ORDINANCE NO. 42.

AN ORDINANCE calling and providing for a special election to be held taking the sense of the property taxpayers of Ward Nine, Parish of Jefferson Davis, Louisiana, exclusive of incorporated towns in said ward, entitled to vote at said election, as to whether a special tax of five (5) mills on the dollar shall be levied and collected for a period of five (5) years, beginning with the year 1913.

Section 1. Be it ordained by the Police Jury of the Parish of Jefferson Davis, Louisiana, that an election is hereby called to be held in accordance with the laws of Louisiana, to take the sense of the property taxpayers of Ward Nine, Jefferson Davis Parish, Louisiana, qualified to vote at the election hereby called as to whether a tax of five (5) mills on the dollar of all taxable property situated within said ward, exclusive of the incorporated towns in said ward, shall be levied and collected annually for a period of five (5) years, beginning 1913.

Sec. 2. Be it further ordained, etc., that said election shall be held at each and every one of the voting precincts within said ward, said precincts being as follows, to-wit:
Ward Nine, Precinct 1, Thompson
Ward Nine, Precinct 2, Topsey
and shall be held on the twenty-fifth (25th) day of March, 1913, between legal hours, to-wit:

From 6 o'clock a. m. to 7 o'clock p. m.

Sec. 3. Be it further ordained, etc., that the Board of Supervisors of Election of the Parish of Jefferson Davis are hereby authorized, empowered and directed to name and appoint the election commissioners to hold and conduct said election in accordance with law, to superintendent and deliver the boxes to the election commissioners, appointed by them, to provide for said polling precincts the ballots, tally sheets, booths and other election paraphernalia necessary to hold said election in accordance with law.

Sec. 4. Be it further ordained, etc., that the ballots used at said election shall read substantially as follows: "In favor of a special five (5) mill tax for roads and bridges in Ward Nine, beginning with the year 1913, and the abrogation of all previous special taxes voted for roads and bridges upon the territory now comprised in Ward Nine.

"Against a special tax of five (5) mills for roads and bridges in Ward Nine, beginning with the year 1913."

Said ballots shall also contain on the face thereof a place for the signature of the voter and for the assessed value of the property owned by him in said Ward Nine.

Sec. 5. Be it further ordained, etc., that said election shall be held under the general election laws of the State of Louisiana, in so far as applicable to the election herein provided for and not in conflict with this ordinance.

Sec. 6. Be it further ordained, etc., that if a majority of the voters participating in said election shall vote in number and assessed value in favor of levying said tax, then all previous special taxes voted for road and bridge purposes within the territory now comprising said ward or any portion thereof shall ipso facto be abrogated and annulled.

Sec. 7. Be it further ordained, etc., that the sum of one hundred and no. 100 dollars is hereby set aside and appropriated out of any funds on hand not otherwise specially appropriated, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to cover the expense of holding the election herein provided for.

Sec. 8. Be it further ordained, etc., that the returns of the election herein provided for shall be made to the Police Jury in accordance with law, and that this body shall meet on the third day of April, 1913, to canvass, compile and promulgate the returns of said election.

Sec. 9. Be it further ordained, etc., that the President of this Police Jury is hereby authorized and instructed to issue his proclamation calling said election, as provided by law.

Adopted February 6, 1913.

Years, 9.
Noes, none.

Healthy Old Age Is What Dr. Hartman Advocates

S. B. HARTMAN, M. D.

See here, young man, I heard you complaining the other day of being nervous, sleepless, brain fagged, and the like. A young man, hardly in the zenith of your life, complaining of such things!

And this is very common, too. You are not the only one. Probably three out of four of the young men of today have just such symptoms as you describe. What does it mean?

Look at me. I am eighty-two years old. Sound as a nut. Tough as hickory. Do not know what it is to be tired. While I cannot do as much physical work as I used to when a young man, I can do a great deal. Probably twice as much as the average young man of today.

What has kept me so strong and well? I will tell you. I do not use tobacco. I do not use alcoholic stimulants. I do not use tea or coffee habitually. I go to bed early. I get up early. I am always doing something; something that occupies my body and mind. I love to work. I take a cold water towel bath every morning, winter and summer. It is these things that have kept me well and strong. You could be just as well and strong as I am if you would do as I do.

You may ask, do I never get sick? Have I never had occasion to take medicine at all? Yes, I have got sick. Sometimes I feel a little touch of climatic trouble, like cold, malaria, slight catarrhal symptoms, but my only medicine is Peruna. I always keep a bottle of Peruna in the house. I keep a bottle of Peruna on my desk in my office. Once in a while I take some. I do not take it habitually. Take it only when I feel a little out of sorts. One swallow will perhaps be all that will be necessary, but it is always handy by.

It is a sorry sight to see the young men of today begin to peter out physically when they ought to be in the glory of their manhood and the height of their vigor. Eat plain food. Live frugally. Give up all weakening habits. Live as God intended you to live. Take Peruna when you do not feel as well as usual.

If you want me to I will send you a book which will tell you a great many more things about yourself and about matters that may be of great value to you. Enclose a two-cent stamp for postage and the book will be sent in a plain wrapper and you will not be troubled with any follow-up letters or advertisements. Peruna is for sale at all drug stores.

Universal Hero.

For America, at least, there is the one universal hero. No one questions his greatness. None names him but to praise.

Who is this universal hero? Is it Napoleon? Many condemn him, as Ingersoll did, as the "imperial personification of force and murder." No, it is not Napoleon.

Washington, then? Wendell Phillips said: "But the great Virginian held slaves." So, even Washington had his detractors.

Lincoln? Perhaps later on; but not yet.

Well, who is this universal hero of America?

John Hampden, of course. He objected to paying taxes.—Kansas City Times.

Sensational Methods

of advertising and bold promises to cure every ailment, are not resorted to by the manufacturers of BOND'S LIVER PILLS. Such methods are left to the struggling tradesmen in their grand "Bargain Sales," and to the newly fledged medical candidates, with their "wonder working," but alas! unknown "remedies."

BOND'S LIVER PILLS are no experiment. They are honestly and skillfully prepared from the best known agents, without regard to cost or trouble. They are gentle, safe and satisfactory laxatives, intended to relieve the ailments arising from torpidity or engorgement of the liver or the bowels.

Headaches, Sour Stomach, Neuralgia, Colds, Biliousness and Constipation cannot linger if Bond's Pills are properly used.

Take just ONE pill at bed time; you will usually WAKE UP WELL!

Equally as Good.

A Sunday school teacher in the middle west asked all of her pupils who wished to go to heaven to hold up their right hands. All did but one little girl.

"Why, Mary," said the teacher, "why don't you hold up your hand today, just as you did last Sunday when I asked the same question?"

"I know," said Mary, "but papa has just got tickets for Los Angeles."

Woman Surely Could Not Be Accused of Having Any Lack of Caution.

One day a very nervous, timid-looking woman, accompanied by a robust farmer, appeared on the platform of a little railway at a remote country town. For a time she devoted her attention to the time table, but she did not find there the information she sought, and she stepped up to the station master as he came out of the office.

"Will you please tell me if the three-fifteen train has gone yet?" she asked, in apparent concern.

"Yes, about twenty minutes ago," he replied.

"And when will the four-thirty be along, do you think?"

"Why, not for some time yet, of course."

"Are there any expresses before then?"

"Not one."

"Any freight trains?"

"No."

"Nothing at all?"

"Nothing whatever."

"Are you quite sure?"

"Certainly I am, or I wouldn't have said so."

"Then," said the timid woman, turning to her husband "I think we'll cross the tracks, William."—Youth's Companion.

Too Late for Answer.

Henry Watterson, the well-known American journalist, told this story at a recent dinner party:

"One day when I was the city editor of a small newspaper, a fine turkey was left at the office. We all hankered after the bird, but the editor finally claimed it, took it home, and had it cooked for dinner. The next day a letter was handed in to him, which he opened and read:

"Mr. Editor—I sent you a turkey yesterday which had been the cause of much dispute among us. To settle a bet, will you please state in tomorrow's issue what the turkey died of?"

The successful man is honored and envied.
