Mrs. Frank of Welsh, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Plumb, Saturday.

Rice has begun to move. Three car loads of the Seaman rice were loaded at Rice Tuesday and, four car loads were loaded Wednesday at Iowa. Philip Miller, manager of the Jennings Rice Milling Company's mill at Welsh, was the purchaser.

Walter Lowe has sold his rice to W. D. Jones, who represents the Lake Charles Rice Mill.

Philip Miller bought two car loads of rice from John LeBlanc for the Jennings Rice Mill at Welsh.

The Missouri Rice company are tearing out the old flumes and building new ones along their canal.

Findley's mill is kept running most of the time. The continued low price of rice is causing the farmers to have it ground into feed.

John Storer has moved the office, formerly the property of James Storer, to his place across the railroad and expects to build a front to it in the near future.

Ed Smith Found Guilty of Killing Gus Pugh, at Roanoke.

Ed Smith, who killed Gus Pugh, at his home in Roanoke, on the ninth of last October, was found guilty of murder without capital punishment at Lake Charles last Friday in the District Court. Smith's defence was that he was attacked first. After the case was argued a considerable length it was submitted to the jury, who brought in a verdict of "Guilty", but recommended clemency on the part of the court. The court inflicted a life sentence. This murder created considerable excitement when it was committed last fall, following close upon the heels of several other murders in this section of the parish. The trouble grew out of the refusal of Pugh to pay a board bill that he owed to Smith, whereupon Smith shot him.

Three For the Price of One.

We desire to call especial attention of our readers to the splendid offer that we are making elsewhere in this issue: of the Journal and two other splendid publications, all for but little more than the price of one. In this proposition we offer the Journal which gives you your home news.
The Atlanta Tri-weekly Constitution, which gives you the Nation and World news, and your choice of one of several other magazines, including Uncle Remus, which furnishes an unlimited stock of wit and wisdom, all for the small sum of $1.75. This offer applies not only to new subscribers, but to all the old ones as well who pays up arrears and one year in advance. We have free copies of the Constitution and also of Uncle Remus for all who wish. Call and get them at this office.

For Larger
Public School
Students.

Money paid for a practical education is the best investment; Time thus spent is wisely used. Time is money and opportunity as well, if it is used aright.

Business men work during the summer; farmers do the same; then, what's the sense in big boys and girls spending vacations in idleness, in wasting precious weeks of the few years of preparation for life? Most ambitious boys and girls would rather spend vacation in learning something that will fit them to earn a fine salary, than in loafing. One vacation spent with us will prepare any young man or woman of average ability, to earn a living or more. He who cares more for success than heat, goes far ahead of him who waits 'till cool weather to study.
Moreover, our systems can be mastered during vacation, a thing not true of any others.

Complete a course of bookkeeping and shorthand or telegraphy with us and we will place you in a good position. We enroll 1500 students annually, employ 20 teachers, own and occupy two large buildings, and are prepared to do more for you than any other business college in America.

The Lash of a Fiend would have been about as welcome to A Cooper, of Oswego, N. Y., as a merciless lung racking cough that defied all remedies for years. "It was most troublesome at night," he writes, "nothing helped me until I used Dr.

King's New Discovery, which cured me completely. I never cough at night now." Millions know its matchless merit for stubborn colds, obstinate coughs, sore lungs, la grippe, asthma, hemorrhage, croup, whooping cough, or hay fever. It relieves quickly and never fails to satisfy. A trial convinces. 50c. $1. Trial bottle all druggists.

The Street Loafer.

The following contribution to the Jennings Herald, by one of the well known young men of Welsh, is reprinted because it contains a large element of truth that it would be well for young men, of not only this town, but of all towns, to think over:

"Often when we are passing along the street we see a crowd of from two to four boys standing on the corner smoking cigarettes and chewing tobacco. When a lady passes the remarks that are made about her are shocking to the ears of every respectable person. We wonder if these same boys ever stop for a moment to think that they have sisters. How would they feel if they could be around and hear some of the remarks which are made about their sisters, by some the boys who loaf on the street corner. If these same boys were at some honest work, helping to support their parents, they would not have time to stand around the corners and make remarks about every young lady that passes by. Do these young men, who loaf around the corners, stop to think that some day they may be called upon to govern this land of ours? Are they fitting themselves to fill an office of trust and confidence? No, young man, you are not. Go to work and by hard and honest labor show the people of your town you are worthy of all the confidence they can put in you." W. R. P.

Khaki Kid Hits Welsh Monday

Chas. Kahn, who is known as the "Khaki Kid," and doing a walking stunt across the country, reached Welsh Monday evening. He is walking from San Francisco to New York, a distance, the way he has to go, of 7,000 miles, in 250 days, an average of 28 miles per day. He left San Francisco November 1, and is due to reach New York July 9. After spending the night at the Signal Hotel he started on his way to New Orleans Tuesday morning, which point he is due to reach on the 10th inst. He says he is one of the "kids" that made the trip a short time ago, from Philadelphia to Seattle, a distance of 4,000 miles, in 131 days, arriving six days ahead of time. He dresses in a khaki suit, carries a walking stick and a pack of about 25 pounds weight.

Fred Emerson Brooks.

Fred Emerson Brooks, who appeared at the Auditorium on the lecture course here last Friday evening was greeted by a good audience. Mr.
Brooks is a gentleman of pleasing address and appearance upon the stage. His renditions, while enjoyable per se, were so strongly flavored with the ego as to detract from the real merit of the entertainment to some extent, while the explanatory fillings between selections were at times tedious. All in all the audience enjoyed a number of good laughs, a few yawns and several naps, most of them feeling repaid for their time and money.

Small House Greeted "Bob Smith" Monday Nig.

The smallest audience that has assembled to hear any entertainment that has been held in the Auditorium since it has been opened, greeted "Bob" Smith, the "Mississippi Messenger of Mirth," Monday night.
While Mr. Smith was hampered by the preponderance of vacant seats, yet his entertainment was excellent and kept those present in an uproar of laughter most of the time. He would doubtless receive a more hearty welcome should he appear in Welsh again.
