DELAHOUSAYE-FAY.

A pretty wedding of the week and one attracting much interest here was that of Miss Heloise Fay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Fay, of Jeanerette, and Mr. Edward A. Delahoussaye, of Franklin. The wedding took place in Jeanerette at St. John's Evangelist Church Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Father Bardi performing the ceremony.

Dr. Roy Delahoussaye, brother of the groom, was best man and the ushers were Messrs. Arthur Delahoussaye and Theodore Fay. During the signing of the register Miss Eardi Fay sang "Oh Promise Me."

The bride, who was given away by her father, Mr. Joseph Fay, was especially attractive in a dark blue traveling suit, embroidered in blue and trimmed with gray fur. She wore a gray hat of satin and velvet, and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Miss Marie Fay, sister of the bride and her only attendant, wore a pretty gown of gray canton crepe trimmed with gray fur and hat to match. She also carried pink roses.

Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party went to New Iberia in automobiles, and from there the couple left for the west on a short honeymoon trip. The Banner takes pleasure in extending to this charming couple its heartiest congratulations and good wishes for continuous success and happiness during their wedded life.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson T. Peterman and daughters, Misses Margaret, Elizabeth and St. Mary, of Baton Rouge, spent the holidays in Franklin to the delight of their relatives and friends. While here Mrs. Peterman and her daughters were guests at the home of her father, Capt. R. W. Allen, and Mr. Peterman was the guest of Sheriff and Mrs. Charles Pecot.

Miss Maggie Peterman's many friends were pleased to see her home again for the holidays. During her stay here she was a guest at the home of her brother, Mr. James A. Peterman.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Russ, of Baton Rouge, were the guests this week of Mrs. Russ' father, Mr. James Chadwick. Mr. and Mrs. Bailey Chadwick, of Natchez, Miss., also spent the holidays here, guests of Mr. Bailey's father, Mr. James Chadwick.

Misses Louise Delahoussaye, Ella Latham, Mary Louise and Barbara Giles, and Chryssie Schwartz, who are attending Louisiana State Normal, returned for the Christmas holidays.

Miss Gladys Latham, who is teaching in the high school at Welsh, La., this session, spent the holidays here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Latham.

Miss Louise Abel, who is attending the State Normal, is spending the holidays here at the home of her mother, Mrs. C. W. Abel.

Mr. Harold Lowry, of Kansas City, Mo., is the guest of Miss Mildred Kramer.

Miss Elizabeth O'Neill, who is teaching in Eunice this session, spent the holidays here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. O'Neill.

Miss Rhoda Robinson, of Welsh, is the week-end guest of Miss Gladys Latham. They will motor back to Welsh tomorrow.

The Studebaker automobile, which is to be given away by the merchants of Franklin, will be raffled between the 15th and 20th of January. The car will be a 1923 model, the very latest model put out by the Studebaker company.

Mrs. T. Theriot, Mrs. W. G. Brady and Mrs. T. S. McChesney, attended the Delahoussaye-Fay wedding Wednesday. During their stay here they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Delahoussaye.

Mr. George Black, with a party of friends, overturned his car last Sunday night on the model road near Jeanerette, in attempting to avoid running into another automobile. Mr. Black was cut and bruised considerably, but none of the party were seriously hurt.

Dr. Roy Delahoussaye of New Orleans, returned home to spend the holidays and attend the Fay-Delahoussaye wedding.

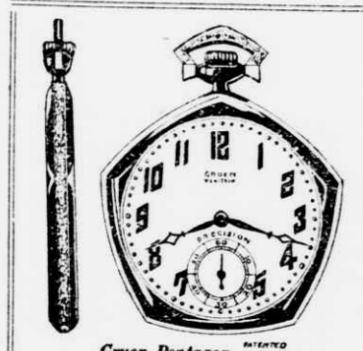

The third of the trappers' days will be January 3, when as on the other occasions, the Chamber of Commerce will arrange to have a number of fur buyers here. Trappers in this section are urged to bring furs to town on that day and secure the benefit of competitive prices.

Misses Nora O'Neill, Amoret Gates, Vera Palfrey, Carrie Rogers, and Ethel Giles, returned from Newcomb College to spend the holidays at home. Messrs. Arthur Delahoussaye, Albert Silverman, Theo Kramer, R. H. Cherry, Pat O'Neill and Hugo Popkin, who are attending the Tulane University, are also spending the Christmas season with their parents.
