

QUIET AT CAPITAL IN SUMMER MONTHS.

(Special Correspondence.)

ADMIRAL and Mrs. Dewey, who for the last three months have been enjoying the quiet of their country home in Woodley Lane, near Washington, have gone to Mount Pocono, Pa. They have secured retired quarters at Hotel Montanessa—away up on side of Bonsall Mountain, a mile in the railway station. The wife of Rear Admiral Robley Evans, who left Washington the 4th of April and went to Japan via Francisco, is now at Hoyo Kwan, Yara, Japan. She sailed from San Francisco on the Gaelic, and stopped days at Honolulu. Mrs. Evans accompanied by her two daughters, C. C. Marsh and Miss Virginia, and also by a niece, and the son of her son, Lieutenant Frank T. At Yokohama the party found little ship Kentucky—Admiral Ev- ingship. The son-in-law, Lieu- Commander Marsh, is on duty East and has a home at Yokoi. During a month's stay in Tokio Evans and her party were pre- sent to the empress, as was also Evans and his staff, his son and the number. A considerable surprise was expressed at Washington over the selection of a lady to christen the warship Pennsylvania. It had been confidently expected that the pretty young daughter of Governor Stone would be christened but instead the honor was con- ferred upon Miss Susan Quay, only daughter of Senator and Mrs. Matthew Quay of Pennsylvania. Miss Quay

Nobody has ever left the diplomatic circle who will be so greatly missed as the wife of Mr. Wu Ting-fang. Many oriental women have resided here for a time and are pleasantly remembered; but none made such an impression on society and so many genuine friends as has tiny Mrs. Wu. Since her husband was accredited here in 1897 she has been a central figure in official life. Very small of stature, with the flat nose, broad cheeks and thin lips of the Mongolian, she is not handsome, according to Western standards, though doubtless in the East she is considered a beauty of the first water. She has soft brown eyes that would grace any face, an expression of dignity and decision of character, and a charming smile, in which the loving kindness of her heart is plainly reflected. She comes from one of the most ancient and honorable families in the Flowery Kingdom, and has the further distinction of pure Chinese blood. Her high rank and origin is indicated in her costume, the gorgeous eagle embroidered on her breast being one of its most important features. It indicates that she is of equal rank with her husband, privileged to enter and leave a room at his side, instead of being compelled to meekly trot behind him, as would be the case were she of lower caste. The beads around her neck have also special significance, and are worn by both men and women in the celestial land to show their station. These necklaces vary with the seasons, jade and coral being adopted for winter and sandal wood for summer. As is

RECORD OF THE PAST.

The best guarantee of the future is the record of the past, and over fifty thousand people have publicly testified that Doan's Kidney Pills have cured them of numerous kidney ills, from common backache to dangerous diabetes, and all the attendant annoyances and sufferings from urinary disorders. They have been cured to stay cured. Here is one case:

Samuel J. Taylor, retired carpenter, residing at 312 South Third St., Goshen, Ind., says: "On the 25th day of August, 1897, I made an affidavit before Jacob C. Mann, notary public, stating my experience with Doan's Kidney Pills. I had suffered for thirty years, and was compelled at times to walk by the aid of crutches, frequently passed gravel and suffered excruciatingly. I took every medicine on the market that I heard about and some gave me temporary relief. I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills and the results I gave to the public in the statement above referred to. At this time, on the 19th day of July, 1902, I make this further statement that during the five years which have elapsed I have had no occasion to use either Doan's Kidney Pills or any other medicine for my kidneys. The cure effected was a permanent one."

A FREE TRIAL of this great kidney medicine which cured Mr. Taylor, will be mailed on application, to any part of the United States. Address Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. For sale by all druggists. Price 50 cents per box.

Instant Relief from Rheumatism and Neuralgia.

Here is a case: Mr. T. Shepherd of Whitburn, Sunderland, Ohio, says: "My wife suffered severely from rheumatism, and neuralgia. She could not get one moment's rest and was nearly crazed with pain. Obtained instant relief and a permanent cure by using the contents of one bottle of St. Jacobs Oil. There is no other remedy in the world that will do this. The instantaneous effect which St. Jacobs Oil produces is a part of its half a century record." St. Jacobs Oil is sold in 25 cts. and 50 cts. sizes by all druggists. The words "Acts like Magic," "Conquers Pain," which have been used in connection with St. Jacobs Oil for more than 50 years are wonderfully and truly descriptive.

STONE IN THE BLADDER. My son has suffered with stone in the bladder eight years. I have taken him to several watering places, also to Cincinnati, New York, Chicago and Nashville, where he was put under eminent physicians, with no improvement; on the contrary, it was gradually getting larger, until I lost all hope of getting him cured, when I was told of Smith's Sure Kidney Cure. I had him try it, and to my surprise he began to improve at once, and he was cured with two bottles. His general health has improved wonderfully. JOHN E. DEDMAN, Memphis, Tenn. Price 50 cents. For sale by all druggists.

Left His Skull as a Legacy. An aged Yorkshireman was so fond of Sir Henry Irving's acting that in his will he said that when he died his body was to be buried headless, and the skull was to be cleaned and mounted, suitably inscribed with a silver inscription and handed to the actor, with the request that it be always used for Yorick's skull in the presentations of Hamlet.

TOURKOOB, Ala., July 28, 1878.—Dr. C. J. MOFFETT—My Dear Sir: Justice to you demands that I should give you my experience with your excellent medicine, TEETHINA. Our little girl, just thirteen months old, has had much trouble teething. Every remedy was exhausted in the shape of prescriptions from family physicians. Her bowels continued to pass off pure blood and burning fever continued for days at a time. Her life was almost despaired of. Her mother determined to try TEETHINA, and in a day or two there was a great change—new life had returned—the bowels were regular, and thanks to TEETHINA, the little babe is now doing well.
