

of Jennings spent part of last week. Mr. Terry and friends on the sheriff's office. W. M. Terry and friends to start Saturday in Kentucky for a visit with Mr. Terry's relatives and friends. Get our prices on Independent repairs for Deering and McCormick Rice Southern Mercantile Co. L. Stewart and E. S. were Jennings visitors evening of last week, to attend a meeting of

C. J. Phelps, one of the prominent citizens of Woodlawn, was a business visitor in this city, Saturday. FOR SALE—One fine Jersey bull, three years old, and several extra good gentle milk cows. Call on or address Chas. Lantz, Welsh, La. Chas. Fenton, of Fenton came down in his touring car, Saturday to attend the Parish Seat Mass meeting. Mrs. M. L. Prentice and sons, Robert and Elton went to Lake Charles Monday for an extended visit with friends and relatives. Col. J. C. LeBlou, of Chloee, was transacting business in Welsh Saturday, and incidentally attended the parish seat mass meeting, and seemed to catch some of the enthusiasm of the occasion.

Mrs. C. M. Shoemaker and children, and Mrs. Morton returned Tuesday from Illinois where they had been visiting for the previous six weeks. Clapha Benoit was transacting business in Lake Charles Monday. Misses Dorothy Hall and Mary Bell McAffry went to Sulphur Sunday to spend the week at the home of their aunt, Mrs. N. J. Lyons. FOR QUICK SALE—The N. W. 1-4 Section 34, township 9, range 7 West, Calcasieu parish, Louisiana. The W. H. Allen 150 acres, 8 miles East of Lake Charles. Mail offers to Box 764, Blackwell, Oklahoma. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Skaggs and children started the latter part of last week for Kentucky where they expect to spend several weeks visiting friends and relatives. Yve Pitre, one of the prominent Creole leaders of Ward Nine, and a prospective candidate for Police juror, was down to the Rally Saturday. Mr. Pitre made a liberal contribution to the Welsh Campaign fund. He says the people of his ward realize that they cannot afford to vote for Jennings for the parish seat. Rub-My-Tism will cure you. Ausam Marcantel, one of the prominent citizens of Ward Five was transacting business in Welsh Saturday. As an evidence that his heart is in the right place, and that he has confidence in Welsh winning in the coming parish seat he made a neat little contribution to the Welsh Parish seat campaign fund. Choice Alfalfa Hay for sale at Jones Bros Mrs. D. R. Read spent Saturday and Sunday the guest of relatives in Iowa. Chas. P. Martin, of Lake Charles was the guest of friends in Welsh the latter part of last week. Get our prices on Independent repairs for Deering and McCormick Rice Binders. Southern Mercantile Co. Miss Ella May Martin, of Lake Charles, was the guest of Misses Katie and Vernie Unkel the latter part of last week. Mack Sharp of Iowa was a business visitor in Welsh Saturday. Doc Weatherwax, post master of Woodlawn was transacting business in this city Saturday. Crepe Paper Napkins 15 cents per hundred, at the JOURNAL Book Store. Oscar Landry, one of the prominent Creole leaders of the new Ward Three, located north of Jennings was in Welsh Saturday attending the Parish Seat Rally. Mr. Landry is the father of nine children who are either voters or control a voter, all of whom together with himself, he says, will vote for Welsh for the parish seat. Mr. Landry takes the sensible view of the matter; he says: "I am not voting for the people of Welsh, but for simple justice." He says that many other voters in the eastern part of the parish are beginning to see that it is far better to locate the parish seat in the center of the parish, where it will be in easy reach of practically everybody, then to put it clear off to one side of the parish for the accomodation of certain clique or crowd. 5 or 6 doses 666 will break any case of Chills & Fever; and if taken then as a tonic the Fever will not return. Price 25c. Louis Smith arrived here the latter part of last week from Fall River, Massachusetts, where he has been for the past three years attending school and later working in a business house. Louis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Smith of this city, with whom he expects to spend a couple or three months visiting, after which he will go on to the road for a clothing house. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stegal returned Monday from a three days trip to Baton Rouge, where they were attending the Adventist camp meeting. Mesdames A. J. Findley and H. I. Longenbach of Iowa, were guests at the home of Mrs. L. E. Robinson Thursday. Mrs. Shipley, who had been spending sometime here visiting relatives, started Thursday for her home in California. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. F. L. Lewis. Regular monthly meeting of the Civic League will be held at the Auditorium, Saturday August 3rd. All members urged to be present. Miss Anna Shoemaker left Thursday evening for Kansas City, Mo., for an indefinite visit with friends and relatives. She was accompanied as far as Lake Charles by her mother, Mrs. J. M. Shoemaker and Mrs. T. P. Russell.

J. M. Booze, of Roanoke was a Welsh visitor Saturday and contributed a liberal amount to help locate the parish seat at Welsh. Robert Stockton went to Esterwood Monday, where he will remain on business for a few days. Clarpie Petre was transacting business in Lake Charles Monday morning. A. R. McBurney went to New Orleans Saturday with a load of fat calves. Col. Iber of Roanoke attended the Welsh Court House Rally Saturday. The Col. is an enthusiastic supporter of Welsh in the coming contest and made a liberal contribution to the campaign fund. Choice Alfalfa Hay for sale at Jones Bros. Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Kelly, formerly of Welsh but now located at Elton, arrived here the first of the week for a short visit with friends. Mr. Kelly returned to his home Tuesday, while his wife expects to spend some time visiting here. T. B. Compton of Roanoke participated in the Rally Saturday and placed his name of the campaign list for a nice contribution.

$100 SAVED $100
 Before You Take Out
 A Life Insurance Policy
SEE WADE E. PLAUCHE
 Manager of
 The Insurance Department of
 The Calcasieu Trust and Savings Bank.
 A Life Insurance Policy
 taken in the Pittsburg Life and Trust Company, represented by Mr. Plauche, will give you all the advantages any other company will, and will save you $5.00 or more annually upon each $1,000.00 of insurance carried. In other words, on a Twenty Year Policy, Mr. Plauche can save you $100.00 on every $1,000.00 of insurance you carry.
 We also offer exceptional facilities for writing your Fire Tornado, Health, Accident, Live Stock and Rice Insurance.
 Ask For Particulars
INSURANCE DEPARTMENT
 Calcasieu Trust and Savings Bank
 WELSH, - - - LOUISIANA.

DID YOU

Ever pay a bill twice because you could not show a receipt? Did you ever find your store bill growing faster than you thought it should? If you keep an account with us and pay in checks only, we will protect you against the former and give you an accurate statement of your receipts and expenditures during the year, and protect you from leaks and losses. This is part of the bank's business and you can have the advantage of it without cost to you. Come in and get acquainted, open an account and see how it works. Yours for correct business economy.

WELSH TRUST and SAVINGS BANK OF WELSH, LOUISIANA

ATTENTION FARMERS !!

Call and see our Deering Rice Harvester equipped with a Cushman Motor, the only engine that has given satisfaction on the rice binder. We are also agents for Deering Twine and Webber Wagons and prices will be as low as the lowest. We have a quantity of the best Rice Sacks, and you will find our prices right on them.

Welsh Carriage & Implement Co.

LET US SELL YOU
 GASOLINE
 COAL OIL
 DRY STOVE WOOD
 AND GROCERIES
WELSH GROCERY
 AND LIVERY
 BARBEE, Manager 'PHONE 79

Choice Alfalfa Hay for sale at Jones Bros Mrs. D. R. Read spent Saturday and Sunday the guest of relatives in Iowa. Chas. P. Martin, of Lake Charles was the guest of friends in Welsh the latter part of last week. Get our prices on Independent repairs for Deering and McCormick Rice Binders. Southern Mercantile Co. Miss Ella May Martin, of Lake Charles, was the guest of Misses Katie and Vernie Unkel the latter part of last week. Mack Sharp of Iowa was a business visitor in Welsh Saturday. Doc Weatherwax, post master of Woodlawn was transacting business in this city Saturday. Crepe Paper Napkins 15 cents per hundred, at the JOURNAL Book Store. Oscar Landry, one of the prominent Creole leaders of the new Ward Three, located north of Jennings was in Welsh Saturday attending the Parish Seat Rally. Mr. Landry is the father of nine children who are either voters or control a voter, all of whom together with himself, he says, will vote for Welsh for the parish seat. Mr. Landry takes the sensible view of the matter; he says: "I am not voting for the people of Welsh, but for simple justice." He says that many other voters in the eastern part of the parish are beginning to see that it is far better to locate the parish seat in the center of the parish, where it will be in easy reach of practically everybody, then to put it clear off to one side of the parish for the accomodation of certain clique or crowd. 5 or 6 doses 666 will break any case of Chills & Fever; and if taken then as a tonic the Fever will not return. Price 25c. Louis Smith arrived here the latter part of last week from Fall River, Massachusetts, where he has been for the past three years attending school and later working in a business house. Louis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Smith of this city, with whom he expects to spend a couple or three months visiting, after which he will go on to the road for a clothing house. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stegal returned Monday from a three days trip to Baton Rouge, where they were attending the Adventist camp meeting. Mesdames A. J. Findley and H. I. Longenbach of Iowa, were guests at the home of Mrs. L. E. Robinson Thursday. Mrs. Shipley, who had been spending sometime here visiting relatives, started Thursday for her home in California. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. F. L. Lewis. Regular monthly meeting of the Civic League will be held at the Auditorium, Saturday August 3rd. All members urged to be present. Miss Anna Shoemaker left Thursday evening for Kansas City, Mo., for an indefinite visit with friends and relatives. She was accompanied as far as Lake Charles by her mother, Mrs. J. M. Shoemaker and Mrs. T. P. Russell.

Are you going to remodel your home, give it a new coat of paint, outside or in, or give it a new paper dressing? If you are, and want your work done by a thoroughly competent workman, call on or address EZRA CHEEK, painter and paper hanger, Welsh, La. Work and prices will be guaranteed to give SATISFACTION in every instance. E. F. Gayle, of Lake Charles was looking after his chances politically here Saturday. J. S. Gerson returned Friday morning from Houston where he had been on business. Get our prices on Independent repairs for Deering and McCormick Rice Binders. Southern Mercantile Co. Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Ewalt and children of Vinton, who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Ewalt's brother, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Longion for a few days, returned to their home Saturday morning. Roy Carter returned from Lake Charles Saturday morning where he had been on business. Choice Alfalfa Hay for sale at Jones Bros. Sidney Pitre, of Fenton, was a Welsh visitor Saturday and contributed to the Welsh parish seat campaign fund, assuring us he would do his utmost to help carry his box solid for Welsh. Misses Amy and Beulah Benoit were the guests of friends in Rayne the first of this week. Get our prices on Independent repairs for Deering and McCormick Rice Binders. Southern Mercantile Co. Mrs. S. A. Saxby returned Monday from Baton Rouge where she had been for ten days attending the Adventist Camp Meeting. Mrs. Saxby is secretary of the State organization. A. V. Peloquin, one of the leading citizens of Ward Nine came in Saturday to attend the court house rally. He reports that the only votes Welsh will lose in the coming fight in his ward will be those who stay at home. Michael Stanley, of Fenton, was in Welsh Saturday transacting business. He brings the cheering information that his community will go solid for Welsh in the coming parish seat fight. Chas. Lantz, who is working at his trade, laying brick, in Lake Charles, spent Saturday and Sunday in Welsh, returning to his work Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Doan and daughter, Miss Bonnibel left on No. 8 Wednesday night for New Orleans where Miss Bonnibel will take a course as nurse in the Presbyterian Hospital. Miss Maggie Montagne and Miss Alice Meaux from Cossinade, La., arrived here on No. 5 Saturday, and will be the guest of Mrs. Asa Verret for a couple of weeks. Miss Montagne lived here formerly and is a sister of Mrs. Verret. Mrs. I. G. Flowers and children, of Jackson, Miss., are guests of Welsh friends this week.

For your white shoes try a box of Two in One shoe polish for sale at Journal Book Store

THE FINDLEY WAREHOUSE
 Carries a Complete Line of Everything Usually Carried in Such an Establishment
Feed Stuff We carry a full line of all prevailing feeds; Bran, Shorts, Nutriene, Shoemaker, Hay, Alfalfa, Oats and Corn.
NO. 1 TEXAS OATS 52 CENTS
Coal For threshing and pumping—$5.00 per ton if ordered soon.
Binder Twine We bought our twine right and will sell as cheap as the cheapest.
Sacks We bought our Sacks when they were cheap and can sell for less than they can be bought at wholesale now.
Ice Always on hand. We sell by the pound and GIVE FULL WEIGHT.
Binder Repairs We have repairs for all kinds of binders not manufactured by the Trust.
Storage WE ARE PREPARED TO STORE YOUR RICE AT PREVAILING PRICES.
 YOUR PATRONAGE SOLICITED
 A. J. FINDLEY, Proprietor.
 IOWA, - - - LA.

700 ACRES
 If you are interested in NEW RICE LAND don't fail to see this tract before you buy.
THE ONLY SNAP LEFT
6 Room House, Large Barn, All Fenced, 10 Inch Artesian Well 2 Miles From R. R. Station
Price $17.50 Per Acre
L. P. MANNING
 RICE, - - - LA.

WARD TWO
Sunday School Convention WILL MEET IN ROANOKE, LA.,
Friday, August 2, 1912
AT THE U. B. CHURCH
 For an all day's session.—Come early and enjoy a day of Spiritual Good Things.
ROANOKE WILL SERVE DINNER ON THE LAWN, FREE TO ALL VISITORS
YOU WILL BE WELCOME