

LAKE CHARLES BUSINESS DIRECTORY

WE give on this page a Business Directory of the Imperial City of Southwest Louisiana, situated midway between New Orleans and Houston on the main line of the Southern Pacific and with a population of 16000, with 3000 souls more in her suburbs; six different lines of railroads entering, besides the famed old Calcasieu and the shimmering lake at her feet, industrial plants too numerous to mention, her heritage is rich and glorious. We take pleasure in presenting this page, reciting some of her wide-awake and enterprising merchants and business and professional men, to which we call the attention of our readers.

Grosole Topics.

Mr. Editor, after wishing the Journal force and its readers a happy new year and prosperity; we wish to say that the sunny south is still full of sunshine, green leaves and blossoms, the range is covered with green grass, resembling the month of May, and this is why it has just occurred to me that the sunny south is true to its good and just name--Sunny South.

Mr. A. V. Peloquin is just in receipt of a letter from Fort Sumner, New Mexico, written by F.C. Baker, an old friend, stating that the ground is covered with snow and the thermometer down to zero, at all hours of the day.

Several of our boys have been summoned to Jennings to serve on the Grand Jury and several of them on the Petit Jury in the January term of court.

A. B. Laidlaw on the McLaughlin Orange Farm is now plowing and making preparation to set out several thousand orange and grapefruit trees.

Mr. C. J. Phelps of Fenton put out two teams last week, hauling turpentine from the orchard west of Fenton to the stills at Hecker, as the company's teams were behind with the hauling.

Mr. Fred Miller, of the Grosole district is reported quite ill this week with erysipelas on one of his legs. Dr. Arceaneaux of Welsh has charge of the case.

Mr. D. C. Carbello made a trip to the Pevy-Byrnes saw mill one day last week. Mr. Carbello reports lumber and prices fine, so much so that he purchased a car load of eighteen thousand feet to be shipped to Woodlawn for building and repairing purposes for himself and three sons.

Mr. J. E. Miller was in our vicinity this week with a bunch of fine horses for sale and left Friday for the east.

Our parish father, Yves Pitre, went to Jennings Thursday on a poll tax mission.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Miller returned last week from Tioga, La., where they spent Christmas with Mrs. Miller's sister. Mr. Miller reports conditions up there all right and a lovely trip.

Mr. Willis Langley has just completed his handsome country cottage east of Fenton and has moved into it as a New Year's present to Mrs. Langley. Mrs. Langley's brother, Mr. A. Dermoule will occupy the place just vacated by Mr. Langley.

We are hardly able to decide which has been the busier, the Christmas time or the poll tax question, for the past two weeks, as the old year and the poll tax both run out the same day of the month and of the week.

Mr. J. H. Miller was called to the bedside of his brother-in-law, Mr. Elmer Manuel near Coverdale Friday. Mr. Manuel is reported that he has a hopeless case of dropsy.

Mrs. M. Stanley has just completed her new building and will operate her grocery business in the new building in 1914. We wish them a good business and prosperous year in their new quarters.

Mr. Oscar Miller of Fenton left Sunday for Jennings to serve on the Grand Jury one week.

Mr. S. Lagrange takes a two weeks vacation from the Hecker and Fenton mail route, and the mail will be carried during that time by Mr. Homer Peloquin.

A. V. Peloquin is curling the smoke now days from a box of fine cigars presented him as a Christmas present by W. L. Stewart, M. D., of Welsh, La.

Mr. Arthulus Duplechien of Kinder has moved to one of Mr. Oscar Miller's tenant houses near Fenton for the coming year. Success to Mr. Duplechien.

Try the Stanley groceries once--then always.

B. A. HOG.
