

Iowa Items.

Rev. H. C. Ledyard preached in the M. E. Church Sunday Morning.

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Read and Miss Ada Findley of Welsh, spent Sunday in Iowa.

Mrs. D. W. Gunn of Roanoke, came over Friday to assist her sister, Miss Ethel Spoor, with her school entertainment at the Bleu school. This is Miss Spoor's second term in that district, which is a good recommendation.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Longenbach arrived Wednesday evening for their annual visit with their sons, Harley and Ray.

T. Breaux is moving the old saloon building to his adjoining property across the street, where it is expected to be used by A. J. Findley as a feed store.

L. L. Funk is making some noticeable improvements in his store building.

Dr. Pyatt, who has been quite sick, is now able to be about. He made a trip to Lake Charles Tuesday.

Mrs. Bell Davis and Misses Hattie Fenton and Grace Mills drove over from Fenton Thursday and spent the day with Mrs. Baker and Mrs. Irwin.

Saturday night F. C. Baker, H. C. Ledyard, Dr. Calvert, Al Mills Jim Henderson and A. J. Findley were in Welsh, attending a Masonic "Feast." They said they dined on 'possum and had a royal good time.

Al. Mills and family of Fenton, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Baker, Sunday.

Monday evening at the Congregational parsonage a quiet wedding took place, Rev. Schmink officiating. The contracting parties were Mr. E. Durgan of Indianapolis, Indiana, and Mrs. Carrie Reese, of this place. Mr. Eli Lyon was best man and Mrs. Mitchell was maid of honor. In the pretty parlor, brightened by holly and palms, the solemn words were spoken, which united in wedlock the groom of seventy-three and the bride of seventy-two years. They have the best wishes of many friends.

Thanksgiving services will be held in Iowa at the Congregational church, by Rev. J. B. Gonzales of Jennings. At the Odd Fellows' hall there will be union services by Rev. Ledyard and Rev. Wells. Special music has been prepared for both services.

How to get Strong.

P. J. Daly, of 1247 W. Congress St. Chicago, tells of a way to become strong: He says: "My mother, who is old and was very feeble, is deriving so much benefit from Electric Bitters that I feel it's my duty to tell those who need a tonic and strengthening medicine about it. In my mother's case a marked gain in flesh has resulted, insomnia has been overcome, and she is steadily growing stronger." Electric Bitters quickly remedy stomach, liver and kidney complaints. Sold under guarantee at all druggists. 50c.

Welsh Citizens Purchase an Automobile

Messrs. Anthony and Austin Hebert and A. R. Arceneaux are the proud possessors of an automobile, which they recently purchased in Lafayette and brought home the first of the week. With the excellent roads that are now being constructed in this vicinity, it will be possible for these gentlemen to make good use of their machine.

A Sure-enough Knocker.

J. C. Goodwin, of Reidsville, N. C., says: "Bucklin's Arnica Salve is a sure-enough knocker for ulcers. A bad one came on my leg last summer, but that wonderful salve knocked it out in a few rounds. Not even a scar remained." Guaranteed for piles, sores, burnes etc. 25c at all druggists.

Barn of J. C. Armstrong Burns to the Ground Friday Night.

The barn of J. C. Armstrong, who lives about three miles south of Crowley, was totally destroyed by fire Friday night about 8 o'clock. The loss was about $800, with about $300 insurance. The cause of the fire is a mystery.—Crowley Signal.

The Floyd's.

An evening of merriment, mirth and mystification! The Floyd's Magicians. Wonderful feats of sleight-of-hand, legerdemain and magic. New experiments in telepathic mind reading and "second sight." An entertainment filled with original novelties. The "Star" attraction of the "Star Course." At the Auditorium, Welsh, La., December 10.

The Devil.

Interesting to the point of fascination: Franz Molnar's satirical comedy, which Henry W. Savage will offer at the Lyric Theatre, Lake Charles, December 1st, has in the short course of its existence, circled the globe, and is now being played in the principal cities of the world. It is a play of irony, of sarcasm, of finesse and appeals particularly to thinking people. While a comedy and studied with witty lines and situations, at the same time there is a moral underlying it all, which the author drives home with sledge-hammer blows. Its caustic humor and fanciful ironies keep the audience in a ripple of laughter.

A Paying Investment.

Mr. John White, of 38 Highland Ave. Houlton, Maine, says: "Have been troubled with a cough every winter and spring. Last winter I tried many advertised remedies, but the cough continued until I bought a 50c. bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery; before that was half gone, the cough was all gone. This winter the same happy result has followed; a few doses once more banished the annual cough. I am now convinced that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best of all cough and lung remedies." Sold under guarantee at all druggists. 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free.
