

FOR POULTRY EXHIBIT

The action of the Police Jury at its last meeting in appropriating $100. to be used as premiums in a poultry exhibit during the fall ought to encourage the poultry industry in the Parish. Already this industry ranks very high and some of the highest grade chickens in the State are raised in this Parish. There is no doubt a very excellent opportunity in this section for the poultry industry and it is hoped that the expenditure of this $100 in the way of premiums will create a wider interest in this industry.

Next Thursday is Fire Prevention Day and attention of the citizens of the town is called to the matter. The day ought to be observed by a general clean up day. Removing and burning rubbish, trash and boxes and barrels about the premises is very important. A close inspection of all chimneys and stove flues should also be made and proper repairs made.

CONTENTMENT.

Contentment is the sum total of human happiness. During the whole progress of human life the principal materials of our comfort or uneasiness lie within ourselves. If the covetous or discontented could have more wealth and honor and be preserved from enemies and infirmities, if they could have perpetual youth given them, still they would be restless and unhappy. To good persons the little they have is under a blessing, and therefore, being content with it, they are happy.

Destructive Power of Shrapnel. The shrapnel is really a flying cannon which shoots its charge while in flight or explodes on contact. Its speed of 500,000 feet per second is produced by a pressure of from 30,000 to 35,000 pounds per square inch from the powder that expels it from the gun. Its bursting charge exerts a pressure of from 20,000 to 25,000 pounds per square inch. The metal of its case has a tensile strength of 135,000 pounds to the square inch and an elastic limit of 110,000 pounds per square inch.

DISCONTENT.

When discontent seizes upon the mind it is like the deadly cancer, reaching out with its tentacles for sound flesh to feed upon. It must be checked in its incipient stage. The caustic of self arraignment must be unsparingly used and the salve of common sense liberally applied. Self treatment is necessary to insure a cure.—Frank B. Welch.

TRUE HUMILITY.

The true way to be humble is not to stoop till you are smaller than yourself, but to stand at your real height against some higher nature that shall show you what the real smallness of your greatest greatness is.

National Parks.

There are in the entire country twenty national parks—Yellowstone; Hot Springs, Ark.; National zoo park, Washington; Chickamauga, Georgia; Chickamauga and Chattanooga, Tennessee; Antietam, Maryland; Rock Creek, District of Columbia; Sequoia, California; General Grant, California; Yosemite, California; Shiloh, Tennessee; Gettysburg, Pennsylvania; Vicksburg, Mississippi; Mount Rainier, Washington; Crater Lake, Oregon; Platt, Oklahoma; Wind Cave, South Dakota; Sully's Hill, North Dakota; Mesa Verde, Colorado; Glacier, Montana. The Yellowstone (Montana and Wyoming) has an area of 2,142,720 acres.—New York American.

A Long Shower.

The patriotic Scotchman had induced two Lancashire friends to go to Argyllshire for a week's holiday. On their return he met them. "Well, how did you enjoy yourselves? Did you have good weather?" "There was just a shower on our first day," replied one of them. "Didn't I tell you it was all lies about the Highlands being wet?" "That shower hadn't ended when we came home," was the svere retort.—Manchester Guardian.

W P Russell Jr Monument Unveiled

Oct. 4th will long be remembered by those who attended the unveiling of W. P. Russell Jr. monument, in the beautiful Oaklawn Cemetery and listened to the impressive ceremony by the local W. O. W. Camp No. 176.

The day was one of those beautiful autumn days known only in the southland. Rev. W. L. Childress delivered one of his masterful addresses on the benefits of woodcraft, and the sovereigns wish to thank Rev. Childress for the encouragement they received.

Effect Of Alcohol

"An' when he came to himself he was senseless," said Mrs. Flaherty, speaking of her husband, who had met with an accident. It does not require an accident to discover that this condition exists naturally in many instances. The habitual tippler is always that way.

Alcohol diminishes the area of consciousness and more especially puts to sleep the motives of self restraint, which compel decency where otherwise barbarism might govern.—Catholic Citizen.

Why Not Publish It

When you want a fact to become generally known, the right way is to publish it. Mrs. Joseph Kallans, Peru, Ind., was troubled with belching, sour stomach and frequent headaches. She writes "I feel it my duty to tell others what Chamberlain's Tablets have done for me. They have helped my digestion regulated my bowels. Since using them I have been entirely well." For sale by all dealers.—Adv. T—Imo

It Sounded Like Money.

A government bureau that compiles and issues all sorts of information concerning natural resources recently sent an analysis of spring water to an inquiring landowner.

The report named several different mineral constituents found in the water, with the number of parts per million for each. The last substance given was iron, indicated in the list by the chemical symbol "Fe," and the analysis showed thirteen-hundredths of one part of iron. A few days later the bureau received a reply from the inquirer, in which he said: "I notice that your fee is 13 cents. I think that is pretty small, so I inclose a money order for 25 cents."—Youth's Companion.

Ending a Letter.

The simplicity of "Yours" as a letter ending would have astounded Jeremy Taylor, whose letters to John Evelyn often wind up with perfect triumphs of complexity in this respect. His best is, "Believe me that I am, in great heartiness and dearness of affection, dear sir, your obliged and most affectionate and endeared friend and servant," or "Your very affectionate friend and hearty servant." Even in his shortest perorations of the kind the "affectionate" and the "servant" are always the two indispensable words. Probably no man, woman or child would combine these two at the end of a letter today.—London Tatler.

Chivarie

Saturday evening the young people of the north part of town surprised and Mrs. L. J. Prentice by surrounding the home about nine o'clock for the purpose of chivarieing them.

After the chivarie the guests were invited in to spend the evening, and every one joined in ricing them. A very unique mistake was made when Mr. Ed Bower was riced instead of groom.

The evening was spent in playing games. A delightful concert was rendered by Mr. Edd Bower. About eleven o'clock delightful refreshments were served after which the guests departed.

Those present were: Misses Montgomery, Bessie Davis, and Amy Radeke, Mabel Shreve, Effie Hinchee, Fannie and Truile Hinton, Rosalee Prentice, Messrs. Bower and Webb Harris, Edd Bowers, Hinchee, B. H. Stewart and N. H. Prentice, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Ash, Mr. Mrs. L. H. Prentice.
