

Boys Corn Club Contest.

Last spring the Boys Corn Club of Winn Parish was organized by Superintendent J. J. Mixon, the instructions given the boys, seed distributed to them and encouragement to do their best to show what could be done on the hills of Winn parish.

Tuesday the results were shown in the exhibits at the Central High School, when the boys brought in samples for the judges to pass upon.

Below we give a list of the boys who won the prizes. The merchants of Winnfield offered additional prizes to farmers who were not members of the club and many of them took advantage of the offer and brought in fine samples.

A New Brick.

W. M. Milam & Son have removed to the City Hotel block while the contractors are building for them a brick store house on their lot corner of Main and Front streets. The brick will be furnished by the Winnfield Brick works and local contractors will do the building. This is one of the most desirable corners in town, and Milam & Son show good judgment in erecting an up-to-date building on it. We trust their business will be sufficient to reward their public spirit.

Home Mission Entertained.

Mrs. J. T. Wood entertained the Woman's Home Mission Society Friday September 23rd, and as the guests arrived they were served to delicious fruit punch.

No work on hand Mrs. Wood surprised all present by asking questions from the Bible which all entered into and discussed. The hostess was assisted in serving her guests by her daughter Miss Mary to tempting nut salad, olives, pickles, celery, stuffed eggs, saltinas, cream and cake.

Those present and who testified to an enjoyable evening were Rev. and Mrs. Harper, Mesdames Williams, Mixon, Hart, LaCroix, Gibson, Atchinson, Beville, Ham, Neill, Rhoden, and Gullis.

As the hours grew late the guests departed longing for the time to soon return to meet with Mrs. Wood again.
