

500,000 TO MOVE TEXAS CROPS

HOUSTON, GALVESTON, SAN ANTONIO, DALLAS, FT. WORTH GET DEPOSITS.

Will Get $21,800,000, and an Apportionment of $50,000,000 Has Been Set Apart by Treasury.

Washington.—Secretary McAdoo announced Tuesday the apportionment of the $50,000,000 to be deposited by the government in national banks of the West and South to facilitate the movement and marketing of crops. The amount allotted to date is $46,000,000, of which $21,800,000 goes to the thirteen Southern States and the District of Columbia and $24,200,000 to the fourteen Western States. The Southern banks have asked that their share of the funds be deposited in August and September and those in the West in September, October and November. The money will be alloted to remain on deposit on an average of four or five months. All of it is to be returned not later than next April and the Southern bankers who have their money first, in December will begin turning it back into the treasury in monthly installments.

In a statement announcing the apportionment, Secretary McAdoo said: "The funds are deposited in the banks of the West and South because it is believed there is short demand for money to assist in marketing the crops. . . but if in the East or elsewhere it should be shown that there is need for the temporary use of funds for similar legitimate purposes the government will be quite as ready to extend similar aid."

Many factors were taken into consideration in arriving at the apportionment of deposits in the West and South. "Among these," the secretary said, "were the immediate needs of the localities as reported by the committees of the clearing houses in the West, the capital of the different national banks and the character of business transacted by them. The amount of money which these banks are at the present time advancing to their country bank correspondents and the additional accommodations which they expect to extend to these correspondents, their present condition, as shown by the last controller's call; their outstanding circulation and the amount of discounts they may have made in their efforts to meet the legitimate demands upon them of customers and correspondents."

Following are amounts allotted to the Southern States cities designated as depositories and a partial list of government representatives:

Alabama, $1,500,000—Birmingham, Mobile, Montgomery.
Arkansas, $600,000—Little Rock.
Florida, $1,150,000—Jacksonville, Pensacola, Tampa.
Georgia, $1,700,000—Atlanta, Savannah, Augusta, Macon.
Kentucky, $1,650,000—Lexington, Louisville.
Louisiana, $2,600,000—New Orleans, Shreveport.
Maryland, $2,800,000—Baltimore.
Mississippi, $600,000—Jackson, Meridian, Vicksburg.
North Carolina, $1,300,000—Charlotte, Greensboro, Wilmington, Raleigh.
South Carolina, $1,500,000—Charleston, Columbia, Greenville, Spartanburg.
Tennessee, $1,950,000—Chattanooga, Knoxville, Memphis, Nashville.
Texas, $2,500,000—Dallas, Galveston, Fort Worth, Houston, San Antonio.
Virginia, $1,450,000—Lynchburg, Norfolk, Richmond, Roanoke.
District of Columbia, $500,000—Washington.
The amount apportioned to Oklahoma is $750,000, to be deposited in Oklahoma and Oklahoma City.

FEW AMERICANS ARE LEAVING

PRESIDENT'S ORDER TO LEAVE MEXICO ALARMED FEW.

It is Expected An Exodus Will Begin Soon—Lind Still at Vera Cruz. Carranza Praises Wilson.

Vera Cruz.—John Lind let it be understood Friday that he will not return to Mexico City except on special invitation of President Huerta. He probably will take passage for the United States on the next Ward line steamer sailing from Vera Cruz.

Washington.—Reports to the state department Friday continued to tell of the exodus of Americans from Mexico. From Tampico came news of a large number gathering from San Luis Potosi and adjacent states, and it was said hundreds were expected at Vera Cruz from the Southern interior states to await embarkation. While many probably will go to Galveston and New Orleans, it is expected that not a few will seek safety in Cuba, while some will go to Europe.

A large majority of the Americans who have been residents of Mexico for a number of years are keeping their plans in abeyance, hoping for developments in the international situation which would determine their line of conduct. Many families now have their trunks packed in readiness to take the train on the briefest notice.

Steamers leaving Vera Cruz from now on will probably be loaded to full passenger carrying capacity. Ward line steamships are now practically booked full for several weeks ahead.

Consul Letcher, at Chihuahua, reports that a train left that city Friday bound for El Paso carrying a party of Americans, including fifty-four men, forty-eight women, seventeen children and a number of other foreigners.

Other advices stated that forty refugees who made their way from Durango to Vera Cruz were due to arrive in New Orleans Sunday. Fourteen others on the steamer City of Mexico now are en route to the same city from Vera Cruz.

Carranza Praises Wilson.

Eagle Pass, Tex.—On behalf of the constitutionalists, General Jesus Carranza expressed himself freely Friday on the message of President Wilson to congress, a copy of which he received last evening.

"On the whole," he said, "the message of the president of the United States and the stand he takes with regard to our country is satisfactory to constitutionalists, but the principal point, the best thing for Mexico, is his continued refusal to recognize Huerta. Without such recognition by the United States Huerta has no credit. He can raise no money and his administration must necessarily fall in a short time."

DEEP CRACKS ON JOINTS

P. O. Box 378, El Paso, Texas.—"My trouble began December, 1911. It commenced on me by causing a scurf-like skin and my toe joints, finger joints and lips commenced to crack and split open. My finger cracks would bleed all day long; the cracks were very deep and my thumb seemed to be cracked to the bone. My hands were so bad that I had to sleep with gloves on. The cracks in my lips would bleed often during the day and I used to put adhesive plaster across them to try to keep them closed. My toes would bleed, and I would find blood in my socks when the day's work was done. The skin around the cracks was red and inflamed. I wore shoes one size too large on account of my feet being so sore. I used to become frantic with pain at times. My hands and feet used to smart.

"I suffered agony for four months. I went to town and got some Cuticura Soap and Ointment. From the time I commenced with the Cuticura Soap and Ointment until completely cured was just nineteen days." (Signed) Jack Harrison, Nov. 19, 1912.

ACCOUNTING FOR "HOT AIR"

Statesmen on Electioneering Tour Each Thought He Had a Good Joke on His Opponent.

"You can't always tell who's it," mused Representative Taggart of Kansas City, Kan. "When I was electioneering out in the prairie section of my district during the campaign last fall I chanced to see, as I entered a railway car one day, my opponent sitting with a vacant seat beside him.

"We had never met, but I recognized him at once from photographs. Accordingly, taking my seat beside him, and not disclosing my identity, I launched forth in extravagant praise of him. To this he strongly demurred and forthwith poured forth a flood of compliments to my humble self that made me tingle with pleasure all the way down my spinal column.

"After two hours of mutual flattery, we reached our destination, and, as we parted on the platform, I thought it a good joke to tell him that I had known his identity all the time.

"So, still keeping my own identity in the dark, I said to him:

"Mr. —, I knew you were as soon as I sat down by you!"

"And I," said Mr. —, without turning a hair, "knew you were Taggart the moment you came in the door."

CHOSE LESSER OF TWO EVILS

Theatrical Manager, Cornered, Yielded Passes When Threatened With a Distressing Affliction.

A poet with a precious scrap-book of his own writings under his arm wandered by a theater, when suddenly the idea struck him that he would like to see a play that night, so entering the place he asked for the press agent. That gentleman was out, but the manager was in. He was ushered in, and the deus ex machina inquired his business. "I would like two seats for tonight," faltered the man of verse. "An' who might you be?" asked the manager. The poet mentioned his name. "Um, yes," smiled the other, "I've heard of you, but why should I give you seats?" The bard murmured something about courtesy to the press, and added that probably identification might be necessary, so, as he had a scrap-book of his published poems, he would be glad if— But the manager cut him short, and calling out to his secretary to make out a couple of passes for that night, said: "My dear sir, I'd rather give you the whole house than read your poems!"

American Business Hustle.

Here is an instance of the thoroughness with which England's commercial rivals do business. A leading municipality in the far east is ordering a large quantity of electrical material, and the head of the department concerned was authorized to visit Germany, Great Britain and the United States to inspect plants. He crossed to America first and found that the American agent from the city from which he came had notified every manufacturer of his visit and his mission, with the result that when he landed he received a sheaf of letters of invitation from manufacturers, and of offers of hospitality. As a result, he saw everything he wanted under exceptionally favorable conditions, and every courtesy was shown to him. The German representative is doing precisely the same, but nothing whatever has been done by or on behalf of the British manufacturer. If the representative wants to see anything in this country he has to dig it out for himself, for nobody seems to care for the business and nobody knows of it.—London World.

Also Had Time to Think.

"What is it that you have never married?"
"When I was a boy my father and others who possessed the benefit of experience, advised me not to marry until I had saved up at least $10,000."
"Haven't you ever been able to save that much?"
"Yes; but a fellow learns such a lot while he is saving $10,000."
