A WORD TO HOUSEWIVES:

The question of how to set the best table possible on the least possible money, is the economical problem that confronts the women of today. We can help you solve that important question if you will permit us to do so. We have cut out every unnecessary expense in our business, and are able to cut the price on everything we sell to the lowest possible degree consistent with good business. Our goods are all fresh and new, as goods cannot accumulate on our shelves at the prices at which we are selling them. We are also prepared to buy all your butter and eggs, and pay you the highest possible price for same.

Baptist Ladies Held Pleasant and Profitable Social.

The lawn social given by the ladies of the Baptist Church, last Friday evening, was a very pleasant as well as a profitable affair. The viands, consisting of ice cream and cake, were excellent in quality and generous in quantity. The music furnished by the Welsh Band was first class. The band is rapidly increasing in efficiency and is now able to furnish a good deal of excellent music, which they have generously done whenever they have been asked to do so. The ladies netted about $25 from their supper.

Congregational Union Picnic a Splendid Success.

One of the most pleasant events of the season, was the union picnic of the Congregational Sunday schools of Jennings, Iowa and Welsh, at this place, last Saturday.

The arrangements for the picnic were well planned and carried out, through the energy of Rev. Jeffers, pastor of the Welsh church. The forenoon was devoted to becoming acquainted and enjoying social amenities.

The dinner was served on long tables, furnishing an abundance of room to everyone.

Instead of a prayer, as is customary on such occasions, the whole assemblage joined in singing the Doxology.

After dinner a ball game was played between the Welsh boys and Jennings, resulting in a score of 12 to 8 in favor of Welsh.

Between three and four hundred members and friends of the schools participated in the pleasures of the day, large delegations coming from both Iowa and Jennings.

This Section Visited By Splendid Shower Wednesday.

It is to be regretted that the comet did not decide to visit the earth sooner than it did, if it is in any way accountable for the splendid shower that visited this section of the state, Wednesday afternoon. So little rain has fallen this season that a good shower has but a temporary effect, and the shower of a week ago, had evaporated so that the earth was hard and dry as ever, when Wednesday's rain came, setting the drowsy reviving vegetation.
