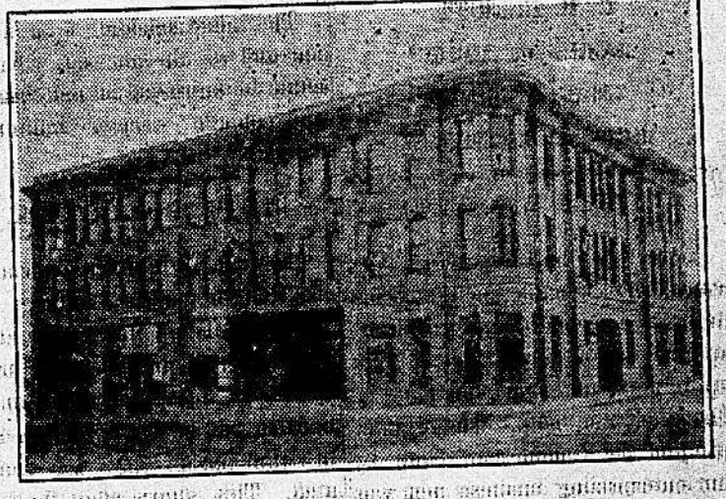
HOTEL COLVIN CHANGES HANDS

H. H. Burnett, Formerly of the T. P. A. Hotel in Alexandria, Becomes the Purchaser and Has Taken Charge of Property.



Last Monday a deal was made through the J. D. Pace real estate agency whereby Mr. J. A. Colvin disposed of his fine new hotel on Main street, Mr. H. H. Burnett of the T. P. A. Hotel in Alexandria, becoming the purchaser.

In the deal Mr. Colvin acquired the T. P. A. Hotel property in Alexandria and Mr. W. C. Colvin, his son, has gone there to take charge.

Mr. Burnett has secured as manager of the City Hotel Col. F. S. Vincent, who managed the Alexandria hotel for him. The Colonel has had a large experience in the hotel business and few men have a larger acquaintance among the traveling public. His courteous treatment of guests and his able management for their comfort has made him a prime favorite. He and his gracious lady will find a warm welcome in the hearts of our people.

Mr. and Mrs. Burnett and their charming daughters will make their home among us and are already known to many of our people. Mr. Burnett has many business interests in this section, and while much of his time will be spent in looking after them, his home will be here.

To offset this gain we will lose W. C. Colvin and his charming wife and baby, as they will go to Alexandria.

We are consoled in that Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Colvin and their charming daughters will still remain with us, as we are informed he will go into business here as soon as his affairs are settled.

The City Hotel is one of the finest in this section of the South—in fact, with the exception of the Bentley in Alexandria, we do not think it has an equal. It has been said that it was too large for the town, but we are going to grow to its size and that right soon.

To our new citizens we extend a hearty welcome from all our people, and like old Rip Van Winkle, "May you live long and prosper."

SOCIAL TWENTY

Entertainment at the Charming Home of Mrs. W. E. Heard.

One of the prettiest affairs of the season was the Social Twenty meeting held on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. E. Heard on Main street. Forty-two was the game of the afternoon. For the occasion the house was beautifully decorated. Trailing vines of Southern smilax and running ferns, intermingled with hearts suspended from the chandelier and garlanding the walls, prettily suggested the coming of St. Valentine.

After the game a dainty two course luncheon, consisting of chicken salad, olives, pickles, heart-shaped sandwiches and coffee, heart-shaped cream with Cupid cake, was faultlessly served to Mesdames Campbell, Crozier, Carpenter, Dudeley, DeLoach, J. R. Heard, McGinty, Neill, Winloch, Sless, Nelson, Pace, Hart, Taylor, Godfrey, Scott, Misses Belle and Corinne Milburn, Peters, Dean, Tannehill and Heard of Ruston.

The Club prize, a pair of handsomely embroidered pillow cases the handiwork of the admirable hostess, fell to Mrs. Winloch. The finest prize, one of Harrison Fisher's pretty drawings, went to Miss Belle Milburn.

A Surprise (?) Party.

Last Saturday evening a merry crowd gathered at the elegant home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Gibbs. This was intended for a "storm party," but "somebody told," so it did not surprise the host and hostess so very much. The evening was spent in games and music. Mr. Gibbs rendered some excellent banjo solos, which were greatly appreciated and enjoyed. Mrs. Gibbs and daughter, Miss Nellie, treated the company to some exquisite piano and violin solos. Fruit of all kinds were served. Those present were Misses Effie Shaw, Ottis Barnes, Lillian Hearn, Blanche Jones, Rossie Colvin; Messrs. Morrell Milburn, Herbert Robinson, Clabe Terrill, Aubry Orr, Alva Hearn. They, each, and every one pronounced it as being one of the most enjoyable evenings of their lives.

Mr. and Mrs. Gamble Entertain.

On last Sunday Hon. and Mrs. H. P. Gamble entertained Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Peddie, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Moore, Misses Nettie Barnhain and Bettie Huey at dinner.

THE FENCE PAID FOR

Now Let Us Clean Up Our "Silent City."

The Memorial Association met at the Opera House Tuesday, Feb. 8th. Mr. Henning, proprietor of the Alexandria Steam Marble Works, met with the Association and proposed to take one hundred and fifty dollars cash, for the remaining six hundred still due on cemetery fence. Having only one hundred and twelve dollars in the treasury, Mr. J. R. Heard, city clerk, kindly came to the assistance of the Association and arranged with Bank of Winnfield to furnish the remaining amount of thirty-eight dollars, thereby enabling us to settle the debt. Now that the cemetery fence is fully paid for, the work of cleaning and beautifying the cemetery will be taken up.

For that purpose a public cleaning is to be held at the cemetery Saturday, Feb. 12. Every man, woman and child in Winnfield is invited to come Saturday morning with rakes, hoes, axes and brooms to clean the cemetery. If you cannot come don't fail to send some one in your place.

Remember that there will be a meeting of the Association at the Opera House, Tuesday, Feb. 15th, for the purpose of electing officers and planning work for improving the condition of the cemetery. A full attendance is desired.

Respectfully,
MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION.

A Warning.

Conductor J. W. Dixon, of the C. R. I. & P. Ry., desires us to state that boys are getting in the habit of jumping on and off the noon passenger train daily while making turns on the "Y," and that this practice is dangerous, for some day someone will either lose a leg or get killed. Parents should warn their boys of this dangerous practice. The railroad company will not be held responsible for their boys' carelessness in case of an accident or death. The City Council should pass an ordinance prohibiting this practice, as other towns and cities have such an ordinance in force.

U. D. C's.

William Walker Chapter, U. D. C., will meet with Mrs. S. S. Godfrey next Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 16th at 3:30 o'clock. A full attendance is earnestly desired.

MRS. A. E. NELSON, Pres.
MRS. S. S. GODFREY, Sec'y.

The Minstrels.

The Minstrel show at the Opera House under the direction of Miss Lucile Gibson was quite a success, the sum of nineteen dollars being realized from same.

The rendering of the program was only another testimonial of the ability of Miss Gibson.

We extend our thanks to her for the interest shown in the work for the cemetery. We also extend our thanks to the public for their patronage. The Memorial Association.

Big Turnips.

J. W. Boyett has on exhibition at his store two monster turnips grown by Leon Holmes at Georgetown, Grant Parish. One of the purple top variety weighs 8 1-4 pounds. The other is a ruta bage and weighs 15 pounds. Mr. Holmes writes that he can deliver a car load of them. Who can beat them?

Remember Boyett handles his stuff in car lots, therefore can sell as cheap as anybody.

It has been Positively Established that

Lime Acts as a Fertilizer

Try a few sacks of this lime in your garden. The old method of applying lime by taking lump lime and piling it in heaps over the field and leaving it there until it air-slakes, is a very expensive and wasteful one. By using the Snow Drift Hydrated Lime which comes in uniform packages, is absolutely pure and full strength with all impure matter removed, you can figure out exactly what you are doing and can distribute it in an accurate and uniform manner.

Give this a Trial

We can Furnish You Lime in Barrels or Sacks

We have just received a car of Snow Drift Hydrated Lime and have had a part of this car put up in 40 pound sacks so that we may be able to furnish our customers with a small amount.
