Poultry and Poultry Supplies.
Practically every fancier in the country knows the White Wyandotte as one of the best all round fowls in the poultry world—good lookers, fine layers, good table birds and fine show fowls. Hardy, healthy and vigorous. Equally well adapted to the City Lot and Farm. In short, a fowl that cannot be surpassed, much less equalled, for general value.

Grosole Topics.
Fenton, La, Feb. 14, 1914.
The usual article in the Journal is Wedding Bells, but the Bells have ceased to ring, with Mr. David Marcantel and Miss Eve Buller since Thursday Thursday night about 10 o'clock the community was aroused by the roaring of fire arms the rattle of saw mill saws the dum morn of the wash tub and the bark of a half dozen scared house dogs, which brought Mr. and Mrs. Marcantel, the newlyweds, out to answer to a grand shivaree of friends. Mr. and Mrs. Marcantel promised to receive the shivaree flock Saturday evening and to serve them to wine and cake and other refreshments such as would suit the occasion. We also wish the couple a long and happy life on this their long journey together.
Mr. David Marcantel and Miss Eve Buller were united in the bonds of wedlock on the 12th and are now living at the former's home near Fenton.
A. V. Pelouquin was laid up all last week with a bruised leg, falling from a broken door step Sunday.
Mr. Alex Miller brought his wife to Welsh Friday, where she obtained medical treatment from Dr. Stewart. Mrs. Miller has been sick for several days, but was compelled to give up the hope of wearing off the illness, and go to a Doctor for treatment.
Mr. A. B. Laidlaw has just received a cargo of grapefruit and satsuma trees of about 2,600 and is now setting them out. The trees are apparently in good condition and looking fine and healthy.
We failed to learn the names, Friday a crowd of Sportsmen went through Fenton with six or seven fox hounds. They expect to camp on the Serpent Bayou for a few days, and drive for wood fox. Some of the boys here, are to meet them Saturday a. m. to take part in the chase, as there are many of the fox in the timber along the Serpent Bayou, especially in the cut over lands.
Mr. LeBleu and Miss Joset Breaux were married Tuesday at Lake Charles. Happy wishes to them.
Mr. Oscar Miller and Mr. Jim Augustine drove to Iowa by auto Thursday and returned Friday. Mr. Miller was inspecting some rice seed for his farm.
Mr. Marion McNabb of Kinder was the guest of C. J. Phelps of Fenton Monday looking over some Honduras seed rice.
We are sorry to announce our friend, Jno. O. Guyman of Woodlawn is moving his family to Lake Charles. Mr. Guyman is a cable splicer by trade, and has accepted a position there and will move this week so as to take charge of the business at once. Mr. Guyman is retiring from farm life and goes to Lake Charles for the benefit of the schools for his children.
Mr. Joe Bougant has accepted a position as truck farmer for Mr. Yves Pitre and is making some necessary repairs on the F. L. Pelouquin place to live during the year 1914. Mr. Pitre intends to put in much highland crop this year.
