

The Careful Man sees that his son starts a Bank Account

Here's a fact: The money you spend now is many times that money, because it is cheating yourself out of the profit that money would earn for you some day. In other words, you are throwing away the foundation on which you could build a fortune. You are wasting away the seed which would become a tree if planted. Plant some money in our bank.

A BIRTHDAY DINNER PARTY

It was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Lee on Friday, July 27th. The guests were Mr. Smith, wife and daughter from Vinton, La., Mr. and Mrs. Ash, Mr. A. G. Smith and his two sons, Lloyd and Lee and Rev. Hervey and family. The occasion was the 70th anniversary of Mr. J. B. Lee and also the 60th anniversary of Mr. Smith of Vinton. Mr. Lee and Mr. Smith for a long time were neighbors in Crowley and their birthdays, coming on the same day, they have had the pleasure of this celebration together many times, some times in the Lee home and again in the Smith home. Such joyous and happy events sweeten life and lengthen it too.

It was a rainy day or others would have been present. The honored veterans received several presents which made them remember the days in the long ago when they used to wait for good St. Nicholas to come and distribute his annual gifts.

When 12 o'clock struck a very happy announcement was made by Mrs. Lee. Come out to dinner. After a short prayer of thanksgiving for the mercies of God and asking a blessing on the company, especially on the two counting their 60th and 70th anniversary, we were asked to help ourselves. The fact was proven that Mrs. Lee is a splendid cook. The good things we had were too numerous to mention, but a few will be enough to make you hungry. Baked chicken and dressing served on a dish which was a wedding present to Mr. Lee's mother. Sweet corn of the best, pies and cakes in abundance. Well, we felt like the little boy who went to his grandfather's in the country, who was told that he could eat all he wanted, but presently was found weeping, and when asked the cause, said: "I can't eat all I want."

The relation of pleasant experiences and happy and neighborly conversation were freely and heartily indulged. The occasion was very conducive to pleasant converse.

May you, my brethren, have the joy of counting many more milestones and may your path shine brighter and brighter unto the perfect day.

Mr. Smith and wife and Miss Lucy remained over Sunday and worshipped with us and their old time friends. They ate dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Ash on that Sunday. I think they want to move to Welsh, they liked the people so much.

By One of the Guests.
