Personal---But Not Too Personal And Local Items of Interest

The United War Work quota for this parish is $14,000, wards 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9 are allotted $5,000 of that sum. Don't wait to be asked—hand in your share before the asking starts.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Smith have just received a letter from their son Lee stating that he is at Camp Eustis, Va., recovering from the influenza. Lee, who is a member of the Coast Artillery, was all ready to go across when he took the flu.

Mrs. K. W. Hartwell went to Lake Charles today for a visit with M. L. Harbut and family.

Fresh Oysters daily at Martin's Fruit Exchange

Little Winfield Plauche, youngest son of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Plauche, had the misfortune to have his left hand badly crushed and two fingers broken Tuesday afternoon while playing with other boys around a bay press parked in the street in front of the Plauche residence.

Mrs. H. G. Hayes had as her guests this week her mother, Mrs. Abshire, and her sister, Mrs. Simeon Benoit.

Pyroto Ant Killer will free your house of ants in 48 hours—at Kimball's

Mrs. O. Stansbury is here from Iota for a visit to her new grandson and her many Welsh friends. She will visit here until Sunday, when Otis is expected home for a short furlough.

Rocque Senex is over from Gerstner today, his first visit home in several weeks.

J. T. Hood and W. M. Colbert Real Estate.

Mrs. Grace Norris, who has been in Lake Charles the past three weeks, nursing flu patients, has returned to Welsh for a few days stay.

N. H. Poythress of Roanoke was a Welsh business visitor Wednesday.

Stuffed Sweet, Mixed, Sliced Sweet, Sour Mixed Pickles at Kimball's.

Miss Aleda Hebert spent Wednesday in Lafayette visiting friends and relatives.

D. M. Babin was over from Roanoke Sunday morning to attend church services.

Rev. T. E. Webb, formerly pastor of the Methodist church here and later pastor at Kinder and Jennings, but who has been engaged the past season in rice farming near Fenton, has returned to the pulpit, accepting a call at Medford, Okla., for which place he and his family departed last week. Although the reverend was proficient as an agriculturist, it is said that after a season's trials he decided that rice farming was not a fit calling for a self respecting devout minister of the gospel. The good wishes of a host of friends here will follow him and his interesting family to their new home.

Pigs Feet and Bologna Sausage, Martin's Fruit Exchange.

The Misses Ethel Hebert and Aline Greer were Lake Charles visitors Thursday.

District Superintendent F. W. Loy of the Methodist church is in Welsh today holding the quarterly meeting of the church.

Cho-Cho red hot relish, sweet Relish at Kimball's

Druggist O. J. Toups is out again after a severe battle with the flu.

J. M. Barnett of Kinder with his son in law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Tackett of Sellersburg, Ind., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Bottorff Saturday and Sunday. Mr. Barnett is just recovering from a very severe attack of the flu. He was confined in the sanitarium at Mansfield for a matter of ten days, and like most of the other flu victims "Jim" shows the signs.

J. T. Hood and W. M. Colbert Long Time Loans.

E. L. Kellner, yeoman, stationed at Newport, R. L., was the guest of his sister, Mrs. W. M. Colbert, a few days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Fontenot and children of Rice were Welsh visitors Saturday.

The banner for big sweet potatoes in this section has again changed hands. This time the Rev. J. W. Hervey comes to the front with a potato so big that it is really hard to believe. His product, which is on display in the Journal window, weighs 13 pounds and 7 ounces. It would have weighed more but the reverend tired of digging and broke the tuber off, leaving—no telling how much—the rest of it in the ground. This is unquestionably the last word in sweet potato culture in this section, although Lake Charles claims to have one which tips the beam at 32 pounds.

Creole Marmalade at Kimball's.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Peloquin of Fenton have received notice of the death of their son, Ernest Peloquin, in France on October 4th. The brief notice received by them does not explain details.

Mr. Cleopha Benoit, who was taken quite seriously ill Sunday is reported to be almost well again. Mr. Benoit was found in an unconscious condition in his field where he had been engaged in carrying rice out of the water to higher ground.

Joe David was out again Monday morning after a severe battle with pneumonia following an attack of influenza.

J. T. Hood and W. M. Colbert Real Estate.

During the enforced closing of the schools on account of the flu Prof. McGuff has been busying himself with preparing the school's model garden for the coming season's activity. After fruitless endeavor to get someone to plow the plot the undaunted professor secured the loan of a team of mules and plow, accomplishing the feat by his own personal endeavor. It is said by those who made observation that he showed careless familiarity with the plow handles which might lead the uninitiated to believe that he might have made their acquaintance on a previous occasion. Prof. McGuff is a firm believer in the practical part of education as applied to the science of agriculture, and his efforts may be watched with the assurance of more than ordinary accomplishment.

Fresh Fruits, all kinds, Martin's Fruit Exchange

J. J. Figueroa, formerly employed by the Cumberland and by the Planters' telephone companies here, has accepted a position with the local exchange again, coming here from Abbeville. With his family he will reside in the Leroy White house in north Welsh.

Wilbur Gabbert and Wesley Todd, who are undergoing the officers' training course at the S. L. I. I. Lafayette, were here Saturday and Sunday for a visit.

J. T. Hood and W. M. Colbert Long Time Loans.

Hon. Chas. F. Buck Jr. of New Orleans, was here Saturday and Sunday looking after his farming interests north of town, and incidentally shaking hands with numerous old time friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Mills stopped in Welsh Saturday between trains for a visit with Mesdames W. T. McAffrey and A. B. Hall. They were en route to Sulphur for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Lyons.

Cement Blocks.—C. L. Davis, phone 85, Welsh, La.

Mrs. J. M. Hall and granddaughter Miss Emma May Clement arrived Saturday from Lafayette for a visit with the families of W. T. McAffrey and A. B. Hall.

Between the optimist and pessimist the difference is small. The optimist the doughtnut sees—the pessimist the hole.

FARMERS—See me at once—Feed is advancing in price. Place your orders now for future delivery—Ear Corn, Shelled Corn and Oats in car lots. R. A. Estes, Phone 131, Welsh, La.

D. E. Fisher has received a card announcing the safe arrival over sea of his son, Otis. Otis, it can be said, made many fruitless attempts to break into the ranks of the different departments of "Uncle Sam's" fighting force, without success, but when he did get in he was not long in getting to the front.

The Welsh branch had as their guests from Jennings this week Mrs. B. D. Ilgenfritz, chairman of Women's work, Mrs. Remage, chairman of Home Service and Miss Margaret C. Ritchie, treasurer of the Parish chapter. They discussed the work of the Red cross with workers of the Welsh branch. The Christmas cartoons were shown and instructions for filling, addressing, inspecting and mailing were given.

Some of the articles that may be sent are razor blades, neck ties, hoes, cigars, cigarettes, pipes, chewing gum, chocolate, nuts, (shelled) and hard candies. Fruit cake and soft candies are prohibited. The soft candies crumble and the fruit cake moulds. These boxes can only hold three pounds.

Mrs. Beatrice Peck has been put on the Christmas box inspection committee in the place of Mrs. W. E. Faught.

The allotment for November is delayed on account of the conditions, but will be forth coming.

A desk is badly needed at the Red Cross work rooms. Any one having one to spare will be assured that the loan of same for use will be gratefully received.

Did you forget to hand in your contribution for the towel shower that the Welsh branch solicited for the hospitals? If so, wake up and hand same to Mrs. Fear. The towels (179) contributed cost $37.75 and the expense must be met by individual contribution. This amount cannot be taken from the treasury.

Equally important as Red Cross work now is, the War Council work. Your individual contribution to the fund will do much to keep the soldiers up to the mark. With the Victory boys and Girls, the Men and Women committees, the Telephone Brigade no person will be overlooked in this campaign.

Nov. 11 to 18 one week Let us all be ready to do our bit.

The Jennings Branch R. C. did much work in and around Jennings for those sick with influenza. Nurses were furnished families who needed them and soups were sent around to the patients. This service was gratefully received by many who were unfortunate to have all members of their household sick.

Greatly Benefited by Chamberlain's Tablets.

"I am thankful for the good I have received by using Chamberlain's Tablets. About two years ago when I began taking them I was suffering a great deal from distress after eating, and from headache and a tired, languid feeling due to indigestion and a tropid liver. Chamberlain's Tablets corrected these disorders in a short time, and since taking two bottles of them my health has been good," writes Mrs. M. P. Harwood, Auburn, N. Y. Ad Chm 11-18

The Red Cross have received the Christmas boxes which are to be filled and sent to the boys over there.

In order to get a box one must go to the Red Cross room and present the label which has been sent to them by the young man for whom the box is intended.

No boxes will be accepted for shipment after Nov. 15 and it is very necessary that you get your box as soon as you receive your label as each soldier may receive only one box this year and if you fail to send one and have a label you may rest assured that this particular soldier will not get any box for Christmas.
