DRAWNS PICTURE AS SPIRIT GUIDES

WOMAN GIVES CREDIT FOR HER WEIRD WORK TO AN ANCIENT EGYPTIAN.

FRIENDS PRAISE DRAWINGS

Mrs. George D. Field of Minneapolis, Who Knew Nothing of Art, Influenced by Severian Who Flourished 3,000 Years Ago.

Minneapolis, Minn.—From a condition of absolute lack of knowledge of drawing or of the rudiments of art to an ability to produce pictures remarkable for their wealth of detail and weirdness of conception sums up in a few words the art career of Mrs. George D. Field, 817 Twenty-second street E., whose work has been the talk and wonder of all her friends and especially her fellow members of the Spiritualist church of which her husband, George D. Field, a piano man, is the head.

For all her work and the praise bestowed upon it by friends Mrs. Field says to Severian, an Egyptian who flourished 3,000 years ago, belongs the credit.

Through this spirit directly, or as he directs many subordinate spirits, does she work. With Severian guiding her right hand or controlling it through the lesser entities of the spirit world, Mrs. Field produces drawings with an ordinary pencil which have attracted the attention of some of the art experts of New York.

Throughout all her work is apparently the influence of Egyptian art. In practically every representation of ancient Egyptians, male or female, the peculiarities of the headdress are marked. Mrs. Field has carried out every detail thereof with great faithfulness. Into the dress upon every head she has drawn appear all the distinctive features which make that part of Egyptian art so much a feature in itself.

Hidden away in these head-dresses at all angles are tiny faces, usually of women. A casual glance does not always reveal them. Careful study brings them out in surprising number. In some drawings of other figures, some of them almost weird and some even of the goblin type, the tiny faces appear again, every one having an individuality of expression that makes a great impression.

One of the finest of the drawings is that of a great bird as large proportionately as the fabled roc. Close inspection shows the form to hold a giant figure and the apparent plumage of the bird is a robe enfolding the figure. While all of the pictures shown by Mrs. Field show a wealth of detail this one shows almost genius in its conception.

The latest picture is that of a great dog, in the curves of which are hidden faces which, though no more than white and black as produced by a pencil, show beauty.

The impulse—the call of the spirits—to draw may come upon her at any time, though usually it comes at night at eight o'clock. Sometimes she works through until three o'clock in the morning. Three nights a week are, as a rule, devoted to drawing. Sometimes she will complete a figure at one sitting, other times two or three are necessary to finish the subject.

Mrs. Field does not call these sittings trances, though it is a fact that every outward physical sign indicated that she was enthralled by Severian.

"Two and a half years ago," Mrs. Field said, "I knew no more about drawing than does anyone who has never had any instruction or never drew anything, even as a child, or who felt no interest whatever in drawing or art. I began to feel a penchant for writing. It seemed that my hand wanted to write something. My arm would begin to move and the fingers would seek to grasp a pen or pencil. I would take up a pencil and would write, but the spirits preferred that I draw, and so draw I did."

HELP FOR THE AGED. No Need to Longer Suffer from Kidney Trouble.

Mrs. Catherine Sullivan, 1712 Moffatt St., Joplin, Mo., says: "Like most elderly people, I suffered from kidney trouble for years. My back ached intensely and there was a feeling of numbness in my spine. My hands cramped and the urinary passages were profuse. Doctors prescribed for me but I was not benefited. At last I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills. They drove my troubles away, and I now enjoy excellent health." Remember the name—Doan's. For sale by all dealers. 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

WAS A SIN ANY TIME.

Mrs. Wise—I told the next-door neighbor today that it was a sin to play the piano on Sunday.

Mr. Wise—Why did you mention Sunday?

BABY WASTED TO SKELETON

"My little son, when about a year and a half old, began to have sores come out on his face. I had a physician treat him, but the sores grew worse. Then they began to come out on his arms, then on other parts of his body, and then one came on his chest, worse than the others. Then I called another physician. Still he grew worse. At the end of about a year and a half of suffering he grew so bad that I had to tie his hands in cloths at night to keep him from scratching the sores and tearing the flesh. He got to be a mere skeleton, and was hardly able to walk.

"My aunt advised me to try Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. I sent to a drug store and got a cake of Cuticura Soap and a box of the Ointment and followed directions. At the end of two months the sores were all well. He has never had any sores of any kind since. I can sincerely say that only for Cuticura my child would have died. I used only one cake of Cuticura Soap and about three boxes of Ointment.

"I am a nurse and my profession brings me into many different families and it is always a pleasure for me to tell my story and recommend Cuticura Remedies. Mrs. Egbert Sheldon, Litchfield, Conn., Oct. 23, 1909."

Benefit in Outdoor Schools.

Speaking before the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis recently, Dr. Henry Farnum Stoll of Hartford, Conn., said:

"Every city should have one or more such institutions for all delicate, so-called scrofulous or anemic children, and those with tuberculosis of the bones, who are now in ordinary schools. Doctor Stoll declared that twenty to forty per cent. of school children in large cities are infected with tuberculosis. By the use of tuberculin, it was ascertained that 79 per cent. of the children from tuberculous homes were infected as against only 26 per cent. of those from supposedly healthy homes. It was also found that 50 per cent. of the frail children from healthy homes had the germs of the disease, but that only 13 per cent. of the robust children from similar homes were thus affected.

Something Visible.

SISTERLY HOPE OF MRS. CASSADY

She Writes, Telling Her Experience With Cardui, The Woman's Tonic, and How It Cured Her.

Bringhurst, Ind.—"For three years," writes Mrs. Jennie Cassady of Bringhurst, Ind., "I suffered from womanly weakness.

"I had serious female complaint, and was so bad I could hardly get around, but I took Cardui and it brought me great relief. It cured that awful misery, from which I suffered every month, after I had taken it for only two months.

"I hope all suffering women will try Cardui, as I did, for by doing so they can benefit themselves at home."

You can always depend on Cardui, for every bottle contains the ingredients necessary to help you. Prepared in large quantities, according to the very latest methods, from herbs especially imported by the manufacturers, its preparation, from first to last, is under the superintendence of an experienced chemist and graduate physician, who takes every precaution known to science to perfect the finished product.

Ask your druggist. He knows. He will tell you to take Cardui.

NOTE.—The Cardui Home Treatment for Women consists of Cardui ($1), Theodor's Black-Draught (25c), or Yelvo (50c), for the liver, and Cardui Antiseptic (50c). These remedies may be taken singly, by themselves, if desired, or three together, as a complete treatment for women's ills. Write to: Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions, and Glasgow book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request.

Importation of Leeches.

Leeches are enumerated by the bureau of statistics under its general head of animals imported, the total value of the imports of this species in 1908 having been $5,341; in 1907, $6,522; in 1906, $4,494; in 1905, $3,862; in 1904, $3,589; in 1903, $2,240, and in 1902, $2,412—the commerce in leeches being thus of a growing character. The total value of the leeches imported into the United States in the decade ending with 1908, is about $40,000. Leeches are imported free of duty. Snails were at one time enumerated as an article of importation, the records from 1894 to 1898 showing snails imported to the extent of about $5,000; but the snail trade so dwindled, showing only $24 of imports in 1898, that the bureau discontinued its statements of this article.

A Divided Family.

The bright six-year-old daughter of a physician happened into his reception room the other day and a waiting woman patient engaged her in conversation.

"I suppose you go to church and Sunday school?" she asked. "Oh, yes, ma'am," she replied. "And what denomination do your parents belong to?"

"Why," said the little one, "mamma's a Presbyterian and papa's a stomach specialist."

A Cockney, while spending his holidays in the Highlands, met an old shepherd driving a flock of sheep. "Thy this once more, Moike. Here's a church ferminist us. Go in there, old man, and confess and take a fresh start. I'll wait outside."

An Interruption.

Among the primary pupils enrolled in a Baltimore school this term is the son of a prominent business man of that city.

One afternoon, at close of school, the youngster sought out his father in his office, to him he said:

"Dad, I'm getting tired of school. I think I'll quit."

"Why?" asked the astonished parent: "what's the matter, Tommy? I thought you were fond of going to school."

"So I am, dad," responded the youngster, suppressing a yawn, "but it breaks up the day so."—Harper's Magazine.
