

THE REPUBLICANS MEET DEFEAT

New York, Massachusetts, Ohio, Connecticut and New Jersey Democratic. Dix's Plurality in New York State is Estimated Sixty Thousand. Foss Swept Republican State of Massachusetts.

Elections held throughout the country Tuesday resulted in a political convulsion of far-reaching effect similar at many points to the famous tidal wave of 1882, and apparently more widespread in its effect.

The indications are that the National House of Representatives had been carried by the Democrats, reversing the present Republican majority of 43.

The Senate will probably have a reduced Republican majority as a result of legislative elections held in many states.

In New York State John A. Dix, Democratic candidate for governor, is elected over Henry L. Stimson, Republican, by a plurality of about 55,000, reversing the Republican plurality of 70,000 in 1908 for Gov. Hughes.

In New Jersey Woodrow Wilson, Democratic candidate for governor, is elected over Vivian M. Lewis, Republican, by about 15,000 plurality, reversing the previous Republican plurality of 8,000 for Governor Fort.

In Massachusetts, Eugene N. Foss, Democratic candidate, has defeated Governor Eben S. Draper, Republican, for re-election by about 40,000 plurality, reversing Governor Draper's former plurality of 8,000.

In Connecticut Judge Simeon E. Baldwin, Democrat, is elected governor over Charles A. Goodwin, Republican, by about 4,000 plurality, reversing the previous Republican plurality of 16,000.

In Ohio Governor Judson Harmon, Democratic candidate for re-election, carried the state over Warren G. Harding, Republican.

In Rhode Island Governor Pothier, Republican candidate for re-election, is elected over Lewis A. Waterman, Democratic candidate, with a plurality much reduced from that of 1909.

In Tennessee, the fusion candidate, Ben W. Hooper, has been elected by 15,000 plurality.

Democratic governors have been elected in Alabama and South Carolina.

In Wisconsin the election of the Republican candidate for governor, Francis E. McGovern, is claimed by a reduced majority, and the return of Senator LaFollette to the United States Senate is assured.

The Shreveport Fair.

Today the most successful state fair ever held in Shreveport closes. Mr. Breuggerhoff, on whose shoulders rested its success or failure, can receive with complacency the congratulations of his friends for his management has been masterly. Our people have attended more largely this year than ever before and all are enthusiastic in their praise of the affair.

Huey Comes Home.

Our young friend Huey Long, who left the home nest last spring to try his fortune in the wide, wide world as a commercial traveler, and who has made good, as we predicted, came home Wednesday to visit his family and friends. He looks fine and received a royal welcome from a host of well wishers, one of whom we are proud to be.

House Party.

Three charming young ladies from Trout, Misses Ana Butler, now attending the Ruston Industrial Institute; Forrest Finley and Dottie Tucker formed part of a jolly house party at the home of Miss Freddie Thomas last Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

A party was given in honor of the pretty young guests and 'altho' the rainy weather was bad, a jolly evening was spent Saturday, Nov. 6th. Games of various sorts were enjoyed and in spite of rain and mud a jolly crowd enjoyed the evening. Refreshments consisting of delicious cake and chocolate, also fudge, were served by the young hostess, assisted by Miss Nancy Long. Those present were: Misses Estelle Tannehill, Clyde Bozeman, Nancy Long, Katie Lee White, Ruby Wasson, Ana Butler, Dottie Tucker, Forrest Finley and Freddie Thomas; Messrs. Murphy Long, Vernon Trice, John Peters, and Aubrey Orr.

Miss Butler left for the Ruston Industrial Institute Sunday afternoon, and Misses Finley and Tucker returned to their homes in Trout late Sunday afternoon.

are desired by every one. If there is any inflammation the eyes can't be beautiful. Sutherland's Eagle Eye Salve will remove the inflammation and clear the eyes.

W. H. M. S.

The Home Mission Society met at the church in a regular business meeting Thursday afternoon Nov. 10. Mrs. Harper presided and led devotional exercises. Song 138, 'I want to go there' was sung. Scripture lesson was taken from the fourteenth chapter of Romans; prayer by leader; second song, 'More about Jesus'; a number of prayers by members. An interesting letter was read from our state president. One new member was added to the roll which makes a total of forty three members. After reports from officers it was suggested that the society begin some kind of work for orphanage at Ruston. Plans were made to have some quilts ready for the little folks real soon and also a thanksgiving box to be sent. No other business, meeting adjourned all repeating the Lord's prayer.

Election in the Parish.

Last Tuesday was a perfect one so far as the weather conditions were concerned, but little interest was manifested in the election, save by a few of our Socialist friends who seemed anxious that their candidate for Congress should make a good showing.

The amendments fared badly at the hands of Winn Parish voters, but three having carried.

Below is a summary, kindly furnished us by P. K. Abel, clerk of the court:

For Congress--Watkins, 333; Grigsby, 125.

For Board of Equalizers--Wallace, 339.

Excelsior Literary Society.

The Excelsior Literary Society held their meeting in Miss Nolen's room and the program intended for Oct. 27 which had been postponed was rendered.

The trial of Mr. Hasson Barnes on the charge of chicken stealing was held and the verdict of the jury was four not guilty against two guilty. The trial resulted in a mistrial to be retried in supreme court.

There were two new members initiated Miss Carrie Lou Walker and Mr. Roger Falette. The following program will be rendered next Friday.

- Roll call, quotations, Whittier.
- Song by Society.
- Reading Veloro Vick.
- Music Lillian Hearn.
- Questions Ruth Milburn.
- Recitation Mattie Hooper.
- Music Lillie Cupp.
- Description Riley Creel.
- Piano Duet Mildred Larrabee and Freddie Thomas.
- Jokes Murphy Long.
- Essay on education Tom Huffman.

The Merchant's Club

Last Friday morning the Business Men's Train from New Orleans arrived at 7 o'clock, over the Valley, on a visit to our town. They marched through the streets, headed by a brass band, to Court Square where an address was delivered and an invitation extended to our business men to accompany them on their train to the Rock Quarry. Many accepted the invitation and were royally entertained by the New Orleans visitors.

The trip will result in a closer relationship between our people and the business men at the "Logical Point."

It was unfortunate that their schedule landed them here at the early breakfast hour and prevented our people from turning out to give them the welcome they deserved.

Come Home to Stay.

Mr. G. W. McElroy who purchased the Shaw place, north of town, last year and who has heretofore rented it out, has returned and will occupy it himself. He will raise poultry, fruits and vegetables for which his place is finely adapted. He is enthusiastic over the prospects for this kind of industry in this section, and we think he is right. Winn parish is sure to become a truck and live stock section in a few years and Winnfield with her railroads will become a noted market for these products.

The Barebacked and Needy.

W. W. Kelley proprietor of the Rouss Furnishing Store, will open next Wednesday the greatest sale ever put on in his store. He calls it the barebacked and needy sale and he proposes to make it the greatest bargain proposition ever offered in Winnfield. Read his add on page 6 of this paper.

Notice.

Let every one remember that the School Improvement League will serve dinner and supper on Friday, Nov. 18th. You can get oysters in any style, salads, coffee, chocolate and cake.

We Take This Method

OF thanking the public for their most liberal patronage afforded us during our Twenty Days Sale.

This was one of the best sales we have ever had, it was indeed beyond our expectations, folks came from miles and miles to partake of the good bargains we had to offer and we attribute it to the fact that What we Advertise to do, We do

Our stock is still complete. New goods are coming in every day for the Holiday Trade. We still give you premiums on every purchase made. Again thanking you we are,

Yours For Business,
