D. R. READ, EDITOR.

We desire to call attention of our readers to the article on the front page of this issue entitled "For Greater Consumption of Jambalaya" in which the Rice Association of America gives a receipt for the making of one of the South's greatest and most palatable dishes, Jambalaya. This is a dish, we believe that is confined almost exclusively to the south, and yet we have never heard of a northerner but was greatly elated over it, when they had the opportunity to test it. Jambalaya is neither fish, flesh nor fowl, and yet it comes the nearest being a complete meal of any one dish that it has ever been our lot to partake of, and has the additional quality of being most highly palatable. If you have never tried Jambalaya paste the receipt referred to in your cook book and try it once. We are positive that you will be most agreeably surprised.

TAKEN UP:—At my place six miles southeast of Welsh, near Clark's second lift, a four year old red cow, white spot in forehead, white spot on each flank and white underneath underdand. Came to my place about eighteen months ago. Owner can have same by proving property and paying cost.

One Big Rice Yield.

Among the many short crops that are reported this year comes one that looks like old times. Messrs Mc-Millian and Wilson, two Blue Grass farmers threshed 149 acres of Honduras rice a few days ago, which yielded them 2071 sacks. This is one of the best yields that we have heard of this season and is an exception to the general run of the crop this year.
These gentlemen sold their crop shortly after it was threshed for $2.75 per barrel.

Diedrich-Louviere.

Mr. Wm. Diedrich and Miss Emma Louviere were united in the bond of matrimony Wednesday evening, September 15, 1909, by Wm. P. Russell, Jr., justice of the peace. A quiet home wedding, only the immediate members of the family being present.
The bride and groom are both well known here in Welsh, the bride being the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ezeb Louviere, while the groom, who came here with J. M. Barnette a couple of years ago, is now manager of the Barbee & Diedrich fruit and confectionery store on Railroad avenue.
The Journal wishes them a long and happy life.

Teachers' Reception.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. arranged a very pleasant reception for the teachers of the Welsh Schools, which was given in the tabernacle last Friday night. All the teachers except Miss Hathaway were present.
Mayor A. T. Jones delivered the address of Welcome, after which the teachers were presented to most of the people present. The pupils of the high school demonstrated their patriotism and school spirit by rendering a number of school songs and school yells. Some sixty or seventy people, including about a dozen of the patrons, were present to welcome the teachers for the new year's work.

Yes.

The question is often asked: "Do the people read newspaper advertisements?" We answer "yes." As an example: Mr. J. S. DeWolf, who owned a little place in the east part of town, desired to sell the same.
Upon the advice of his friend C. E.
Smith of Port Arthur, he inserted a little advertisement regarding the same in the Journal, even on the back page, and as a result of that little notice, the property was sold within four days from the day the paper was published. "Do people read Journal ads?" We answer "yes." If you have something to sell, advertise in
