PROHIBITION BILL UNCONSTITUTIONAL

Opinion on Wartime Liquor Act Given By Elihu Root and Others.

Washington.-The wartime prohibiion enforcement bill recently passed by the house, and now pending before a senate committee, is unconstitutional, according to an opinion by Elihu Root, William D. Guthrie and William L. Marbury, counsel for the United States Brewers' Association, made public this week.

This opinion holds that until the eighteenth amendment becomes ef-'ective on Jan. 16, 1920, congress, unler well settled rules of constitutional law, "has no express power to prohibit the manufacture and sale of beer, whether or not intoxicating." There is now no valid reason for the wartime prohibition act, the lawyers leclare, and there is no evidence, they add, to support the claim that the proabout the flaring sleeve.
