

Presbyterian Ladies' Aid Society.

This society met at the home of Mrs. J. R. Gibbs Monday afternoon, August 22nd and took up their regular study of missionary work.

Mrs. Martin gave an interesting talk on mission work. Mrs. A. G. Scott dwelt at length on mission work in Africa.

Mesdames L. E. DeLoach, W. E. Heard, I. E. Siess and Chas. Johnson read interesting selections from "Uganda's White Man of Work."

After the regular order of business had been gone through with, Mrs. Gibbs and her daughter, Nellie, served delicious ice cream and cake, and all resolved that it could not have come at a more opportune moment. The society is now being strengthened by quite a number of new members and the meetings are always deeply interesting and well attended. Monday was one of the hottest days of the season but this did not keep many away, and those who attended did not regret doing so. Those who attended were Mesdames A. G. Scott, W. E. Heard, L. E. DeLoach, Wade Long, Chas. Johnson, I. E. Siess, Harvey Weeks, Martin, Welsh, Wiggins, Woods, H. R. Moore, Cyrus McGinty, Novitski; Misses Ida Mae Wiggins, Eleanor Ewing, Belva Roberts.

The next meeting will be held in the afternoon of the third Monday in September at the home of Mrs. A. G. Scott. All are cordially invited to attend and bring a new member.

Died.

On Friday, August 19, at 7 a. m. the death angel visited the happy home of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Wallace and took away their darling baby, Ida Mae, the joy and sunshine of their home. She was born January 17, 1910, and died August 19, age 7 months and 2 days.

During her short life she was never ill until a few days before her death. After suffering four days, she passed away and was laid to rest in the Mars Hill cemetery. She always wore a sweet smile, which will be sadly missed; and the home has lost a precious treasure which can never be replaced. It was hard to give up the little darling, but, "The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away. Blessed be the name of the Lord."

Weep not, dear parents, for your darling,
A precious gift to you was given;
Although her days with you were few,
She budded on earth to bloom in heaven.

Yes, she has gone not to return;
And is a shining star on your way.
So live a life that's humble,
And you can go to her some day.

Her aunt and cousin,
IDA AND MAE.

Church Announcements.

There will be preaching in the Methodist Protestant Church by the pastor, Rev. D. H. Kirkpatrick, Sunday, August 28, at 11 a. m. and 8:00 p. m. Sunday School 9:45 a. m. and prayer meeting on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. The public is invited to attend these services.

A Hay Ride.

A decided monotony breaker was pulled off last Saturday night when a crowd of young men endeavored to entertain a crowd of "fair ones" on a hay-ride to the Natatorium. Two large wagons were brought forth to accommodate the combined forces, and even then, space enough to exist safely was a thing greatly in demand. After an hour spent at the pool which seemed to be enjoyed immensely, the crowd journeyed homeward, and, on reaching town, anchored at Drewett's Confectionery, where refreshments were served. With renewed energy, the town was then thoroughly "worked" for another hour, during which time the people were treated to several vocal selections of various kinds, rendered in such manner that they have possibly been equaled but never surpassed by a hay-riding crowd. Having grown tired of this sort of amusement, they were then ushered into the new City Cafe where iced melons were served most recklessly. Those participating on this occasion were: Misses Ottilie Barnes, Mabel and Sanna Handy, Clara and Callie Long, Coriue Milburn, Ethel Burnette, Alma Wright, Ella Ewing, Della and Elvie Fisher, Vivian Holt, Nettie Wright, Hilton Toy; Messrs. A. L. Smith, A. P. Tugwell, Willie Walker, Ham, Slaton, M. F. Myers, Jack Wallace, J. L. Tugwell, James Wright, Hasson Barnes, Simms Nettles, Roy Wright, Frank Grigsby, Mahlon Durham, and Dr. A. W. Radescich and wife, chaperones.

A Melon Party.

Thursday evening of last week Miss Katharine VanDyke entertained a crowd of her friends at a melon party given in honor of her guest, Miss Edna Turlerville of Minden. Every one arrived with cheery, smiling faces, ready for the fun. The hall, porch and lawn were beautifully lighted with Japanese lanterns, making it as bright as day. Plans were not carried out as expected on account of quite a shower of rain about arriving time. But it soon cleared off and the fun continued.

Parlor games were played until all the guests arrived, after which games on the lawn took place, which was enjoyed by all. The greatest pleasure being the President Contest which caused excitement for both old and young, Mr. E. J. Bobbett being the lucky one, winning the first prize, a large white silk handkerchief. Then came the fun of the melon cutting. Then songs and speaking took place, after which all the guests made their departure, announcing Miss Katharine an ideal entertainer.

Rains Interfere.

Supt. C. H. Elliott, of the water works, states, that the recent rains have interfered to some extent with the work of extending the mains of the water works, the ditches being filled knee-deep with water. He says he expects to finish the work by the end of this week unless more rains occur. Prior to the wet weather the work had been moving along nicely.

Home Again.

R. R. Gibson, manager of the O'Quin & Gibson dry goods store, returned this week from St. Louis, where he, assisted by Miss Mary Hall, bought a mammoth stock of fall and winter dress goods, notions, furnishings, etc. These goods are arriving daily and the public is cordially invited to call and examine them. It means something when Mr. Gibson goes to the market to buy goods and his customers may look for the latest and best creations in all lines.

Bad Negro Shot.

Last Wednesday night Deputy Sheriffs J. R. Cupp and Ed Crawford went out on a T. & G. motor car to do some criminal work up the road. While they were at the motor-car house, preparing to go out they heard shots near by and went to investigate. A negro by the name of Ed Postell was found shooting into a negro house about fifty yards from them, and Deputy Crawford went to arrest him. He made fight and retreated behind the corner of a house and fired two shot at him. Deputy Cupp then shot the negro hitting him with thirteen buckshot. Crawford fired once with a pistol but missed him. The negro is reported dangerously wounded, but it is thought he will recover.

An Enjoyable Occasion.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs H. P. Long Thursday evening, Aug. 18th, Woman's Missionary Union of the Baptist Church entertained in honor of Miss Corbitt. An appropriate program was rendered by the members of the society and several young ladies. Punch, cream and cake were served by the following young ladies: Misses Belle and Corinne Milburn, May Tannehill, Nettie and Alma Wright, Clara Long, Clara McGinty, Ella Peters and Vara Durham.

A Cold

Is not necessarily serious, provided it is taken care of. It is frequently the starting point of many dangerous diseases. When it comes use Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar Honey. Look for the bell on the bottle.

Gates-Corley.

On Sunday, August 21, a pretty but quiet wedding occurred at the home of the brides parents in Winnfield, when Miss Indie E. Corley was united in the holy bonds of wedlock to Mr. Luther M. Gates, Rev. Dr. J. R. Edwards of the Baptist Church performed the ceremony in his usual dignified manner. There were many friends present besides relatives.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Corley, of this city, while the bridegroom is a promising young business man of Shreveport, where they will make their future home. The Comrade wishes them much happiness and prosperity.

Delightful Outing.

On Saturday, August 14th, a crowd of Winnfield's young people enjoyed a most delightful outing in the way of a picnic at the Salt Wells, given by Dr. A. W. Radescich and wife in honor of their guests, Misses Sanna and Mabel Handy of Monroe.

The outing necessitates no further mention than to say that the entire day was one of real pleasure, where an abundance of the "goods" of life existed, and all things else were excluded. Those fortunates who are greatly indebted to Doc and Mrs. Radescich, and who join in this expression of their appreciation and the fulness of their gratitude for the many pleasures which will long be remembered are: Misses Sanna and Mabel Handy, Hilton Toy, Nettie Milam, Myrtle Davis, Ottilie Barnes, and Mrs. Barnes; Messrs. Jack Wallace, A. P. Tugwell, Mahlon Durham, Slatou, Thomas, Will Cupp and Hasson Barnes.

Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey
