Suffering from Charbon.

While the disease of charbon is generally supposed to be confined among cattle, two cases have come to light in this vicinity where men have been infected from being near the cattle and having serum carried to them by stinging flies and mosquitoes.

The two cases are both being treated by Dr. Watkins. One of them is John Demarest of Big Lake, and the other one is James Scott of Lac-asne. Both will recover.

The cause of charbon in cattle and animals is the bite of an insect or fly.
The place swells up in a lump, and the poison finally spreads to the whole system, killing the animal affected in a great many cases.

The two gentlemen who are now under medical attendance for this have been attending to cattle that have been infected, and it is supposed that they were bitten by the flies from the charboned cattle.—L. C. Press.

Letter to Hon. A. P. Pujo.

LAKE CHARLES, LA.

Dear Sir: Devoe is worth $4 or $5 a gallon, put-on; how much is another paint worth?

Depends on how many gallons you've got to put-on, to be equal to one of Devoe.

Mr. J. J. Mall, Sheffield, Pa., painted two houses one coat, five years ago, lead-and-oil, took 40 gallons.

Last summer bought 40 gallons Devoe for same houses; had 10 gallons left.

Mr. N. Avery, Delhi, N. Y., owns two houses exactly alike; painted one with Devoe; took 6 gallons.
The other with some other, took 12
gallons.

What'd you give for those off paints? Bear in mind, you've got to pay for the painting.

Yours truly

F. W. DEVOE & CO

The Calcasieu police jury Tuesday night adopted a resolution introduced by Mr. Hathaway, of Jennings, that will prove a God-send to many property owners in this parish.

Following is the resolution:
"Resolved, That it is recommended by the police jury, and the assessor is instructed, that in making the next assessment of property he disregard all former values and assessments, and fix a true and equal value on all property.

"That he visit and inspect all property in person, in so far as possible, or by a competent and responsible deputy when necessary, strictly as the law provides. That in case the assessor requires additional assistance other than the usual emoluments of his office, justify, that the police jury provide and pay for such additional assistance, to the end that a thorough and just system and classification be inaugurated and carried out, that will insure to the parish its just revenues, and not be an unequal burden on any person, property or corporation. That a committee be appointed by the president of this body, consisting of three members, to confer with the assessor in adopting an equitable system of taxation and fixing of value, and promulgating the same to final and successful termination."
