WINNFIELD, LOUISIANA, FRIDAY, AUGUST 19, 1910.

NUMBER 20

Let in the Sunlight.

Suppose you knew a man who kept his shades drawn tight all day and burned kerosene instead of letting in the sunlight;

Suppose you knew a man toiling along a dusty road who would not accept a lift—when there was plenty of room in the wagon;

Suppose you knew a miller—With his mill built beside a swift-running stream—who insisted on turning the machinery by hand.

All foolish, you say? And yet look around you—how few retailers take advantage of the great advertising campaigns run by food, textile, cloth and every other manufacturing line that you can name!

Think a moment! What was the last advertisement you read and wondered just which store in town would be progressive enough to have the goods in stock so you could see them—and purchase?

More goods are sold under the evening lamp at home than you dream of. Practically every live retailer advertises in his local paper. But how?

Put up your lightning rod! Let your customers know that you can deliver to them the goods which great advertising, paid for by manufacturers has interested them in.

They will get the habit—and you will get the business.

Practically every manufacturer stands ready to help you help yourself. Ask them for electrotypes suitable to run in your advertising. Hook your trademark to your store.

Consumers' demand for advertised goods is now divided broadcast among all the stores in town.

Use your advertising in local papers to focus this demand upon your store. And don't forget to send for those helpful electrotypes.

Read this again for it means money to you.—Ruston Leader.

Don't Like Dixie.

Senator W. B. Heyburn, of Idaho, dislikes "Dixie."

He created a sensation at a reception given to Congressman T. R. Hamer at Wallace, Idaho, by stopping the orchestra while the musicians were playing the popular strains. Colonel Hamer had just finished his address and the orchestra had started a medley of well-known airs.

About the sixth number in the medley was "Dixie." The senator leaped to his feet, strode across to the musicians and cried out:

"This is a Republican meeting. We want no such tunes here."

The amazed musicians stopped immediately. The senator strode back to his seat. After a moment of silence Mayor Hanson arose and closed the meeting.

Today the north bound passenger train on the Rock Island road had attached to it a special car which had streamers hanging from each side of it announcing that it was the car of the Haag Investment Company. The streamers also announced that Louisiana is the richest and best state to live in the union.—Ruston Leader.

Rock Island Officials.

Three special cars came in last Monday over Rock Island and were switched on to the Tremont & Gulf. The cars carried railroad officials, and we learn they were on a tour of inspection.

T. & G. News.

In a recent number of the Ruston Leader a meeting of the stockholders of the Tremont & Gulf Railway is called to meet at Tremont on September 10th to increase the capital stock and amend their charter.

The Cool North.

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. O'Laughlin, who are on a summer vacation in the Great Lakes region have remembered The Comrade with cards showing points of interest along their route. We thank our young friends for their thoughtful kindness and wish them a most delightful trip.

Water Works Extension.

The mains for extending the water works are being laid by C. H. Elliott, who has charge of the work, and he expects to have the works completed as rapidly as possible. Chief Gibbs will have new fire stations located and equipped at once. It is to be hoped that the insurance rates may then be reduced.

The Hardwood Mill.

A recent visit to the Hardwood Mill of the Mansfield Hardwood Company shows that it is rapidly nearing completion. The frame work is finished and the machinery is being installed. J. D. Pace has the derrick and apparatus at work boring a deep well. It will begin active operations about September 1st. Its pay roll will add greatly to the prosperity of our town.

Biggest Thing in Town.

The biggest thing in our town is the Creosote plant. They have a little city of their own down there. The principal things manufactured now are paving blocks for which they have large orders, cross arms for telegraph and telephone service and piling for bridge work is extensively engaged in. They have a saw mill, planing mill, a 100 foot and 60 foot creosote cylinders and a fine commissary. It will pay you to visit this hive of industry.

Mrs. Hyde Dies.

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Hyde, mother of our townsman N. M. Hyde, with her granddaughter, Mrs. Essie Wardlow, and her baby were out riding at Montgomery in Grant Parish. The horses became frightened and ran away, turning the buggy over. Mrs. Hyde suffered a fracture of the skull which resulted in her death Wednesday. Mrs. Wardlow and her child were not injured. Mrs. Hyde was buried in the family burying ground at Colfax yesterday. She was well known here where many relatives reside. The Comrade mourns with them in their hour of bereavement.

Child Dies.

Byrdnie Elizabeth, the 3-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ole Matheson, died Wednesday afternoon, the immediate cause of its death being membranous croup. The remains were laid to rest in the city cemetery Thursday morning. Mr. Matheson was in California at the time of his child's death and it was impossible for him to return in time to attend the funeral. The Comrade extends its sympathy to the bereaved parents in their hour of sorrow.

Clyde and Edna McDonald have just returned from Saline, La., where they have been visiting their uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. C. T. McDonald, for the past ten days. They report quite a good time.

J. R. Heard, cashier of the Bank of Winnfield, accompanied by his sister, Miss Margie Heard of Bernice, left Wednesday for New Orleans, where Miss Margie goes to have her eyes treated by a specialist.

Cuts and bruises may be healed in about one-third the time required by the usual treatment by applying Chamberlain's Liniment. It is an antiseptic and causes such injuries to heal without maturation. This liniment also relieves soreness of the muscles and rheumatic pains. For sale by all dealers.

Seeing is believing, but there are some things you ought to believe that you do not see, one is that if your eyes are weak you need glasses and Whitley & Thomas can fit you up with the best glasses at the lowest price.

Miss Janie Cole returned yesterday afternoon from a trip to St. Louis, where she went to buy fall and winter goods for the store of C. B. Cole & Co. The customers of that popular firm will have a most varied and select stock to make their selection from when the goods arrive.

H. C. Thomas, junior member of the Whitley & Thomas Drug Company, is spending the week in Little Rock, where he is buying a large line of fall stationery and school supplies for their store here and their Dodson store also. During Mr. Thomas' absence J. D. B. Grieg, an experienced and practical druggist of New Orleans, is filling his place as dispensing pharmacist.

I have bought some shoes cheap and will sell them the same way. Come and see. W. F. Dickerson Shoe Store.

Another Burglary.

This city was again visited by a gang of thieves at about 1:30 o'clock Tuesday night when the stores of S. J. Harper, Peoples' Hardware & Furniture Co., and O'Quin & Gibson Dry Goods Company were broken into.

Entrance into Harper's store was effected through a large transom on the second floor and only $1.25 was taken from the cash drawer. Mr. Harper could not ascertain as to what goods were stolen.

The Peoples' Hardware & Furniture Company's store was entered by breaking open the back door. On investigation four fine pistols were found missing and $1 in loose change from the cash drawer, but the proprietors do not know of anything else being taken.

The thief entered the store of O'Quin & Gibson by removing the skylight and jumping down about fifteen feet on some dry goods on a table. In this store the thief consumed considerable time in selecting certain articles to suit himself, as indicated by almost everything in the store being upset. About $50 worth of dry goods had been selected and arranged to be taken away when he was discovered by some boys, who gave the alarm.

At this moment the robber made a bold dash through the front door. In his flight he was fired at three times by Turner Machen, a restaurant keeper, but it is not known whether he was hit or not. Only $1.50 in money was taken from the cash drawer.

The L. & A. depot was also entered about the same hour, by breaking the sash and turning the fastener. The cash drawer was broken open, but as it contained no money, the thief got nothing.

This is the second robbery to occur in Winnfield within three weeks, the first stores being robbed were W. A. Mashaw, the jeweler, who lost $40 in cash, and S. J. Harper, who returned in time to prevent anything being taken away. His store was again broken into Tuesday night.

It is believed that this second robbery was perpetrated by the same gang who operated here three weeks ago. The police department is making every effort to apprehend the thief or thieves and hopes to capture them before long.

J. W. S. C.

A number of the girls of our city have organized a Jenny Wren Sewing Club.

The first meeting was held at the home of Annie and Nita DeLoach on August 4, 1910, at 3:30 p. m. The second meeting was held with Mabel McGinty on August 17 at 3:30 p. m. Delicious refreshments were served at both meetings. The members are learning to embroider. A meeting will be held every two weeks.

The members are Nita DeLoach, Alice and Florence Wright, Chlotilde and Estelle Siess, Mabel McGinty, Esther Robinson and Bettie Toddlie. Mrs. I. T. DeForest is the directress. The next meeting will be held with Chlotilde Siess, September 1, at 3:30 p. m. All members are expected to be present.

At Camp Meeting.

A merry crowd left here last Sunday Morning, bound for Hudson to enjoy not only a long ride through the pine forest of Winn but to attend camp meeting. The crowd consisting of some of the young people of the town took their dinner with them which they certainly enjoyed, indeed some declared that "so abundant had been the chicken and so jolly the crowd until they could hardly keep from flying."

While they were prevented from enjoying the morning service, because of the length of the drive, they found the afternoon hour very interesting and instructive. Then too the young people found a congenial crowd from Dodson who joined forces with them in an exploring expedition over the Hudson school campus and buildings. So interested were the young people in the surroundings and so pleasantly was the time passing until they, forgetful of the hour, found that they had stayed longer than had been their intention. Therefore, night overtook them on their return. This, however, did not prevent them from enjoying their homeward journey since the moonlight flooded the woods.

May it again be our pleasure to spend a day with these young people who leave nothing unturned in their efforts to make all spend a happy day.

Those who enjoyed the trip were Misses Clyde Bozeman, Katie Lee White, Estelle Tannehill, Lorena Walker, Laura Wasson, Clyde Long, Katherine VanDyke, Nancy Long, Audie Williams, Vivian Holt; Messrs. Luther Moore, Morrell Milburn, Averett Watts, Thos. Randle and Chas. Smith.

Giant Corn.

Last week our friend M. C. Bagwell, who has a farm east of town, brought us a fine melon, and some samples of a new kind of corn he is raising. The corn is called the white giant and the name is not at all deceptive. The ears shown us were over a foot long and larger than a man's arm. The grains were more than twice as large as the ordinary corn. He has half an acre in this corn and is selling it for seed at 10 cents an ear. All who see the corn are anxious to secure the seed.

Mr. P. C. Taylor.

The Comrade received a pleasant and appreciated call from this gentleman this week. He has purchased the Alexandria Marble Works and is now running it as the Alexandria Marble Mfg. Co. The plant is well equipped with modern appliances and he is prepared to furnish first-class grave stones, monuments and fences for your dead loved ones. Read his card in this paper.

Off for St. Louis.

A. T. Drewett, manager of the Grand Leader Dry Goods Co., will leave Monday for St. Louis and the eastern markets to select the fall and winter stock for his company. This is Aaron's first trip since he became manager and his customers will look for something extra. He is "on to his job," and will doubtless make good.
