

LOCAL ACONICS

An Interesting Continued Story of Local Happenings In and about Welsh Touching Personal Mention. ....

Irma Kimball went to Edgerly to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Kimball for a few days. Mrs. J. C. Bertrand and Mrs. J. C. Bertrand and Mrs. J. C. Bertrand went to Rayne Thursday afternoon for a few days visit with friends. J. J. Figeron, Elias Devouen, and Joe Cosner went to Rayne Thursday afternoon to attend the Ben Hur Tribe court. Mrs. Nat H. Prentice are the parents of a fine girl that arrived home Monday. X. Myers of Lafayette assistant manager of Ben Hur Tribe at court in Welsh Wednesday.

E. A. Klock of Iowa was a pleasant visitor to our office Thursday. Mr. Klock will be remembered by many Welsh friends, having lived here about two years ago. Mrs. Racheal Boucher started Monday evening for Tulsa, Okla., for an indefinite visit with her son, Albert Boucher and daughter Mrs. Asa Buck of that city. Get our Catalogue of Fruit Trees.—Jennings Nursery, Jennings, La. 28-1f W. C. Peters, manager of the Cumberland Telephone Co. of Jennings was looking after interests in Welsh Thursday. Wade E. Plauche, manager of the Insurance Department of the Calcasieu Trust & Savings Bank, was a business visitor to Lake Charles Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Huckleberry and little daughter Eva, went to Oil City, Wednesday evening where they expect to spend an indefinite time. Mrs. Gray of Crowley came over Wednesday afternoon for a visit at the home of her son, R. M. Gray of this city. Mrs. Callie Books operator of the Telephone Co. was the guest of friends in Lake Charles Thursday.

J. G. Ewing returned from New Orleans Tuesday morning, having successfully undergone an operation at the Charity Hospital he appears to be rapidly regaining normal health. His father, Mr. T. F. Ewing of Alexandria, is taking care of the work at the Ewing Blacksmith Shop during his son's convalescence. The residence of Mr. Ray Boling is undergoing a new coat of paint adding much to that section of Welsh. Hon. Chas. S. Miller, one of the prominent attorneys of Jennings, was a visitor to Welsh Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Alec Lawson and little children were the guests of friends in Lake Charles Monday. See McAdams, the painter and paper hanger, at the Belmont Hotel. His work is guaranteed and costs no more than inferior work. Let him figure on a job of painting or paper hanging. Mrs. Fred Barbee of Crowley was the guest of friends in Welsh the first of the week. Mr. and Mrs. O. N. England of Iowa were the guests of Welsh friends Tuesday. Mrs. E. S. Sheumaker of Lafayette came over Monday afternoon for a visit with her sister, Mrs. A. R. Arce-neaux of this city. Miss A. B. Chapman of Decatur, Ill., is the guest of her friend, Mrs. L. J. Bowers, south of town, this week. Mr. C. Winchell, one of the prominent planters of Roanoke was a business visitor to Welsh Monday.

Mrs. M. S. Scoggins was the guest of friends in Roanoke Monday afternoon. B. P. Tabor of Rice was a business visitor in Welsh Tuesday. Alcee Benoit was a business passenger to Lake Charles Monday. Mrs. W. C. Young of Zachary, La. who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. M. Stewart for several days, returned Monday afternoon. Mrs. John Gamble of Jennings, came over Tuesday afternoon for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Riley Prentice of this city. Homer Bertrand of Opelousas was the guest of friends in Welsh Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Ignace Valdetero and little son of Lake Arthur, were the guests of the former's sister, Mrs. A. L. Reed of this city Saturday afternoon. S. Goldsmith was transacting business in Rayne the first of the week. Messrs. M. W. Roberts of Vinton, La. and B. F. Roberts of Tyler, Tex. arrived here Saturday for a visit at the home of their brother, J. A. Roberts of this city. Fred Maund of the Welsh Carriage & Implement Co, visited relatives in Jennings Sunday. O. C. Russell of Edgerly was the guest of his wife at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Russell, Monday. Miss Maud McLees of Thornwell was the guest of her sister, Miss Ruth McLees of this city, Saturday and Sunday.

F. B. Dennett Superintendent of the Electric light plant, has rented the Mrs. W. R. Chapman residence and will occupy the same as a residence. Mr. Dennett went over to St. Francisville Wednesday to get his family and return yesterday with Mrs. Dennett and daughter. The addition of this estimate family will be a valuable acquisition to the social and religious circles of Welsh. Messrs. Ben Freeman and Arthur Clark of Jennings are business visitors in town today. Insurance.....All Kinds at The Calcasieu Trust & Savings Bank Insurance Department. Miss Fronie Jackson who has been attending the Lake Charles Business College came over Thursday to be the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Jackson of this city. Mrs. J. F. Rader of Port Arthur is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Nat H. Prentice of this city. The JOURNAL has a scholarship in the Tyler Commercial College of Tyler, Texas. This scholarship is good for an unlimited course of bookkeeping, short hand or telegraphy. We will sell this scholarship at a bargain. Call on us for particulars. The pool room of Mr. Simeon Benoit was entered last night by thieves and some ten or fifteen dollars taken from the safe. The entrance was made through the transom above the door, the floor was tracked up showing how the thief entered and went out. The public square has been greatly improved this week by the planting of trees on the square. The Ladies of the Civic League have been at the head of this movement. Messrs. W. B. Gabbert, C. B. Moore and J. W. Armstrong have been in New Orleans this week where they attended the meeting of the Grand Lodge of Masons. The Satsuma Orange, Magnolia Fig, and Paper shell pecan are in their natural element in Louisiana. A postal to Griffing Brothers, Port Arthur, Texas, will bring you their 64 page Tree Book telling all about these trees and prices. Miss Jimmie Jackson was the guest of friends in Roanoke Monday. Miss Pettie Botorff is spending the week the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Barnett of Kinder, this week. Miss Eutha Newchurch of Port Barre is the guest of her friend, Mr. and Mrs. A. Robin of this city this week. J. Alf Martin was a business visitor to Sulphur Wednesday afternoon.

L. H. Dautel is erecting a neat cottage just east of Chas. Dautel's residence as soon as completed Mr. Dautel will move into it as his home. The erection of this new home adds much to this part of the town. Miss Flora Compton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Compton, was carried to Lake Charles Sanitarium Monday for an operation for appendicitis. The operation Tuesday morning was imminently successful and at present she is doing well. Father J. Peeters of Jennings was the guest of Welsh friends Wednesday. SALESMAN WANTED to look after our interest in Calcasieu and adjacent counties. Salary or Commission. Address Lincoln Oil Co. Cleveland, Ohio. T. B. Compton who has recently moved on the Clark plantation south of Welsh was in town today and reports that he started breaking the ground for rice yesterday, using a large steam gang plow for the work. He says this method is successful.

Feel Miserable?

Out of sorts, depressed, pain in the back—Electric Bitters renews your health and strength. A guaranteed Liver and Kidney remedy. Money back if not satisfied. It completely cured Robert Madsen, of West Burlington, Iowa, who suffered from virulent liver trouble for eight months. After four doctors gave him up, he took Electric Bitters and is now a well man. Get a bottle to-day; it will do the same for you. Keep in the house for all liver and kidney complaints. Perfectly safe and dependable. Its results will surprise you. 50c and $1.00 H. E. Bucklen & Co. Philadelphia or St. Louis.

Ladies' Bazaar

Place for—
CHEAP FANCY WORK.
Embroidery Silk 4c per skein.....4
Mercerized Floss 5c 2 skeins for.....5c
Also Dress Trimming in Silk and Rashing. New long Finger Purses.

Seed! Seed! Seed!

Mexican June Corn, Hastings' Prolific, $2.00 per bushel.
L. M. HARRIS, Welsh, La. Phone No. 185

It Certainly Was Embarrassing

to David Kerr, boss of Belmont, when his charming, motherless daughter Gloria unexpectedly returned from school and a European trip, which, combined, had kept her away from home for many years and deprived her of all knowledge of the occupation of her father, whom she supposed to be a real estate operator, high in society. But that was but the beginning of embarrassing. Kerr was a typical boss of the most brutal type, far removed from "society," determined to use his power to make a place for Gloria. Gloria's bitterawakening to the truth, her falling in love with a young editor who opposes her father, and many other incidents make up a drama of absorbing interest and power. You will enjoy every instalment of our next serial in which the above is told,
The Daughter of David Kerr
Be Sure to Read It!

This Story will start in the next issue of The Journal. Dont Miss it

PUBLIC SALE!

ON THE E. C. RADEKE FARM
FIVE MILES SOUTHEAST OF WELSH
ON THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 12,

Beginning at 10:00 o'clock sharp, I will offer at public auction the following described property:

- 12 Head of Good Work Mules,
- 1 Driving Team, 1 Pony Mare with foal
- 1 2-year-old Colt, 1 Yearling Colt, 1 Saddle Pony,
- 1 cow and calf--fresh, 3 heifer calves, 1 jersey bull--2-year-old,
- 1 Deering Binder Cushman Engine attached, 2 gang plows, 1 fertilizer drill, 2 walking plows, 1 middle buster, 1 corn planter, 1 3-section drag harrow, 2 discs, 3 wagons, 1 buggy, 1 lot of farm harness, 1 set of double buggy harness, 1 heavy stock saddle, 1 set of blacksmith tools, Lot of shovels, forks, and other things too numerous to mention.

TERMS OF SALE:
All sums of $10.00 and under, Cash in Hand; all sums over $10.00 a credit of Ten months will be given, purchaser to give approved security (notes to bear 8 per cent interest) before removing property from premises. A discount of 8 per cent for cash on all sums over $10.00.

FREE LUNCH AT NOON
E. C. WILLARD, Clerk.- - - CHAS. JETER, Auctioneer.
JOHN McDAVITT.

AUCTION SALE!

Mrs. W. R. Chapman
Will offer at Auction her household goods at her home,
Saturday, Feb. 7, 1914,
at 2 o'clock p. m.

S. E. Carroll has rented the Cotton residence just south of L. E. Robinson's and will shortly move his family into it. The people of Welsh will regret to hear that Mr. Carroll has made arrangements to move his photograph gallery to Glenmora and he himself will conduct the photograph business there for the present until after the close of school here when he expects to move his family.

Friends will be sorry to hear that Mrs. J. C. Kiplinger has been quite ill with a severe attack of cold this week bordering on pneumonia.

Louisiana's Orange orchards produce more dollars per acre than any other of her crops. You should plant an orchard this spring. Ask for a free Tree Book, telling you all about trees, planting, pruning, cultivating and prices. Address, Griffing Bros. Nurseryman, Port Arthur, Texas: 38-3t

The following teachers of the Welsh High School and adjoining districts went to Jennings this morning to attend the regular meeting of that body: Prof. Aylesworth, Misses McDonald, Ling, Reeve, McLees, Anderson, McDowell, McLees, Neely, Randle and Prof. Logan.

Dr. B. A. Tabor of Jennings was a professional visitor here Thursday. J. A. Kiplinger, manager of the Vinton branch of the Calcasieu Trust & Savings Bank, came over Thursday afternoon to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kiplinger of Welsh.

The community will be grieved to hear of the serious illness of Mrs. Mary Demartean at the home of her daughter Mrs. P. H. Goodreau. She was taken seriously ill and as we go to press those at the bedside entertain little hope of her recovery.

The Albert Taylor Company drew a good audience at the Auditorium last night and the presentation of "My Fathers Son" was well rendered by the Company to an appreciative audience.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Benoit were the guests of friends in Lake Charles Friday.