C. Abbott, a tenant on the Dan- ford southwest of town, brought home Saturday 42 stalks of corn, which he headed, from one stool. He has eighty acres of the rust- proof variety which he expects to har- vest this year.

Will Carr has gone to Valparaiso, Ind., to take a course in civil engineering in a college there.

Regular services will be held in the Baptist church Sunday morning at which time a revival will begin and continue indefinitely. All are invited to be present.

There will be no school next week because of the parish teachers convention which is to be held in Lake Charles next week. After next week, however, the school will continue to the close.

Miss Cooper, the night operator at the telephone exchange, is taking a week's vacation and Miss Pearl Huckleberry, the relief operator, is now the night hello girl. Miss Be- atrice Robinson is doing relief work.

The Gulf Rice Milling Company has changed the location of its new mill. Instead of being built on the J. W. Cooper place a site of five acres has been purchased of C. M. Field. Plans for the new building have been ac- cepted by the company and work will begin immediately.

Mrs. C. W. Ingle went to Lake Charles Tuesday afternoon to visit kindred and to be present at the commencement exercises of the high school there. Mrs. C. W. Ingle's grand- daughter is a member of the class of 1904 of the Lake Charles high school.

"Some Life Problems" will be dealt with at the Congregational church on the next three Sundays in May, at the morning services. Subject for Sun- day, May 15, "The Mystery of Afflic- tion," or lessons from the life of the most patient man in history. This will be a helpful service.

W. E. Sanders, secretary of the Standard Oil Company of Louisiana, recently organized here, after spend- ing a day or two looking after his rice land interests in the vicinity of Roan- oke, went to Lake Charles Tuesday evening, and yesterday left for his home in Decatur, Ill. Mr. Sanders is a brother of Mrs. J. A. Costley, of this place.

A Christian Endeavor society was organized at the Congregational church last Sunday evening. J. C. Welch was elected president. The organization will be perfected next Sunday evening at 7:15. All young people are cordially invited to unite with the society, which has for its object moral and spiritual develop- ment of the young people.

The third address in the Sunday evening services for the people will be given on Sunday evening at the Congregational church. Subject: "The Eternity of Memory," or memory of another world. A service of song precedes the address. Time of ser- vice 8 o'clock. Visitors most heartily welcome. Speak of this service to your friends.

Did you ever write a letter and mis- direct it and then wonder why you never got a reply? You waited and cussed and then cussed and waited; weeks afterwards it came back from the dead letter office, provided you signed your name and address plain enough for the government officials to read it. That would all have been avoided if a return card had been printed on your envelope. We print envelopes for little money.

Monday was the sixtieth birthday of Jas. Ellis, but the event was cele- brated Sunday by having a reunion of the family. The children present were Misses Mertie, Jane and Laura Ellis and Mrs. Oscar Sutter, daugh- ters, and Oscar Sutter, son-in-law. The grand-children were Ella D. and Laura M. Sutter. Charles B. Ellis was also present. The occasion was a most enjoyable one.

J. A. Carter, an architect of Lake Charles, was here Saturday and sub- mitted plans and specifications for a new school building to members of the town council for consideration. The council now has two sets of plans for a school house to be erected here this summer and it is probable that definite action will be taken at the next regular meeting of that body.

The revival meeting at the Metho- dist church which began the first of last week will probably close tonight as there will be no services tomorrow evening. Rev. J. A. Carruth, pastor of the Ebenezer church, arrived Mon- day and has occupied the pulpit this week. Rev. Weldon, of the Ray- mond and China churches, also came in Tuesday to participate in the ser- vices. Splendid audiences attend both the afternoon and evening meet- ings.

The public park in the south part of town is undergoing some much needed improvements. A ball diamond has been laid off and hereafter all games will be played there. The park will be fenced, a board enclosure 500 feet long and eight feet high to be built on the east side next to the public road. A handsome amphitheatre will also be erected in the northwest corner of the park. The entire space on the long board fence has been taken up by local business men for advertising purposes, each subscribing five dol- lars therefor.

The first semi-annual love feast for the year 1904 of the German Baptist Brethren was held in the German Baptist church at Roanoke Saturday evening, beginning at 3:30 and con- tinuing until 9. The South examina- tion services were held in the after- noon and the feetwashing and supper in the evening. Services were con- ducted by Eld. J. C. Minix, of Roan- oke. The church was crowded, a number having been in attendance from Welsh, Jennings and surround- ing country. About eighteen mem- bers of the church will attend the national meeting to be held in Car- thage, Mo., May 18 to 25th inclusive.

The Jennings Rice Milling Company at this place closed down this week, finishing a season's run of a little over eight months, five months of which a run of fifteen hours a day was made. During that time 101,290 bags, equivalent to 114,300 barrels, were milled, which is the biggest showing yet reported in the rice belt. The latter part of the month the mill will be put in operation a few days to finish up some seed left over from planting, after which it will be dis- mantled for repairs and improve- ments, there being considerable of the latter contemplated. Much credit is due Superintendent W. F. Hutcheson and Manager Philip Miller for the success of the mill at this place.

Speaking of a party of Calcasieu people arriving in that city, Friday's Siloam Springs, (Ark.) Republican says: The party had quite an expe- rience just after starting Thursday evening. When the train reached Welsh, 10 miles west of Jennings, a heavy black cloud was seen to be hanging over head and a light rain was falling. The weather was so threatening that the conductor refused to start. In a very few minutes a terrible hail storm set in, accompanied by a tremen- dous downpour of rain. Every window on the north side of the train was broken and every north window in the town was shattered. The hail lay a foot deep all over the ground and the rain fall was especially heavy.

S. W. Day left on the midnight train Sunday for Mahomet, Ill., where on next Wednesday evening he will be united in marriage to Miss Gertrude Tanner, a most estimable and talented young lady of that city. Miss Tanner spent last winter in Welsh and during her visit Dan Cupid became ac- tively engaged. Before leaving for the north it was evident that one of his stray darts had pierced a vital spot, and the sudden departure of Mr. Day for the ostensible purpose of visit- ing the Worlds Fair occasioned no surprise on the part of his friends. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Day will spend two or three weeks view- ing the sights at the big exposition in St. Louis and visiting other points of in- terest. We extend congratulations in advance.

Iowa Meets Defeat. The Welsh Cardinals went to Iowa Saturday afternoon and defeated the ball team of that place in a very prettily played game, the score standing 6 to 2. It was the first time the locals had played away from home this season, and the fact that they won against the strong Iowa aggregation is sufficient to rank the Welsh club with any in the rice belt.

J. R. Jones, who has heretofore been a puzzle to our boys, was pound- ed all over the lot, while the slants of Martin, Welsh's pitcher, kept the Iowa boys guessing throughout the game, having struck out ten men. The Iowa boys put up a splendid fielding game, while that of Welsh was par- excellent. In the first inning Welsh scored two runs and the game was never in doubt afterwards.

Tomorrow afternoon the Mayville team is billed for a game here and Sunday it is possible that the Orange, Texas, boys will be here. A game has also been arranged with Lafay- ette.

Letter to S. Blackford. WELSH, LA. Dear Sir: There are several ways of cheating in milk. An old-fashioned way is to water it. Nobody waters it now. A better way is to take out the cream—rich milk with the cream taken out is as good as poor milk with its cream all in.

You don't rob your milk and your customers. Paint is as easy as milk to cheat with. Good paint is as rare as good milk, for human nature is much the same in milkmen and paint men.

You are just and true with your milk; so are we with our paint. De- voe lead and zinc is twice as good as mixed paints. There's twice as much butter in it.

Mr. J. T. Ladd, Cheraw, S. C., writes: "When Mr. Evans painted his house with Devoe, he figured on how other paints covered and had enough left to paint three large rooms. He was so pleased that he has used Devoe on two other houses." F. W. DEVOE & Co. New York.
